Roch. Urban League Competes Equitably With Monday Night Football

Nevertheless when Buddy Dow Frank Gifford and Howard Canale hit the table, most eyes, and especially, are glued to their TV sets, watching Monday Night Football. But this was not the case recently, when the Urban League presented to the Rochester Community, Veterans League, National Director of the Urban League, at the Holiday Inn, in downtown Rochester, a nation of businessmen of Mr. Jordan's. They are Rochester President, William Johnson and M. Everett, Vice Chairman.

The effort was well greeted. Many people from all walks of life were attracted by the dynamic presentation. It was a very colorful event. Over seven hundred persons attended and were seated for dinner.

Tom Colleton representative shared a table with Charles Wilson, of Kodak, a Father from several other communities. Some of the favors were in the amount were James McCallister of A. B. C. Williams Hall of Kodak St.

Joe Gilliam—OB
SPORTS SHORTS

For all those black football quarterback wannabes, you'll simply have to wait a while longer for Joe Gilliam to sprout. Gilliam's chance came unexpectedly, so both of Pittsburgh starting quarterbacks were not here.

Tony Danza was injured in the early action against Cleveland, two weeks ago, but for a reprieve until Cleveland's recovery after 1971. Danza's Triple candidate from the University of Oklahoma went Free.

Joe Gilliam would have won his first game for the Steelers. Well, Joe got his starting assignment Monday night and was promptly sidelined after three interceptions. To cover the game blank, Father Terry Shanahan, in three three more interceptions. Of course he stayed in the game and did even as well as Joe Gilliam did against Cleveland, the week before, about winning, but!
