

Spanganburg-Rausler Nuptials Held

Mrs. John Reed Spanganburg

A beautiful summer wedding took place in First Baptist Church on Saturday, June 23, when Miss Joyce Carolyn Rausler was married to John Reed Spanganburg. Rev. Alvin C. Foster performed the ceremony amid a setting of palms, gladioli and candelabra.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Rausler are the parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Howard Spanganburg of Palmyra and the late Mrs. Spanganburg.

The bride wore a princess style gown of white peau de soie with bell sleeves and a train of Alencon lace. Her elbow bouffant veil was caught to a silk organza rose with scattered seed pearls. She carried white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Gerald Hill of Jefferson Avenue was her sister's matron of honor. She was attired in an ice blue silk organza gown with matching headdress. She carried a basket of white and pink roses with blue delphinium. Bridesmaids Misses Susan King of Hulbert Avenue and Bonnie King, Ayrault Road, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Gene Murphy of Rochester wore matching ice blue gowns and accessories. They carried baskets of white roses with blue delphinium.

Master John King was ring bearer and Miss Laurie Robin Hill was flower girl. She wore an ice blue organza dress and carried a miniature basket of white and pink roses with blue delphinium.

David Ellsworth of Miami, Florida served as best man for his cousin. Ushers were Gerald Hill, Floyd King and James Ellsworth.

A wedding reception was held at Happy Acres in Webster.

The couple is honeymooning in Bermuda. Upon their arrival home they will reside in Liverpool, N. Y. The bridegroom will attend Syracuse University.

The bride was graduated from Minerva DeLand High School and Mr. Spanganburg is a graduate of Palmyra-Macedon Central School and the Rochester Institute of Technology.
