Phyllis E. Zaluski

EDWARDS - Phyllis Elaine Zaluski, 75, of Edwards, died Monday, October 2, 2006 in Boca Raton, Florida while surrounded by her family.

Born on March 11, 1931 in Edwards, the daughter of the late Harold J., Sr. and Ruby F. (Trumble) Whitmarsh. She graduated from Edwards Central School in 1948.

She married Stanley Thomas Zaluski on September 9, 1952 in Norfolk, Virginia. The couple had been married for 54 years. Mrs. Zaluski was a homemaker. She enjoyed working in her yard and spending time with her children and grandchildren.

Phyllis leaves behind, to cherish her memory; her husband Stanley, Edwards; two daughters and their husbands; Cindy Z. and Dennis C. Cress, Syracuse and Carol Z. and Mitchell D. Silver, Boca Raton; a son, Thomas H. Zaluski, Fine; a brother and his wife, Arthur W. and B. Gail Whitmarsh, Edwards; a sister and her husband, Shirley A. and Frank Gagnon, Edwards; seven beautiful grandchildren, Mike and Stacy Cress, Rachel, Zachary, and Ben Silver, and Erica and Nicole Zaluski. She is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Zaluski is predeceased by a brother, Harold J. Whitmarsh, Jr. and a sister, Janice A. Whitmarsh.

There will be a graveside service in Fairview Cemetery, Edwards, on Saturday, October 7, 2006 at 10 a.m., with William Strate and Marilyn Constatine, lay speakers of the Edwards United Methodist Church, officiating.

Donations in Phyllis' name may be made to the American Cancer Society, P.O. Box 7, East Syracuse, NY 13057.

Funeral arrangements were entrusted to French Funeral Home, Edwards.

Rodger R. Cole

SPRAGUEVILLE - Rodger R. Cole, 64, Spragueville, died Thursday, September 28, 2006, at his home, where he was under the care of his family and Hospice and Palliative Care of St. Lawrence Valley.

Mr. Cole worked for Gouverneur Cooperative for four years and then was a mill operator for St. Joe Mineral Corp., Edwards, later Zinc Corporation of America, retiring in 2000 after 38 years of service.

Born Oct. 18, 1941, in Fullerville, son of Lewis D. and Helen E. Shampine Cole, he attended school at Fullerville, Balmat, Russell and Gouverneur.

He married Elaine M. Willmert on Oct. 27, 1962, at Gouverneur Methodist Church with the Rev. Stanley E. Brown officiating.

Mr. Cole enjoyed restoring antiques, attending his grandchildren's ball games and 4-H. He and his wife enjoyed hosting foreign exchange students including Ivana and Ivna from Brazil, and Ida from Egypt.

Surviving besides his wife are a daughter and her husband, Amy L. and Barry Turner, Spragueville; two brothers and their wives, Leo N. and Mavis, Fullerville, and James L. and Clare, Fowler; and two grandchildren, Lesley and Trent Turner.

Two brothers, David L. and Richard R. died before him.

The funeral was Sunday, October 1, 2006, at French Funeral Home, Gouverneur, with the Rev. Dr. Wilfred J. Baez, pastor of Gouverneur United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Vrooman Hill Cemetery Antwerp.

Donations may be made to Hospice and Palliative Care of St. Lawrence Valley.

Vera V. Ray

FOWLER - Vera Vivian Ray, 81, died on Friday, September 27, 2006 under the loving care of her family and Hospice of St. Lawrence Valley at the home of her sister, Keitha Woodall, in Fowler, where she had resided for the past three years. Vera had lived in the Harrisville, Pitcairn, and Sylvia Lake area most of her life.

Born on April 11, 1925 in Gouverneur, she was the daughter of the late Claude R. and Beula A. (Heath) Bacon. She had attended school in Pitcairn.

Throughout the years Vera has jointly leased and operated Beer Island on Lake Bonaparte and the Village Inn in Harrisville for several years. She also is a former operator of the Golden Glow Tavern in South Edwards. An avid antique collector, she had once operated an antiques shop in Watertown.

She used to enjoy baking and decorating her home. She was always remodeling the interior of her house and was very proud of how it looked. Mrs. Ray also enjoyed spending time on Lake Bonaparte and Sylvia Lake.

Her survivors include two sons and their companions; Myron Mike Houston and Nancy Simmons, Fremont, Nebraska, and David E. Parow and Uta Strobel-Burt, Harrisville; two sisters; Keitha Woodall, Fowler and Alice Cole, North Carolina, and a brother-in-law, Wallace Deitz, Sylvia Lake; she is also survived by five grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by a son James E. Connors; and a sister Edith Deitz.

The funeral service was Saturday, September 30, 2006, at French Funeral Home, Gouverneur, with lay speakers William Strate and Marilyn Constatine officiating. Burial was in East Riverside Cemetery, Gouverneur.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to Hospice and Palliative Care of St. Lawrence Valley, P.O. Box 469, Potsdam NY 13676.

