

Elmira Daily Bazaar

The OFFICIAL ORGAN of the Workingmen of Elmira and Chemung County,

PUBLISHED EVERY NOON BY

E. C. GEORGE & CO.,

136 EAST WATER ST.

TERMS:—Single Copy, One Cent. Single Copy one month delivered by carrier or by mail, 25 Cents.

Wednesday, Oct. 17, 1877.

—We furnish our readers with a supplement containing the President's message to-day.

—Dr. A. S. Sellen is daily doing good work for the Greenback cause.

—Southport, First District, hold caucuses at the School House at 7 1-2 P. M., Friday.

—Joe Benjamin keeps the finest fruits in the market.

—Register, if you would be entitled to cast a solid Greenback vote this election.

—Dr. Banning lectures this evening to married gentlemen and sober-minded young men.

—Remember the dance to-night of Neptune 2 at the Armory Hall

—Parties desiring the services of Mr. Beaumont should address this office.

—And on Saturday next the mining ticket will be put in the field.

—We hope by Monday next to give our readers a larger paper with full telegraph reports.

—R. Beaumont spoke to a large assemblage at Millport Monday night. He reports a rousing meeting.

—Those wishing advertising space in the BAZOOSH should hand in their copy by four o'clock the day preceeding.

—All the wards and towns hold their caucuses some time this week for the election of five delegates each to the county convention.

—Dr. Poisel, Chaplain elect of the House, is almost entirely blind. He was once a shoemaker in Martinsburg, W. Va., and studied theology while working on the bench. He has passed fifty years in the Methodist ministry, and converted Ralph Tucker from avowed scepticism by means of a powerful sermon.

An ex-editor is living in fine style near the foot of Lake Kenka. He has a beautiful residence and a choice vineyard. It is not often that one enters so soon into his reward.—Gazette.

And we have not heard as Tweed ever presented his paper with $10,000 either.

—Boat racing at Owego

—A new twenty-five barrel well has been struck in the Allegany district.

—The Coe sisters, on Monday evening gave an entertainment in Canisteo.

—We understand Mr. Ausburn Towner is about to assume an editorial position on the Gazette

—Go to Young & Co., No. 7 East Church street for coal of all kinds. They are reliable and pleasant to deal with.

—Dr. T. F. Chase and C. N. Shipman have taken their seats as members of the Board of Education.

—One of Elmira's oldest citizens, Mr. Syleham Gail died yesterday afternoon

 The Third Ward caucus will be held Thursday night at usual place.

 WANTED,—A first-class cook at the Western House, 113 West Third street.

A workingman's store conducted by workingmen. That of H. & F. Brickweddie's, stove dealers, 116 Lake st. They keep on hand the Crown Jewel parlor stove. It has no superior in the market. We suggest to our patrons to give the above firm a call.

 Go to Cowens for the cheapest goods in America.

 Cowen keeps Teas, Crockery, Stone ware, Butter Cocks, Flower pots and a full assortment of Paper, Iron and Tin wares for half the price charged by other dealers.

 Cowen keeps every thing and sells cheaper than any body.

 When you get almost Busted and want a big pile of goods then go to Cowens, 200 East Water St., Elmira.

WANTED.

Twenty-Five Soldiers' Homestead Claims to locate in Hodgman County, Kansas.

Apply at once to
From 7 to 8 P. M.

REED VERGUSON,
No. 108 Baldwin Street.

MRS. L. D. KENFIELD,
Fashionable Milinery,

225 FRANKLIN ST.

(Near Pennsylvania Avenue.)

 A specialty made of CUSTOM WORK. All work warranted to give satisfaction and at reasonable prices.

WEBSTER HOUSE,

—HANDY TO DEPOT.—

GEO. P. SWARTS, Manager. 113 West Third St.

ELMIRA, N. Y.

Terms $1.50 per day. This hotel is situated near the depot, and has been refitted and newly furnished. The present manager, recently of Canandaigua, proposes to make this a FIRST CLASS HOUSE. Table and rooms equal to any house in the city. Can accommodate ten more day boarders at reasonable rates.