THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1887.

WINNIPEG is said to be a model town in the way of Sunday observance. The streets are empty and the churches full.

At the recent stenographers' convention at Alexandria Bay, Isaac S. Dement of Chicago, performed the remarkable feat of taking down correctly in shorthand 1,292 words in five consecutive minutes.

Did any of our readers ever hear of the city of Aitchi, or of Chang-choof, or Hang-Tocheon, or Penalonga, or Sartama, or Sian, or Tschautchaufu, or Tein-Tchoo?

To the farmers assembled in Atlanta Mr. Henry W. Grady spoke in these glowing terms of the new south: "There are 230,000 men at work in the south to-day that were not here in 1850, and this does not include the thousands that are building new enterprises."

The Golden Gate is to have its statue of "Liberty" as well as New York harbor. Adolph Sutro, the California millionaire, who probably does not like the idea of leaving his name connected solely with a long hole in the ground, proposes to adorn the city of San Francisco with a colossal figure somewhat resembling Bartholdi's.

A High Tribute. A Texas gentleman traveling in a Pullman palace car in Pennsylvania happened to say that he was from the Lone Star state. "Do you live in the western portion of the state?" asked a man opposite.

No Intoxicants at the State Fair.

The New York State Agricultural society, at the request of the W. C. T. U., forbidden the sale or use of all intoxicants, including beer, cider, ale, &c., and all gambling and horse racing on the grounds at the fair to be held in Rochester, from September 8th to the 14th, and to this gratifying and commendable "new departure" they have added the feature of offering prizes to children for cut flowers and floral designs, and making Friday of the Fair week, a children's day, admitting them at a nominal price.

Boys' and Girls' Clothing.

Many mothers like to cut and make their children's clothing and the consequence often is a bad fit, which children dislike as much as grown people. The articles in the Housekeeper on "home dressmaking" gives as much attention to garments for the little folks as for grown people, and any mother with the Moody Perfect Tailor System (given as a premium with the Housekeeper one year at $1, and 20 cents for postage on premium) can cut any boys' or girls' garment without the slightest risk of a misfit.

LATEST NEW YORK MARKETS.

Reported specially for the MCGRAWVILLE SENTINEL by Richard Perrin, agent, produce commission merchant, 87 Warren street, New York. BUTTER. NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The main features of the market have been much the same as reported a week ago.

Table listing market prices for Creamery, State, pails, extras, 24 a 25; Creamery, western, extras, 24 a 25; Creamery, extra firsts, 21 a 22; Creamery, firsts and seconds, 16 a 17; State dairy, half-skin tubs, extra firsts, 31 a 32; State dairy, half-skin tubs, firsts, 18 a 19; State dairy, tubs, seconds, 16 a 17.

CHEESE.

The business has been of an unusually light character most shippers standing off for want of orders, and the variations in tone as already shown in recording the fluctuation of value indicating the nervous perplexed feeling extant, though with the average downward tendency many of the trade would have weakened still more rapidly had they been confronted by larger receipts.

EDITOR'S EASY CHAIR.

—Wanted.—A boy to learn the printers' trade. Board given and wages increased every four months according to ability. Apply at this office.

—Fred Hobart was in town over Sunday.

—School commenced Monday under favorable auspices.

—George Larrabee and wife were in Little York last Saturday.

—Miss Minnie Way, of Fabius, was visiting in town last week.

—Joseph Shearer's family of East River called on friends in town last Sunday.

—Mrs. Well Dibble is visiting in Marathon, Killawog and Center Lisle this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Goodell visited in Little York and Homer over Sunday.

—Mrs. Mary Braman and her sons, Bert and Harry, visited in McLean over Sunday.

—Thomas Moore, who is working in Homer, visited his parents in town over Sunday.

—F. G. McElheny was in Syracuse last Thursday attending the prohibition state convention.

—Rev. Mr. Hendrick, a brother of Dr. Hendrick, preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

—J. J. Darrow and daughters, of West Eaton, are visiting at E. C. Palmer's, of the corner store.

—Miss Clara Babcock, of Syracuse, is visiting at her uncle's, Lucius Babcock's, in this place, this week.

—Mrs. Jessie Mynard starts to-day for Lebanon, N. H., where she will visit her sister, Mrs. F. S. Slaton.

