MARIA BESSIE DISHAN.

REPAYMENTS, July 29.—Mary Bessey Dishan, 66, was born in Skidmore, Jackson County, Iowa, July 16, 1870. She was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bessey, of Clinton County, Iowa, and was married at the age of 21 to Mr. Dishan, a farmer, in 1891. They had six children, four of whom are still living. She was a member of the Methodist Church, and was active in its work. She was known for her kindliness and her readiness to help others. She leaves her husband, four children, and a host of friends and relatives. She was buried in the Skidmore Cemetery.

U.S. OFFICIAL IS SHOT BY MEXICANS.

Immigration inspector Wounded at Juarez.

PROBE DEMANDED BY BRYAN.

 وهینین، ریکارد 1911.

NEWSPAPER MEN MEET AT LAKE PLACID.

President Wilson Made No Comment on the Shooting of Dixon.

Northern New York Banker Opposes Measure to Prevent Anti-Mexican Riots.

The Northern New York banks have come out against the measure to prevent anti-Mexican riots. The measure, which was introduced by Senator Burton of New York, was intended to prevent the recurrence of the incident at Juarez, where a Mexican man was killed by American soldiers. The banks have written to the Department of Commerce, asking for a speedy action on the measure.

BRASHER MAN ORDAINED.

Mrs. Wm. Latimer came from Joe Johnson last Tuesday. Mrs. Latimer is the mother of Mr. Wm. Latimer, who is the assistant editor of the New York Times. He is spending the summer in Massena, where he is with his family.

COMMENTS ON DIED IN WRECK.

W. J. Cuglar, of Glens Falls, who was the driver of the train that went to Terrace Park last week, has been at Gilman's home since his return. He is spending the week in Massena, where he is with his family.

SCHOOL NEWS.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1911.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1911.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1911.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1911.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1911.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1911.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1911.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1911.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1911.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 31, 1911.

New York State prisons receive special attention in a bulletin on "Education in State Institutions," which was issued by the United States Bureau of Education. The bulletin gives information about the educational problems with special reference to the prisons, and contains a list of the prisons in the state.