BLUE TUESDAY

— by — CLIFF FARHAM

St. John Masonic Lodge No. 16 (PHA), held its Annual Charity Ball on Saturday night Sept. 26th at the Carleton Blue Room tavern in Genesse St. Many persons attended the affair and had a swell time. Some of the proceeds went to the Emergency Hospital's Burn Treatment Center and the Crippled Children's Guild. Commissioner Howard accepted a $500.00 check for the Burn Center. St. John's Lodge likes to work to help worthy causes and has done so for many years.

A guess for 1970-71 was created but I failed to obtain her name and the name of her predecessor. After the ceremonies, the crowd went back to doing its thing of dancing and frolicking to some really groovy music. The floor was packed.

It appears to me that someone in the administration is working on removing abandoned and broken down autos from the streets. This is very good for it seems they got the word. This improvement can be appreciated by tax payers.

When you observe some things which I have noticed, it makes one wonder if this city is a jungle. There is no wonder by citizens are leaving the city for better surroundings. Why not? One half is clean—the other half spotted. Down town is beautiful for the dignitaries. What about adjacent communities. Suppose visitors would ask to see the Negro community — housing, streets, play grounds, schools, etc.? We would be ashamed to drive or walk down the streets; afraid of getting a flat tire.

I have never seen them in such bad condition. If money can be found for a new $20,000 job, why can't it be found to clean the streets, or split it up and hire more city employees? Let them do a day's work for a day's pay. This, all the tax payers want and it is not asking for too much.

Maybe we will have to call on the hippies to clean up. I don't like the idea—but something has to be done. The city is deteriorating too fast. How many have we lost in population at really—50-60 thousand persons, and they are still going? We must check this one cause for their city abandonment!

See you next week!

Lettuce...The Must in Sandwiches

Sandwiches are a haute in American cuisine. Countless varieties of fillings between two slices of bread or rolls depends upon the endless variety of sandwiches in individuality and ingenuity to be serious.

Just on the looming makes the rolls, no lettuce makes the sandwich. Crispy lettuce provides texture contrast, vitamins, and minerals and adds its good digestion. Lettuce also gives an eyes pleasing appeal, and the right lettuce flavor is compatible with just about any combination you can name.

A marvelous new version of the open sandwich is presented here. Crunchy lettuce and Russian dressing top a base of Roquefort cheese; roast beef rolls complete the delicious filling. Lettuce is the perfect base for any open sandwich, as pleasing during this season! Calorie counters will welcome the idea. Remember lettuce and fresh fruits are among the foods lowest in calories, just among the highest in flavor.

HEARTY SUPPER SANDWICH

¼ cup butter
8 pound Roquefort cheese, crumbled
8 slices rye bread
¼ pound thinly sliced roast beef
2 large shredded lettuce
¼ cup mayonnaise
¼ cup chili sauce
Russian dressing

Thoroughly blend together butter and cheese; spread evenly on rye bread slices. Top 4 slices rye bread with roast beef. Arrange lettuce on remaining bread slices. Combine mayonnaise and chili sauce. Top lettuce with dressing. Serve as open face sandwiches. Makes 4 servings.
