Mrs. Roberts, newly elected department laumonier, spoke on the department marche at Syracuse in August where Salon 12 received awards for child welfare, publicity and reports. Mrs. Patterson was elected a state delegate to the national marche in Los Angeles Oct. 9 to 12.

The Salon voted to give an award to the Auxiliary unit in the county having the best child welfare program.

The Salon will meet Monday, Oct. 23, at the Mount Vernon club rooms. A gold bug party will follow.

Fathers Asked To Help Fix Playground

PLEASANTVILLE—An appeal for fathers to volunteer in getting primary playground equipment in order and installed was made by Miss Caroline Steans, kindergarten teacher, at a meeting of the Roselle Avenue School Parent-Teacher Association last week at the school.

Joseph Corn, Board of Education member, explained the option the Board has on the Romer property. He explained the board wishes to buy the property to provide additional play areas for grades seven through twelve, for parking area for the High School and for a site for future school construction. The matter will be put to taxpayers for vote on Oct. 24. The property is 17 acres. Price is $22,000.

At the same get-acquainted meeting, parents visited classrooms and met the teachers.

William McCain, program chairman, outlined programs already arranged.

The Association voted to set up a gift fund, to raise money this year for new stage curtains and draperies, and to hold a cake sale following the December meeting to obtain funds for new curtains for the principal's office and the teachers' room.

About 130 attended. The executive board served as hosts.

Upcounty Bridge Group Announces Winners of Meet

PLEASANTVILLE—Central Westchester Bridge League has announced the winners of the scrambled Mitchell game held last week in the social rooms of the Presbyterian Church. There were seven tables in play with an 84 average. Miss Mildred Betzler of Pleasantville directed.

Winners were Mrs. Aaron Greene and Mrs. A. A. Weil, both of New York with a score of 102½. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Goble of Chappaqua were second with 100 points.

Above average scores included Mrs. Harold Jacobson of Irvington and Mrs. George Roberts of Tarrytown; Mrs. H. S. Green of Tarrytown and C. J. Bonney of Pleasantville; Miss Helen King of Mount Kisco and Thomas Quinn of Tarrytown; and Mrs. Frank Kaus and Tyler Kaus of Rye.

SAYS REDS WON'T REGISTER

NEW YORK—Confidence that New Rochelle Communists would not register under a recently adopted ordinance in that city was expressed recently by Robert Thompson state chairman of the Communist Party, in a telegram to Mayor Stanley Church of New Rochelle.

The Village Launderaid, located in the new Great A. & P. Tea Co. building on South Moger Avenue, will be open for business on Monday morning, according to an announcement made this week by its owner, Rocco M. Astrologo of Stamford, formerly of Bedford Hills.

The Village Launderaid is a new, completely automatic self-service laundry center that washes, triple rinses and damp dries the laundry in 30 minutes.

Miss Reaser Plans Recital At Town Hall

Bernice Reaser, Brjarcliff Manor pianist, will present her fifth New York concert at the Town Hall on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 8 at 5:30. Her program consists of works by Haydn, Bach, Brahms, Ravel, Chopin, and closes with a seldom played sonata by Alexander Scriabine, the Fourth in F sharp.

Among the box holders for the event are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Z. Steinway of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Boris Koutzen of Pleasantville and W. Peter Turabian of White Plains. Other subscribers from this area include: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Furth, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Green, Mr. and Mrs. David Scoll, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Weinland, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Chaplin and Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ferguson. Pleasantville subscribers include: Mr. and Mrs. P. O. C. Austin-Small, Mr. and Mrs. Serge Ruoff, Mr. and Mrs. John T. McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. John Stoehrer, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Henschell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Stein who are entertaining a party of nine for the event.

Minstrel Aids Centennial

Sisqua Council, Knights of Columbus, will be one of the local organizations which will sponsor a fund raising function for the benefit of the Mount Kisco Centennial Celebration.

Two performances of the annual minstrel show will be staged, one on Oct. 11, which will benefit the council and a second performance on Oct. 17 for the Centennial. Both shows will be staged in St. Francis Auditorium, and according to Jack Bogarty of Chappaqua, in charge of the production, will start promptly at 8:30 o'clock each evening.