—Mrs. Taylor, of Pitcher, and Miss Grace Shaw, of Horseheads, have been visiting at the M. E. parsonage.

—F. W. Perrotti's family started for Scranton last Thursday where he resumes work in the corset factory.

—Miss Nellie Grant, of Watkins, N. Y., who has been visiting Mrs. Powell, returned home last Saturday.

—John J. Isaacs was in New Jersey last week. He took down a load of stock and brought back a quantity of fruit.

—A. B. Gardner started Monday morning for Wellsville where he enters his running horse into a race with fifteen starters.

—E. C. Palmer started for New York via Syracuse, yesterday. His brother, Will, from West Eaton, accompanies him.

—Miss Belle Dorman starts this morning for Gilford, Chenango county, where she will visit her parents and friends a few weeks.

—Miss Dell Braman has been confined to the house for some time, troubled with her side which she sprained by falling last winter.

—Win Barrows, of Marathon, visited at George Case's Saturday. His daughter, Maude, who has been visiting here some time, returned home with him.

—Will Pierce and Isabell Lewis were married last Saturday, in East Homer, we understand. Will is free with the cigars but "for the life of him" he can't tell who married him.

—We have had many inquiries the past week for a list of the fairs to be held in the state. We present a list on the first page of to-day's paper that will be perused with interest by many of our readers.

—Binghamton has, perhaps, the most conscientious butcher in the United States. When the dog ordinance was passed that dogs should be muzzled he put a base ball mask over every link of sausage in his market.

—I. L. Gates, who received severe injuries some time ago, for the first time since being hurt rode into town yesterday. Much time and care, however, will be required before he will be able to do any work.

—A mixed nine from this place went to Marathon Saturday and played ball, losing the game by a score of 13 to 11. Some of the players could not get away from their business duties here. The Cuyler Hills play here Saturday.

—Among the deaths that we record this week is Dr. A. A. Seymour, of West Town. He is a brother of Mrs. D. Green of this place, and also has many other friends here. Another is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Underwood, of Hinsdale. They were formerly of Freetown and are well known by many of our readers.

—The Young Ladies and Boys' mission bands will hold their annual jubilee at Association hall on Friday evening, September 2. The entertainment in connection with the jubilee will consist of music, recitations and an exercise in costume, entitled "A half hour among the heathens." Ice cream, cake and home-made candies will be on the table after the entertainment. Admission 10 cents. All are very cordially invited.

—Among those from this place who started this week for the hop country are Misses Lute Sherwood, Minnie Fuller, Flora Grant, Mary Owen, Eliza Maine, Mrs. F. E. Wright, Mrs. Dell Bingham, Mrs. Ida Price, Messrs. David Talbot, Myron Bingham and Clayton Gardner.

—The fact is becoming more and more apparent that to better prepare a young man for pursuits in life he should take a course of studies in a business college. We know of no better or more thorough institution in this line than Williams & Rogers' Rochester Business University, for which an advertisement appears in another column of to-day's SENTINEL.

They have issued a splendid catalogue this year, bound in cloth, and will send it to interested parties on application. Read the advertisement.

—Every business man should bear in mind that the SENTINEL office has a large stock of paper suitable for letter, note and bill heads, statements, etc. We keep constantly in stock envelopes, business cards and advertising novelties and can get any speciality on short notice.

Our prices we guarantee low for good work. We do not print so that only half the letters show on the paper, nor will we compete with such work, but if you want a job that will not deminish your pride in your business and for a reasonable, living price, please call on us. Samples shown and prices given on application.

—John Dunphy proprietor of the Marathon tannery, publishes a card in the Independent, cautioning saloon keepers against selling liquor to his employees. The paper in commenting upon it says: "Mr Dunphy informs us that while many of his men are sober, good citizens, it is an unfortunate fact that many of the curriers employed by him, while good workmen, are so given to their cups that no dependence can be placed upon them, and not only this but he has experienced great difficulty in getting sober and competent men to come here and work for him, owing to the reputation that the shop has received among carriers on this account. He accordingly asks the citizens to help him put a stop to this state of things. He further says that unless he can overcome this debauchery among his employees he will be compelled to cease the finishing of leather, and convert his tannery into a rough leather tannery."

