

FALL BEARERS FOR TAMMIE TERRELL, carry her casket from the church to the waiting hearse, for the journey to her final resting place, recently in Mt. Lawn Cemetery, Philadelphia. The Motown star's home town. (Motown Photo)

... of the late Mother of Purdy St., was recently chosen Mother of the Church of God in Christ, Jurisdiction No. 2, succeeding the late Mother Maile Payton (Below) of Syracuse, N. Y. The ceremony took place at Deliverance Temple, William and Stans-

way Sta. rev. Lincoln Williams, pastor. Others in photo are: Asst. Bishop E. F. McWilliam, Rev. Henry Nailor, Rev. William Woods, Rev. M. A. Bailey, Rev. Walter Williams and Bishop C. H. McCoy.

Jinny Ray, a radio station WUFO disc jockey, will emcee this benefit show and dance sponsored by the House of Moses and Glamour Doll House Sun., May 10 from 5 to 12, at Carpenter's Hall, 200 Kensington Ave. Some of the proceeds will be donated to the Negro Scholarship Foundation. Dora Richardson will narrate the fashion show.

The late NYS Supervisor of Women's work for the Church of God in Christ, Mother M. Payton, of Syracuse, who passed away during the 1969 Thanksgiving season, is succeeded by Mother Elizabeth Walker of Buffalo and Mother Cassie Pringle, of Utica. — Criterion Photo, 1972

ALBANY, GA. — As his squadron stands at rapt attention, Navy Commander Reeves R. (Rip) Taylor inspects RVAIL-6 with the outgoing commanding officer. The recommissioned squadron will be deployed to the Western Pacific in the late Fall. (U. S. Navy Photo)

The AME Zion Church, aware of the importance of a correct count of Negroes in America, endorsed and cooperated with the 1970 Census Campaign. Dr. John H. Sattler, professor of Theology at Wesley Seminary, Washington, D. C., emphasized this point during a recent AME Zion meeting in Los Angeles. The final figure report is due about December 1st.

TOP EXHIBIT — This exhibit on Rochester, N. Y., Teens on Patrol (TOP) was a highlight of the last Police Week and Youth Week displays. It featured still pictures and a slide presentation of TOP activities. TOP is a group of more than 100 youngsters from inner-city areas who work with the police. Eastman Kodak designed the display and supplies a major portion of the support funds. Sharing the amusement of TOP member Ronald Kimbrey as he looks at a slide of himself, are Kenneth D. Howard, Kodak director of Urban Affairs; Ed Croft, executive director of Rochester Jobs, Inc.; and Lt. Thomas Hastings, director of Community Services Division of the Rochester Police Bureau.

Here is part of the congregation of the new Beacon Baptist Church, 13 Kingsley St., founded and pastored by the Rev. L. L. Paige. A

Junior Choir, a Nursing Guild and the Pastor's Aide, are new auxiliaries of the church. The church welcomes your visit. — Criterion Photo

A GIFT OF GOLD — Dr. Benjamin I. Perry, Jr. (right), President of Florida A&M University, and Mrs. Perry, are seen receiving the flag of the Everette Gold Letter Openers that were presented to guests attending the breakfast sponsored by Pepsi-Cola Company, for administrative officials of FAMU and Grambling College. The gifts were presented by George Bursell, Manager, Communications Programs for Pepsi, during the event held prior to the 47th Annual Orange Blossom Classic in Miami, Florida.

Mrs. Louise Westbrook, second from left, director of the Calvary CME Church Bible School, 1007 Elliott St., assisted by Sister

Della Wilson, left, teacher; Mrs. Debra Jackson and Mrs. Evelyn Talley, teachers and Rev. J. H. Lightsey, pastor, are shown with some of the children of the school who attended a special Bible training course at the church. — Criterion Photo