

Haley-Becue

Mrs. Patrick Michael Haley

Miss Ingrid Marie Becue and Patrick Michael Haley were united in marriage on Saturday, September 24, at the Interfaith Chapel at the University of Rochester, with Reverend Jerry Appleby officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfried Becue of 62 Kresg Road, Fairport. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Haley, Herkimer.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her parents, wore a candlelight gown of crepe chiffon with a chapel length train and full length veil. Floral Venice lace made up the Empire bodice and outlined the angel sleeves, high neck and train. The bridal bouquet consisted of white cascading roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Richard Coyle of Cato, attended as the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Melissa Hartfield, Atlanta, Georgia, Lila Smith, Oswego, Aida Wetzel, Long Beach, and Karen Hughes, Herkimer, sister of the bridegroom. They wore full length capes over copper colored gowns, with attached hoods. They carried cascade bouquets of fall colored pom-poms.

Jeffrey White of Herkimer served as best man, assisted by ushers Mark Becue, brother of the bride, David Bilobran, Philadelphia, Michael Chapin, Henrietta, and Dale DeCann of Newark.

Kristin Hershey was flower girl and Robert Hughes Jr., nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

The bride was graduated from the chemistry program at the SUNY, Oswego. Her bridegroom is a graduate of the Rochester Institute of Technology, also in the Chemistry program.

Following their reception at Marvin's Country Club in Macedon, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Aruba.

Fairport Women Spark Art Gallery Fund Drive

YOU GOTTA HAVE ART—Armed with the slogan "You Gotta Have Art," Jeanne Dent (left) and Susan Hilgendorf of Fairport are among 700 volunteer workers involved in the Memorial Art Gallery's current membership campaign. The drive, for $427,000 in membership contributions, runs through Oct. 7.

"You Gotta Have Art" in this year's message to the community from Fairport residents during the Memorial Art Gallery's membership campaign.

This annual fund-raiser, which began September 7th and runs through October 6th, has a goal this year of $427,000.

A large group of area residents are participating in the drive. These include Division Leader, Jeanne Dent, 114 Selborne Chase, and Captains Diana Bradley, 57 Selborne Chase, Dilys Farney, 280 Ayrault Road, Trica Gerace, 81 Black Watch Trail, Susan Hilgendorf, 4 Birling Gap, Mary Jones, 131 Selborne Chase, Susan Jordan, 38 S. Ridge Trail, June Kern, 35 Mountain Rise, Mary Lorenson, 55 Selborne Chase, and Mary Macken, 5 Creekside Road.

"This year, "because of inflation and the drop in government support, the Gallery needs a ten percent increase in all our pledges simply to maintain our programs at their present level. Some 8,000 individual and corporate members, and over 200,000 annual visitors take advantage of this cultural resource, and out-reach programs carry art to tens of thousands of school children and adults each year. It's a small investment for such an important return for ourselves and our children."

Membership begins at $25 for individual or family and offers free general admission to the Gallery, invitations to openings and other events, art tours, lectures, art rental, discounts on Creative Workshop classes and Gallery Shop purchases, art and antiques consultation, and free subscription to the monthly Gallery Notes.

This year a member who increases his or her pledge $25 or more will receive the book, "Treasures of Tutank-hamun." For an increase of $50 or more, they will receive a one-year subscription of "Art In American."
