Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, L. I. lost without trace in the Atlantic when his ship was destroyed by an enemy bomb in World War II.

Members of the Mutual and Independent Fire Companies of the Village of Mount Kisco engaged in a friendly game of bowling in the Legion alleys Sunday afternoon, with the "Silksox" getting the short end of the score, which means they had to pick up the tab for refreshments. Scores were not available at press time.

Member of Our Lady of Suffrage Society met yesterday afternoon in the church auditorium of St. Francis of Assisi Church at 1:30 p.m.

BLIND AT THREE
Louis Braille, who invented the Braille system which enables the blind to read books by means of raised indentations on the paper, was born with good eyesight. He became blind at the age of three.

Two Elected To Council Of Church

Mrs. William O. Weber was elected church historian, and Charles Harris elected to the board of auditors at a meeting of the Church Council of the First Congregational Church, Chappaqua, Monday night. Mrs. Weber, a member of the church for more than 20 years, has served previously as a deaconess, a member of the pulpit committee, president of the Women's Society, church clerk, and treasurer of the Church School. Mr. Harris has been a resident of Chappaqua for two years, and is connected with the First National Bank of New York.

The Council authorized the appointment of a committee of five to review and revise the constitution and bylaws of the church, and report on progress to the May meeting.

Prior to the meeting, an informal reception was held for Gordon W. Stearns Jr., who will take up his duties as second Associate Minister beginning Aug. 1. In charge of arrangements were the following deaconesses: Mrs. Donald Benedict, Mrs. Richard Fagley, Mrs. Donald Kellogg, Mrs. George McCoy, Mrs. Francis N. Millet and Mrs. Edgar Smith. Pouring at the reception were Miss Julia Heines, director of religious education, and Mrs. Alfred D. Moore, wife of the Associate Minister.

Armonk Barn Blaze Doused

ARMONK—The sharp eye of a town Highway Department employee and the quick response of the Armonk Fire Department yesterday afternoon was credited with preventing major fire damage on Cox Ave.

The employee, Reggie Abrams, spotted smoke curling out of a barn behind the home of Mrs. Adele Gibson. The fire company responded to his call and stamped out the fire within five minutes, according to Fire Chief Joseph Arnold.

He said if the smoke hadn't been seen by Mr. Abrams, the fire might have traveled through the barn and two other old buildings behind the house.

Passenger Injured As Car Skids on Ice

BEDFORD HILLS—Rose Marie Mauro, seventeen, of 491 Lexington Ave., Mount Kisco, was injured last night when the car in which she was riding skidded on icy pavement and left the road, police reported.

The car was driven by Ronald W. Smith, seventeen, of 57 Park Ave., police said. It slid off Rt. 172, went into a ditch and then struck a utility pole.

Miss Mauro was treated at Northern Westchester Hospital for a broken right knee cap and cuts on the right leg.

FULL HOUSE greeted this group of Cantors from the Cantor's Institute of the Jewish Theological Seminary of New York City, who entertained Sunday evening in the Jewish Community Center. The program which consisted of liturgical music, is the first annual presentation of this type of music and was arranged under the direction of Cantor Arthur Yolkoff, who is choir master at the Jewish Community Center. Two hundred persons were present. Pictured is part of the group. Left to right are Cantors Elliott Levine, Jerome Koppar, Edward Beriman, Samuel Lavitsky and Maurice Beyo — Photo by E. A. Kirchoff.
