

Perkins-D'Annunzio

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Lee Perkins

A former Webster school teacher, Jeanne, Marie D'Annunzio, and Danny Lee Perkins of Florida, were married in the Rockledge Methodist Church, Florida at 2 p.m. on Friday, November 25.

The bride, daughter of Reverend and Mrs. Albert D'Annunzio of 4 White Oak Lane, Fairport, was given in marriage by her parents. She was led to the altar by her father, who then officiated jointly at the double ring ceremony, with Reverend William Fiasackerly III.

Jeanne chose a gown of ivory satin and lace, with a long train. Her gown was designed with high neckline, and long sleeves. Her cathedral veil of silk illusion was gathered to a matching crown. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers with daisies predominating, in keeping with the the daisy lace motif in her bridal ensemble.

The bride was graduated from Fairport High School. She holds a B.A. degree in Elementary Education from Houghton College. She is a former member of the Klem Road North Elementary School in Webster and is currently a teacher in the Golfview Elementary School System in Rockledge, Florida.

Mrs. Gary D'Annunzio of 20 Vincent Drive in Pittsford was her sister-in-law's matron of honor, and Mrs. Jeffrey Norgren of Cocog was bridesmaid. They wore gowns of sapphire blue floral satin and carried white daisies.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Perkins, Bakersfield, California, chose his brother, Donal Perkins, as his best man. Jeanne's brother, Gary, ushered.

VFW Aux Wraps Gifts

Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, together with other organizations, spent Tuesday, December 13, wrapping gifts for the patients' Christmas at the Canandaigua Veteran Hospital.

Attending from the Perinton V.F.W. Auxiliary were: President, Ruth Williams; Chaplain, Jean Ferrin; V.A.V.S. Representative, Marie Torquato, and State Division Captain, Josephine Yates. Also, Virginia

Wacenske, Doris Sortino, Lydia Kemp and Elsie Zimmer. Assisting were Post members Leonard Yates, Anthony Sortino and Anthony Torquato.

The Perinton Auxiliary and Post members also participated Sunday, December 18, when the VFW groups entertained patients in the hospital at Ward parties with sing-a-longs, entertainers, and dancing. Refreshments were also served.

Girl Scouts Get Help On Clean-Up

Last Wednesday, December 7 the New York Janitorial Service donated their service to strip, clean, and wax the floor in the classroom at the Perinton Ambulance Corps on Turk Hill Rd. This gift came about as the result of Junior Girl Scout Troop 269 and their cleaning service project at the Ambulance Corps. For the past two years, the girls of Troop 269 have been cleaning at the Ambulance Corps on a monthly basis. When it became apparent that the large floor in the classroom needed professional attention, the Troop began the search for a "cost free" solution. To everyone's mutual delight, New York Janitorial Service volunteered to do the job. The Perinton Ambulance Corps uses this classroom for the many courses it offers for the general public. Some of these classes are Standard and Advanced First Aid, Emergency Medical Training, and Citizens C.P.R.

Copp-Seaman

Laurie A. Seaman and William Scott Copp were united in marriage in the First Congregational Church of Fairport, on Friday, November 25. The candlelight ceremony was performed by the Reverend James Dollefeld.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Seaman, 54 Briggs Avenue, Fairport. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Copp, West Avenue, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Laurie was escorted to the sanctuary by her father. She was dressed in a long gown of candlelight chiffon and Lutton, fashioned by Frank Cooman of Fairport. The gown was lace trimmed, in Victorian style with long sleeves and high neckline. A Juliet cap held her elbow length veil and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses, baby's breath and spider mums.

Margaret Rohde was her sister's matron of honor. The bride's nieces, Kathryn Johnston and Jane Stevens were flower girls. All wore gowns of Rosewood velvet. They carried rose carnations, baby's breath and spider mums.

The flower girls were escorted by Paul and Andrew Johnston, nephews of the bride.

Richard Conant served as the best man and ushering were Richard Copp, brother of the bridegroom, and Edwin Johnston and William Stevens, the bride's brothers-in-law.

Following the church ceremony, a wedding reception and dinner took place at Rund's Periwinkle Restaurant in Perinton.

The new Mrs. Copp is a graduate of Fairport High School, Canton A.T.C., Rochester Institute of Technology School of Business, and the Sawyer Business Institute. She is employed at the American Can Company.

Her husband is employed with the E.G. Johnston Inc.

Bezek-Fulkerson

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Bezek

The choir of Saint Joseph's Church in Penfield sang a Folk Mass at the marriage of Linda Fulkerson and Matthew Bezek in the Church of the Resurrection, Perinton, at 7 p.m., Saturday, November 26. The Reverend Robert Kreckel performed the ceremony.

Nancy Bezek, sister of the bridegroom, sang with the Folk Group and participating in the readings at the nuptial liturgy were Kathleen and Carol Fulkerson, sisters of the bride, and Bill Bezek, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. and Mrs. Douglas Fulkerson, 1696 Turk Hill Road, Fairport, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bezek, 28 Harwood Circle, Penfield, are the parents of the bridal couple.

Linda was given in marriage by her father. She wore a long gown of off-white organdy, overlaid with lace and designed in turn-of-the-century fashion. Her illusion veil was attached to a crown which had been worn by the bridegroom's mother at her own wedding. Linda's bouquet was of cymbidium orchids and roses.

Kimberly Fulkerson was her sister's honor attendant. Her gown was of organdy floral print and she carried yellow roses and white carnations.

Mark Bezek was best man for his brother and serving as ushers were Chris Fulkerson, brother of the bride, and Tom Bezek, another brother of the bridegroom.

A reception in honor of the young couple was held at the Green Lantern Inn after the church ceremonies.

The newlyweds will make their home in Canandaigua, where the bridegroom is a student at Finger Lakes Community College. He is majoring in Horticulture.

The bride is a graduate of Fairport High School and attended Monroe Community College.
