TWO OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN BY P. T. CONGRESS

Rest of Staff of State Organization to Continue for Another Year.

SYRACUSE, Oct. 12—Two new officers were elected at the New York State Congress of Parents and Teachers yesterday afternoon at the Onondaga. The other officers will continue another year. New officers are Mrs. Robert Nowak of Rochester, fifth vice-president, and Mrs. Harry A. Winne of Schenectady, recording secretary.

Those remaining in office are Mrs. Francis H. Blake, president, Albany; Mrs. L. B. Heaton, treasurer, Auburn; Mrs. Helen M. Howard, treasurer, Buffalo; Mrs. Robert Newberry, Mrs. Ernest H. Blake, and Mrs. Susan H. Hall, Poughkeepsie, recording secretaries.

Two other officers also were elected yesterday. Mrs. L. B. Heaton, treasurer, was elected to the general board, which will meet in early January. Another board composed of ten members will be elected on the general board.

Parents and Teachers yesterday adopted a plan for the year. It was on the death of Mrs. Heiny, a member of the executive board, that the plan was adopted.

The annual president's dinner was held at Moffet Field this afternoon. The committee in charge of the dinner was composed of C. F. Dufrene, president; Miss E. M. Sweet, treasurer; Miss E. L. O'Keefe, secretary; and Miss E. L. O'Keefe, assistant secretary.

The dinner was served at 6 p.m. last night. The dinner was attended by hundreds of people, including many local politicians.

The dinner was given for delegates at the Syractuse Museum of Fine Arts, by the Syracuse School Board and the Syracuse Chamber of Commerce.

The goal of education today is to provide an adequate education for every child. The greatest error in education is to neglect the individual differences. The church must meet the fundamental test of whether it is fulfilling the duty of God and the sanctity of personality into life. The greatest error in education today is the failure to recognize the individual differences.