Robert J. McIntosh

Robert Junior McIntosh, 71, Wegatchie, formerly of Gouverneur, died Friday, September 29, 2006, at E.J. Noble Hospital, Gouverneur.

He was employed by International Talc Co. for a time.

Born August 24, 1935, in the town of Gouverneur, son of Robert S. and Thelma A. Morse McIntosh, he graduated from Gouverneur High School in 1953. He served in the Air Force from 1954 until 1957, when he received an honorable discharge and served in the Air Force Reserves until 1962. He was a communication equipment repairman and received the National Defense Service Medal and the Good Conduct Medal.

He married Zephia Ann Klock on Oct. 11, 1958, at the Gouverneur Methodist parsonage with the Rev. William Woods officiating. Mr. McIntosh lived in Halesboro until moving to Wegatchie in 1972. He enjoyed bowling, fishing, hunting and spending time on his computer and was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars post at Gouverneur.

Surviving besides his wife are three daughters and two sons-in-law, Donna D. McIntosh and Allan Hewitt, Galway, Dorinda D. and Jeffrey Campbell, Gouverneur, and Danielle D. McIntosh, Freehold; two brothers and a sister-in-law, David L., Ashdown, Ark., and Larry E. and Lorraine, Cleveland, Miss., and three grandchildren, Joshua M., Mason M. and Cassandra L. Campbell.

The funeral was Tuesday, October 3, 2006, at French Funeral Home, Gouverneur, with the Rev. Dr. Wilfred J. Baez, pastor of Gouverneur United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in Halesboro Cemetery.

Donations may be made to the American Lung Association of New York State, Special Gifts Office, 300 Winners Circle, Suite 300, Albany, NY 12205 or the American Heart Association, Heart Gifts Processing Center, P.O. Box 3049, Syracuse, NY 13220.

Richard L. Macaulay

The funeral for Richard Lee Macaulay, 28, Quarry Road, Gouverneur, was Tuesday, October 3, 2006, at Green Funeral Home, Gouverneur, with Marilyn Constantine and William Strate officiating. Burial will be in Pleasantview Cemetery, Degraase.

Mr. Macaulay died Saturday, September 30, 2006, at his home.

He was employed as a mechanic at Edward-Knox Central School, Russell, and St. Lawrence Zinc Co., Balmat.

Born Dec. 8, 1977, in Gouverneur, he was the son of Ricky A. Law and Jacqueline Reed. His father died in 1982 at age 25 and he was raised by his mother and adoptive father, George Macaulay.

He graduated in 1996 from Gouverneur High School and studied auto and diesel mechanics at the Tennessee School of Technology, Nashville.

A marriage to Brandy Savage ended in divorce.

Mr. Macaulay enjoyed hunting and participating in demolition derbies.

Surviving are two sons, Zackary and Brock, both at home; his father and stepmother, George and Joni Macaulay, Gouverneur; a stepmother, Lindsay Newvine, Gouverneur; his paternal grandmothers, Dorothy Macaulay and Lillian Law, both of Gouverneur; his maternal grandmother, Louise Reed of Edwards; and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

His mother, Jacqueline D. Macaulay, died in 2000. Donations may be made to the Gouverneur Volunteer Rescue Squad, P.O. Box 164, Gouverneur, NY 13642.

Anna M. Hunt

Anna May "Robbie" Hunt, 72, Hermitage, Tennessee, a former resident of Gouverneur, died at the home of her daughter, Kathy Kitchen, of Hermitage, on September 14, 2006, following a courageous battle with COPD and lung cancer.

Born August 28, 1934, in Charleston, West Virginia, to the late Lean and Jane Robertson. She grew up in Brockway, Pennsylvania, where she developed a strong love for animals and reading.

She attended Marietta College in Ohio and graduated with a bachelor's degree in history. She continued her studies at Andover-Newton in Massachusetts and graduated with her master's degree in theology.

In 1965, Robbie and her husband, Rev. Herbert Hunt, moved to Gouverneur, where she began a 25-year tenure of teaching high school history at Gouverneur

High School.

Upon retiring, Robbie moved to Asheville, NC. She became an active member of the Cathedral of All Souls Episcopal Church and she served as a counselor for Alcoholics Anonymous groups. Due to health complications, she moved to Hermitage, TN and resided with her daughter Kathy for nearly a year.

Surviving are, besides her daughter Kathy and her husband, David Kitchen, are another daughter, Valerie, and her husband, Shaun Brown, Gouverneur; a son, Mark and Patty (Taylor) Hunt, Liberty, Ohio; her brother and his wife, James and Nan Robertson, Dover, Tennessee; and eight grandchildren, Joshua, Aaron, Rebecca and Sarah Hunt; David Jr. and Melody Kitchen; and Isaac and Quinton Lancto.

Funeral services were held at Hermitage Memorial Gardens, Old Hickory, Tennessee.