—The DeRuyter New Era Gleaner of last week says: "A brutal and disgraceful affair happened a mile or so west of this village, in the town of Cuyler, on Friday afternoon last. Ralph Burt and wife, of Quaker Basin, while returning from Truxton, quarrelled over some money matters until he, unable to persuade her to give up the funds, knocked her from the wagon and jumping out kicked her severely in the side. She finally eluded him and ran up the hill toward Ethan Coon's, while he, seeing Cyrus Burdick and one or two others coming across the fields, attracted by her cries, drove hurriedly away. The unfortunate woman was taken to Thomas Davidson's and Dr. Truman was called. One eye was closed, and for days severe internal injuries were feared. It is not the first or second time her worthless husband has pounded her, yet no notice has been paid to it. We are assured that there are two sides to this matter; there is no side to it, however, that can justify such an assault."

—As a result of holding union meetings during the past two months the people of this place have been favored with some unusually interesting discourses and have often been treated to hearing others than the regular pastors of the churches here. Last Sunday evening the Methodist house was well filled with persons who were highly pleased to listen to C. E. Hoag, of Cazenovia seminary. Being a young man, well known here, and using a voice and manner entirely natural, he held the audience in silence and close attention. From the subject "Who is my neighbor" he brought out many thoughts and comparisons that bore true semblance to Bible teaching. He pointed out the instances in every day life when persons, societies and nations should show by actions that they know their neighbors in the spirit of the good Samaritan when he cared for the man who fell among thieves. He also deftly illustrated the other side—that of the priest and Levite who made a detour and passed around. His remarks were delivered clearly and without the use of notes, and the people were deeply interested. Union service will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening and announcements for future meetings will be given then and thereafter.

—Dr. W. S. Carruth, dentist, will be at M. W. Huntington's one week in every month to do dental work of all kinds.

—A few days ago a lady from Elmira arrived in the city to visit some friends. She was going down Washington street, when one of the electric cars passed by. She looked at the car in wonder and amazement. Presently she espied the traveler on the wire as it was moving along rapidly, and gesticulating wildly, she remarked: "Just look at that squirrel on that wire."—Binghamton Republican.

—After September 1 the clubbing price of the SENTINEL, the World and one of the premium books, "History of the United States," "History of England" or "Everybody's Guide," will be $2 a year.

—Biggest bargains in Gents' Low Shoes to close out stock at M. C. Bingham's. 7ft

—The SENTINEL office has an exceedingly fine line of samples of fancy wedding stationery from which any one may select something to suit the taste. Interested parties will do well to examine them.

ARRESTS AND EXAMINATIONS.

Last Friday Oscar Horton's examination was finished, on charge of stabbing Daniel Lee with a jack knife. He was held for assault in second degree and bail fixed by Justice Squires at $500 to await the action of grand jury. In default of bail he was committed to jail.

H. C. Gazley swore out a warrant for petit larceny against Nathan Bancraft and his son, S. D. Bancraft, for taking about thirty bushels of oats and barley from the mill of Seymour and converting the same to their own use. Gazley claims that defendants delivered the grain to said mill, and afterwards when it was in Gazley's possession they took other bags, emptied in the grain and drew it away. Examination adjourned to September 3, at 10 A. M.

A. J. Morrison was arrested at Elmira last Saturday on a warrant sworn out by John Curtin last May before Squires. Chief Lyttle, of Elmira, telegraphed to Officer Miller that the arrest was made and Miller brought him before the justice here. The case was adjourned to September 17.

On complaint of Collins & Daehler a man was arrested Monday on charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. Defendant came to time and settled.

The people vs. Jay Wood, alias Bowman, charged with enticing a boy from Ithaca by the name of R. D. Brinsmaid, up the railroad track August 11, and near the iron bridge between Cortland and Homer choking said boy and robbing him of eight dollars in money. The examination closed Tuesday, defendant was held in default of bail in the sum of $500 he was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury, by Justice Squires.

Monday a young man was arrested for obtaining his wedding suit of clothes by false and fraudulent representations less than a year ago. The case was adjourned and his wife signed the bond of $500 during the adjournment. Out of respect to the wife he do not wish to give the name.

There was a large attendance at the frangere's picnic at the Trout ponds yesterday. Lieutenant-Governor Jones delivered an address.
