NEWS BOILED DOWN.

The District Attorney at St. Louis has filed a civil suit against Wm. McKee, to recover half a million dollars damages, arising out of the frauds committed by the St. Louis Whiskey Ring.

The prompt resistance of forty citizens to the mob at Scranton on Tuesday, saved the city from Pittsburg's fate. Not one-third of the miners favor a strike, but are overawed by a few irresponsible rioters.

Gov. Bedel, of New Jersey, authorized the Colonel of the Ninth regiment to retain on his pay roll all men who lost employment while on military duty, and to issue rations to them and place them on furlough so that they can find work.

All quiet at Scranton.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a call for the redemption of $10,000,000 in 5-20 bonds of '65.

The recent scenes in the Commons caused a serious split in the Home Rule party. It is stated that Mr. Parnell will be proposed as Honorary President of the Great Britain Home Rule Confederation in place of Dr. Butt. It is understood that Isaac Butt will resign the leadership of the Home Rulers on Monday.

The following is an account of the Russian retreat: The road from Poreden, Bulganeni was cumbered with broken and retreating troops wholly destitute of order, officers without soldiers, soldiers without officers, without cohesion and mostly without arms. At the narrow bridge near Bulgareni, there was a wild confusion and complete block. Tumbrils, ambulance wagons, provision wagons, officers' coaches led horses and carts filled with wounded. There had been wounded all along the road, but the bulk of the wounded began a little way beyond Bulgareni, and extended in an unbroken line for seven miles along the road to Sistora. A staff officer estimates the whole force lost between 6,000 and 7,000. The Czar is overwhelmed with grief at the Russian disasters.
