A. T. Culbertson Now a Pilot

Soloed at Racine, Wisconsin
A. T. Culbertson, formerly of this village, where he was well-known for his scouting activities, has carried his preparedness slogan into aviation.
In a news story in the Racine Times-Call, of November 27th, Culbertson's latest undertaking was related. He has been acting as chief mechanic at an airport at Air City. At Air City he "prepared" for flying. When not engaged in the overhauling of balky engines and troublesome rigging he found time to take flying instructions at the airport.
Last Thursday he demonstrated the old policies he had learned while scouting, for he soloed after only six hours and ten minutes of instruction. The feat set a new record for that airport.
Culbertson will remain at Air City as head of the service and repair department, with the expectation of building up sufficient local time in the air to acquire a commercial license.

The Shakespeare Club

The Shakespeare Club met with Miss O. B. Fielder this week with Mrs. C. C. Bateman presiding in Mrs. Beecher's, the president's, absence.
"The Eastern Gateway" (Calcutta), was the topic under discussion and Mrs. G. A. Sutfin presented an interesting paper giving the history of this great city and its relation to the government of India.
Calcutta is the second largest city of the British Empire, and is situated on the east bank of the Hoogly river—which is a branch of the Ganges—nearly 100 miles from the sea. It has made its growth in about 200 years through the efforts and interests of the British East India Company.
Until recently Calcutta was the capital of India and home of the viceroy and the government house is its finest building. It consists of a spacious central structure surrounded with four great wings and surmounted by a magnificent dome. Calcutta has six or seven colleges, under government control, the requirements of whose students equal those of European universities.
The commerce of a large proportion of India centers in Calcutta and its foreign trade is mainly in the hands of English merchants.
The portion of the city occupied by foreign residents and wealthy natives is built in palatial magnificence in strong contrast to the squalid condition of the poor quarters.
The fine post office building stands on the site of the horribly famous "Black Hole of Calcutta," where 146 men of the garrison were captured and locked in this dungeon, 18 feet square, with only two small windows, and all but 23 were dead the next morning.
Mrs. Sutfin described the wonderful parks in one of which a famous banyan tree—which trees are remarkable for their strange growth and great age. They are not lofty trees but their horizontal branches send down slender fibers which take root and become other trunks. The Calcutta banyan has over 200 trunks and is 1,000 feet in circumference.
Since the Sepoy rebellion—about 1770—Calcutta has been peaceful and prosperous.

Although the marriage took place several months ago, friends of the young couple were not let in on the secret until a few days ago.
Mr. and Mrs. Sherman will reside at Springwater.

Rotary Club Holds Weekly Meeting

Members of the Rotary Club held their regular weekly meeting at the Foster Hotel Tuesday noon, with Walter B. Sanders of Nunda as guest speaker.
Mr. Sanders' topic was "Observations and Impressions," after having returned from a European trip. England, Italy, France and Germany were included in the itinerary.
It is of particular interest to Dansvillians to learn that Sanders was brought to Mr. Sanders' attention when he first arrived on the Continent. He, related in his address that he purchased an American magazine when he arrived in Europe and the first page that he chanced to open was a full page advertisement of Dansville's health resort.
He declared that Europe, in his opinion, is not in as good condition as the United States is today. The European people look upon President Hoover, and the United States, to bring order out of the present unstable conditions existing in Europe. Sanders stated that while no acknowledgement is made of this fact, all indications point that way.
The club received an invitation to visit the Boy Scout meeting at Bath on December 7th.

W. O. T. M. Has New Project

The "Women of the Moose" held their regular meeting December 7, with a good attendance. Plans were made for a food sale to be held in the near future.
It was decided to continue to hold meetings regularly every other week as usual.
The members are making aprons with pockets, to be filled with pennies, a penny for every inch around the waist. When filled they will be sent to the Old Folks Home at Moose Haven, Florida, for the new House of God which the Moose are building for the old people. The ladies at the home will piece quilts out of the little aprons.
The executive committee will meet early before the next meeting, December 15.

