SAFETY More than $2,500,000 worth of Liberty Bonds have been lost, burned or stolen, the Treasury Department reports. And this is believed to represent about half the bonds in the fire by mistake. There summed five $100 bonds bought by a Colorado man. Ashes of a $12,000 fire were sent to the department with the request that this amount of new bonds be forwarded to the writer, who had thrown the loss from these causes. A goat con- is absolute safety here in our massive stone and steel vaults—safety at the small cost of $5 and upwards a year.

A Double Surprise Party. Mrs. George H. Brown was given a surprise party on her birthday, March 7th, by some of her former school pupils, who presented Mrs. Brown with a handsome clock. The anniversary of Miss Anita Winn occurring on the same day, it was a double surprise. The festivities comprised games, in- dancing interspersed by reminiscences by the hostess and her young friends, after which refreshments were served. The food being so generously provided for the occasion that a number of families in the village, where illness prevailed were remembered with some of the goodies. The combined birthday party was a most enjoyable affair.

Friendly Sunday Was Observed. "Friendly Sunday" was observed at the Reformed Dutch Church of Kinderhook last Sunday, March 12th, "friends" being invited to accompany many of the members, and one of the largest congregations seen in some time were in attendance at the services. The pastor, Rev. Lyle W. Robinson, had announced that his sermon would be from the theme "Building Monuments, or the Challenge of Kinderhook to the Church." The sermon was a masterly one. Mr. Robinson's taking as his text from Nehemiah 2:20, "Even as these men were concerned with rebuilding the walls about the city of their memories even so should the church be concerned in building a wall to safeguard the lives and the morals of those men whom it would instruct in the ways of duty and of the right lives and building up a wall of moral science." The singing by the full chorus choir was finely rendered, the church quartet sang an hymn at its best. A solo, "The Ninety and Nine," was sung most effectively by William Wadsworth and was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Kelder was at the organ.

Death of Mrs. James Boyce. Mrs. James Boyce, wife of James Boyce, of Albany, died at the Albany hospital, where about a week ago Mrs. Boyce underwent an operation from which it was said she was recovering when a release occurred. Mrs. Boyce had suffered a severe attack of grippe during the winter, from which she did not regain strength rapidly, altho able to be around. Mrs. Boyce had resided in Kinderhook since last fall, coming here as a bride. Her marriage to Mr. Boyce occurred at Staten Island. Before her marriage she was Miss Ada Boche, of Newburgh and Schodack. During her brief residence in Kinderhook she had endeavored herself to many friends by her genial personality. She was a woman possessed of many sterling qualities. Besides her husband to whom sympathy is extended, she is survived by numerous relatives, a step son, Samuel Boyce of Schodack. The remains were brought to the family residence Wednesday evening.

Town Board May Buy Tractor. The Kinderhook Town Board met Tuesday at the office of Town Clerk Rombeck; with the exception of Justice Kline, all members were present. The purchasing of a tractor was discussed and a committee composed of Town Superintendent of Highways Earl C. Van Alstyne, Alfred C. Codet and Philip Purcell, Jr., was appointed to investigate and have a demonstration of tractors. Bills amounting to $28.69 were ordered paid. The report of the Village Trustees shows a balance on hand, March 9th, $193.01. The balance last year was $46.04; Receipts were $108.03 and expenditures, $103.75.06. He amount to be raised the coming year will be submitted to the voters as $4,500. The time for holding calls for nominations has passed, so the committee, composed of Frank S. Becker, Edward L. Hoyer and George H. Brown will nominate by petition.

KNIGHTS PLACE A BAN UPON BIRTH CONTROL. At attack upon birth control as "organized immorality" is made by Columbia, official organ of the Knights of Columbus in its March issue, just out. "Let native Americans preach and practice birth control for three or four generations," the article says, "and the following three or four generations will find the so-called 'foreigners' in secure possession of the country. In bringing the dangerous birth control propaganda to the attention of the country Archbishop Hayes has uttered a patriotic warning, which, if heeded, may be America's epitaph."

POKEPSIE POST PLANS. The second meeting of the month of LaFayette Post of Poughkeepsie was held at the Post Headquarters on Thursday evening, when many members of the ex-service men's leading organization were on hand to take part in the many discussions of business which were brought up before the meeting by Commander Schwartz.

The master of the Post which is its own home was brought up and a report from the members of the Executive Committee was given on this important matter. It was the unanimous opinion of the members of the organization that the Post should have its own home, and Commander Schwartz announced that it was his personal opinion that before the end of the year, the members of LaFayette Post should be holding their own club house.

The special housing committee appointed by Commander Schwartz, consisting of Elgin S. Nickerson, John Cook and Dr. C. M. Clay Real have been going over the available buildings in this city and have examined many and there are several other buildings in this city and have mentioned to the members of the committee, that would make excellent headquarters for the organization.

Data is being prepared, covering all of the buildings so far visited. Commander Schwartz appointed a special finance committee, which will work with the special housing committee in securing the Post's own quarters. The members of both committees, together with the members of the executive committee will meet on 8 o'clock on Thursday evening at the headquarters for the purchase of the club house.