A cast of 50 mixed voices will comprise the chorus, with about 20 specialty artists added. Several favorites of last year will reappear in the persons of Francis "Red" Walsh and Tillo Gabrinny of Valhalla, Miss Marjorie Hecker, talent night winner in last year's contests, and Miss Elaine Ackel, soprano soloist, a member of the Mount Kisco High School faculty.

Gilbert Collins will serve as interlocutor, with Edward Keen, T. J. Sivigny of Katonah as end men.

The show will be done in the "Gay Nineties" manner, with songs and costumes in keeping with the era. Daniel Driscoll will be in charge of a large ticket committee. Harold Hockstein of Laurel Park is general chairman of the minstrel. Miss Frances Greene is accompanist.

Presbyterians to Discuss Basic Christian Education

A series of four meetings on the general theme of "Christian Education" will be held in the Pleasantville Presbyterian Church on the Wednesday evenings of October at 8:30. Intended primarily for Church School teachers and parents, all others interested in Christian education will be most welcome to attend, said the Rev. Edward I. Campbell, minister.

The first meeting on Wednesday evening, Oct. 4, promises to be of great interest. The leader will be Dr. D. Campbell Wyckoff, associate professor of religious education at New York University. Under the general topic of "How We Become Christian," Dr. Wyckoff will seek to answer such questions as "What is Christian Personality?" "How does it develop?" "What are the principles of successful Christian teaching?" "What can Parents do about their children's religion?" On succeeding Wednesday evenings such subjects as "Teaching our children about Jesus," "How to use the Bible as a source book," "Understanding our children," and "Understanding our young people" will be discussed by Mr. Campbell, Mr. W. Nason Cooper, Mrs. Ernest I. Stephens and Dr. Wyckoff.

Digest Takes Big Project

As a further indication of the kind of community spirit which prevails in Mount Kisco, Mrs. Ann Picard of the Chamber of Commerce reports that the decoration of the Village during Centennial Week has been undertaken by the Reader's Digest Association. The Digest has appointed N. R. Norton, director of personnel, as the chairman of the Reader's Digest centennial decorating committee. The Committee, at a meeting held this week at the Reader's Digest, prepared the basic plan for the decoration of the streets during the week of festivities. The entire project will be financed by the Reader's Digest Association as their centennial contribution.

Other activities in which the Reader's Digest will participate include the community choir concert to be held on the centennial platform on South Moger Avenue. The famous Reader's Digest Choristers will join their 35 voices with the choirs of all churches in Mount Kisco in this exciting concert.

The Digest will also hold an open house from 2 to 4 P. M. on Tuesday of Centennial Week, Oct. 17. Interested persons will be given a guided tour throughout the beautifully decorated Digest building and will then be served refreshments in the famous Digest cafeteria.

C. S. RADIO PROGRAM

Born again is the subject of a Christian Science transcribed radio program from the Mother Church over WFAS, Sunday at 2:45 P. M.

Mrs. Schenck Announces New Program

The appointment of Raymond Le Mieux as coordinator and a faculty member of the newly established division of music education in the graduate department of the Manhattan School of Music was announced today by Dr. Janet D. Schenck of Whip-poorwill Road, director of the school.

The new program, which leads to a master of music degree with a major in music education, will be inaugurated when the Fall term, the school's 33d opens on September 28. It will train students for public school music teaching at grade school and high school levels.

Mr. Le Mieux holds bachelor degrees from Northern State Teachers College in Marquette, Mich., and from the Eastman School of Music in Rochester; and a master's degree from Columbia University.

Mr. Le Mieux has served as supervisor of music for the city of Negaunee, Mich., on the faculty of Montclair State Teachers College, N. J., as head of orchestral music at De Witt Clinton High School here and as supervisor in the office of the Director of Music for the New York City Board of Education.

Also appointed to the teaching staff for the new division are Mrs. Miriam Transue, who will teach voice; Monroe Grossman, who will direct string instrument ensemble classes, and Joseph E. Dellen, who will teach courses in education.