Church Society Met Wednesday

The regular meeting of the Pastor's Aid Society of the Presbyterian church was held in the church parlor Wednesday afternoon.
The president, Mrs. Frank Campbell, presided. Following the devotionals reports were given and it was found that $90 was cleared on the pancake supper.
Mrs. B. C. Brown reported on the relief work being done by the society. Mrs. Clara Maloney kindly volunteered to act in Mrs. Brown's place during her absence this winter.
The president reported that the curtains for the ladies' parlor had been purchased.
After the meeting adjourned a comfortable for a needy family was tied, followed by a six o'clock congregational dinner consisting of roast beef, mashed potatoes, cabbage salad, rolls, pickles, jelly, cottage pudding and coffee, at which about two hundred and sixty sat down.
Mrs. H. G. Fowler was in charge of the program, consisting of Christmas recitations by the children of the church and a Christmas reading by Miss Ruth Birdsall.

Annual Election at Hospital

The annual meeting of the Dansville General Hospital, Inc., was held Wednesday evening, in the assembly room of the Dansville Public Library at 8 o'clock.
All of the people who contributed to the hospital are members of the corporation and were eligible to cast their vote.
Nine directors were elected to serve for a term of three years each. Reports of various officers were heard and the regular business transacted.
The following were elected to serve as directors for the next three years:
William F. Kelly, Thomas McTarnaghan, Dr. Simon King, Dr. J. C. Dorr, F. F. Blek, Gamble Wilson, Helen Pratt, Mrs. Elizabeth Scherer and Rosa Murdock.

William Hall has been perfect in attendance through the first quarter of the school year.

High School Plays at Avon Friday

The Dansville Central High School basketball team will play Avon High School in its inaugural game Friday evening at Avon.
This makes a slight change in the league as Avon replaces Livonia. It will be the first league game of the season. The change is expected to furnish the local cagers with stiffer competition as Avon generally offers a hard fighting team.
The Red and Black tossers have been crimmaging regularly during the past week in an endeavor to present a smooth working combination.
Coach Bob Bell has had a hard problem on his hands in selecting the five men to take the floor for the opening whistle. Two teams have been showing fine ability to score in all the workouts to date. The team that will get the call to start has not been definitely decided.
Randall and Andrus, veteran forwards from last season's team are being pushed hard by Huver and Norton for the front positions.
Reilly, the third veteran, seems to have one of the guard positions cinched at this writing. Ott and Schuster are battling for the other guard.
Louis Blake and Cletus Fries are putting up a stiff scrap for the center post, with Blake having a slight edge. Blake has had a bit more experience but is being pushed hard by Fries. Either is apt to start.
In the preliminary game at Avon Friday night the second squad will tangle with Avon's seconds.

Planning For Holiday Mail Rush

The local post office is busy as usual at this time of year planning to handle the large amount of Christmas letters and packages sent at holiday time, and the cooperation of the public is asked that there may be no delay in deliveries.
The necessity for early mailing has been so thoroughly explained in the past that it seems unnecessary to stress this point again. Orders from the department are that every postal employee shall not be required to perform any service on Christmas day, but that the 350,000 postal employees may spend the whole day with their families, a privilege which they are surely entitled to.
The service at the post office will therefore be necessarily limited to collection and dispatch of mail and the delivery of special delivery mail only. There will be no deliveries by city or rural carriers and no window service. Further announcement of the service to be given will be made later. Arrangements will also be made to keep the parcel post and stamp windows open during the evening during the heavy mailing period and the dates and hours will be announced later.
The cooperation of large mailers is asked that all catalogues, circulars and calendars which are not distinctly of a holiday nature be mailed early in December or held until after the 25th, that the entire efforts of the post office may be utilized as far as possible toward the prompt handling of holiday mail.
It is already time for the mailing of parcel post to foreign countries, and information can be furnished as to the latest date on which parcels can be mailed to connect with steamers which are scheduled to arrive before the 25th.

Extra clerks, carriers and trucks have already been engaged to handle the increased volume of mail, and with the earnest cooperation of the public in mailing early so as to avoid a last minute congestion, there should be no delays. The personnel of the local post office pledges their very best efforts to perform this big task to the limit of their ability.
