

Endwell Clubs Complete Cemetery Restoration Project

ENDWELL — Restoration of Endwell's historical cemetery on River Rd., has been completed, according to William Paynter, chairman of the restoration committee.

Endwell Rotary Club started the project last year, and later was aided by Garden Club of Endwell.

ROTARY SPEAKER — Dr. John W. Elliot, educator, administrator and counselor will discuss "I, Me, and Mine" at Endicott Rotary Club meeting tomorrow at 12:15 in Hotel Frederick. Dr. Elliot has lectured throughout the U.S. His topics emanate from his background in fields of education and community service.

Miss Hussong To Direct Church Unit

VESTAL — Miss Norma Jean Hussong, a native of Endicott, will become the full-time director of Christian Education at Vestal Methodist Church, effective June 1. Miss Hussong will be inducted and presented to the congregation at the June 5 worship services, according to the Rev. Lyle A. Weed, pastor.

Miss Hussong had been certified by Wyoming conference during last week's session in Johnson City.

A graduate of Union - Endicott High School, Miss Hussong received her bachelor of arts degree with a major in religious education and sociology from Keuka College. She received the graduate degree of bachelor of divinity in 1953 from Andover-Newton Theological School, Newton Centre, Mass.

Miss Hussong has served as secretary in the offices of the Federal Council of Churches, New York City; a teacher and director of weekday religious education in Covington, Va., and a director of Christian education at Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, Troy.

Since 1957, she has served as director of Christian education at Sarah Jane Johnson Memorial Methodist Church, Johnson City.

Offices, which she now holds include adult counselor, Binghamton West Subdistrict Methodist Youth Fellowship, member to the United Christian Youth Council, Broome County Council of Churches, and membership in the leadership education committee of Binghamton district.

Miss Hussong resides at 107 McKinley Ave., Endicott. An informal reception is planned by the education commission of the church for June 19 from 8-9:30.

Bravi Leaves Hospital, LeClair 'Steadily Improves'

ENDICOTT — The driver of the auto involved in a one-car crash on Route 26 early Saturday morning has been released from Ideal Hospital, while his injured passenger remains in "very good" condition.

Gerald Bravi, 23, of 606 June St., was released yesterday from Ideal Hospital. The condition of Eugene LeClair, 24, 616 Parnes Ave., son of Endicott Fire Marshall, Richard LeClair is reported to be "steadily improving."

The pair suffering multiple injuries when the 1950 Pontiac, driven by Mr. Bravi left Route 26 and slammed into the Choconut Creek bridge at the Route 26-Glenwood Rd. intersection.

Hurt by Frying Pan

ENDICOTT — Arthur Carmon, 72, of 111 Dwight Ave., Endicott, yesterday received a scalp cut when a frying pan fell from its hanger and struck him. Mr. Carmon was treated at Ideal Hospital.

Nearly three out of every 10 of Mexico's 22 million persons have wholly Indian blood.

Vestal Youth, Hit by Car, Still Critical

ENDICOTT — Randall Riggs, the 11-year-old Vestal boy who was struck by an auto on Route 26 near David Ave., late Saturday afternoon, today remains in critical condition in Ideal Hospital.

According to hospital attendants, the boy's condition has "not improved much" since he was admitted, immediately after the mishap. Randall sustained a broken left leg and multiple bruises and abrasions in the accident. Driver of the car was identified by Vestal State Police as Paul V. Ryan, 33, of 133 Grand St., Vestal.

Woman Injured

ENDICOTT — A 22-year old Endwell woman yesterday received multiple injuries when she fell while getting out of an auto on Haves Ave.

Bernice Terry, 305 Louisiana Ave., was treated at Ideal Hospital for a cut right eyebrow, brush burns on the right side of her face, and a cut right little finger, which she caught in the door of the car.
