

Bedford Village News

Mrs. Fred Pistone of Pinebrook Rd., Bedford, was hostess at her home yesterday for a meeting and exhibit of the Middle Patent Garden Club. Mrs. Ronald R. Yocum of Chappaqua was judge for an intra-mural flower show in which each member of the club entered an arrangement. The entries were line compositions meeting specified requirements, with materials to cost less than one dollar. Refreshments were served before the meeting, with Mrs. Lawrence Marsh of Greenwich, serving as co-hostess.

Paul's School and Princeton University.
Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Blanchard of Route 22, Bedford Village, returned Saturday, March 1, from a Caribbean cruise. Ports of call included San Juan, Mayaguez and Ponce in Puerto Rico; St. Thomas, and Sugar Port in Puerto Rico.

The Rev. Earl Dakin, pastor of the Patterson Baptist Church, Towners, will be the guest speaker Thursday, March 20, in a series of Lenten services at the First Baptist Church, Cross River, at 8:15 p.m.

Gerry Have, president, announces final plans have been made for the annual St. Patrick's Supper Dance to be held Saturday evening at St. Patrick's Church, Bedford, by the Men's Group. Richard P. Lillis is ticket chairman, with Mrs. John Bellotti in charge of decorations. The Rev. Edward P. McGough, moderator, is co-chairman for the popular yearly event.

The Conservation Committee of the Garden Clubs of America, of which Mrs. Thomas M. Waller of Bedford is chairman, met yesterday at the Palm Room of the Waldorf Astoria in New York. Included in a panel of eight speakers were Mrs. Arthur Anderson and Robert Hammerslag from this area.

Frank B. McKown, president conducted a meeting of the Board of Governors of the Bedford Golf and Tennis Club Sunday afternoon, March 2, in the club house. Plans for the season's opening in May were discussed.

Adults and young people wishing to join the Bedford Presbyterian Church at the Monday Thursday Communion will meet with the session of the Church on Palm Sunday afternoon. Anyone who would like to join the church should speak to the pastor, the Rev. John A. Carmell at the earliest convenience.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myhrum of Middle Patent Road, Bedford, are the parents of a son, Barnaby, born on Feb. 21 at Northern Westchester Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Myhrum have another son, Christopher, and two daughters, Phoebe and Polly. They formerly lived in Mount Kisco.

Peter Perez returned to work last week in Bedford Barber Shop after convalescing from a recent illness. ill with pneumonia, he was a patient in Northern Westchester Hospital from Feb. 3 to Feb. 11. During his illness the business was conducted by his brother, Joseph, who plans next year to undertake a study at Fordham University, to become a pharmacist.

George Dudley, architect, of Guard Hill Road, Bedford, returned by plane Friday of last week from a six weeks' business trip to Tehran. His trip included stops also in Paris and Rome.

OF LOCAL INTEREST
Members and friends of Temple Beth El of Northern Westchester will be "out of this world" when they attend the annual Dinner-Dance to be held at Pines Ridge Country Club on Saturday, May 17. The theme of the dance will be "Cloud 9" and "heavenly" decorations as well as entertainment have been arranged. An annual yearly journal will be published in conjunction with the affair. The general chairman of the dance committee is Mrs. Herbert Weisburgh of Bedford Village. Mrs. Ronnie Gloger of Briarcliff will be in charge of the journal advertising, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gottlieb of Amawalk have been named editors of the journal. For this, the largest social event of the temple year, the committee has engaged Larry Case and his Rhythm Boys to provide music for dancing and entertainment.

Students of the sixth grades of Bedford School made a trip to New York by bus on Friday of last week to attend a matinee performance of the opera "Carmen" at the Metropolitan Opera House. Mrs. Anita Fairbanks and John Leifheit, teachers for the two classes, and Miss Caroline Woods, music teacher, accompanied the students on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. McNeill and their son, Charles, returned to their home on Saratoga Road, Bedford, this week, by plane from Florida where they had been vacationing at West Palm Beach.

Stanley Oliver Grier of Todd Road, Katonah, well known naturalist, was the speaker at a meeting of the Bedford Parent-Teacher Association held Tuesday evening at the Bedford school. Mr. Grier was invited to give the repeat engagement by popular request. He is considered an authority on conservation and is an author and teacher on the subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Glasser of Main St., Bedford, are expected back May 1 from Miami Beach, where they have been spending the winter.

Mr. Walter E. Hoblin, Stamford Road, Bedford, president of the Middle Patent Garden Club, and Mrs. Erwin Uellendahl of Bedford, presented the club at the annual meeting of the New York State Federation of Garden Clubs, held at the Hotel Ambassador, New York City, Tuesday. They later attended the International Flower Show at the Coliseum, New York City.

1ST DAUGHTER
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kolb of Berkeley Heights, N. J. are parents of a daughter, Lauren Elizabeth, born in the East Orange General Hospital on Feb. 20.

BVFD Names Present Chief For Election
Fire Chief Charles Crawford has been re-nominated for another term of office in the Bedford Fire Department, with election scheduled to take place at the annual meeting Thursday, April 3.
Other officers proposed by the nominating committee headed by Donald Naylor were: Eugene Powell, first assistant chief; Joseph Progreske, second assistant chief; Arvid Hall, president; Jerry Have, vice president; Leonard De Benedetto, treasurer; Charles Bartam to replace Harold Hunter as financial secretary; Jacob Glasser, recording secretary; Ralph Sherry and J. D. Gray to succeed themselves as directors and Joseph Fancher Sr. as a new director.

All men of the Bedford Presbyterian parish are invited to a breakfast at 9 a.m. Saturday.

The Fire Department officers were nominated at a meeting held Monday evening, March 3, at the fire house. Bedford firemen have accepted invitations to participate in parades next summer in the following communities: Katonah Golden Bridge, Armonk, Yorktown, Somers, Vista, Salem, Banksville and Mount Kisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barnett of Pound Ridge Road, Bedford, announce the birth of a son, Eugene Paul, at Northern Westchester Hospital on Feb. 18. The new infant has three brothers, Fred Jr., Charles and Douglas, and a sister, Vicki.

NEW ROCHELLE GAINS
NEW ROCHELLE—As result of visit to Albany by Corporation Counsel Murray C. Fuert and City Plan Engineer Charles A. Hughes, "serious reconsideration" is reported being given by State Highway Department officials to include Mechanic Street in New Rochelle's 18 million dollar arterial highway program. Inclusion of the street is considered vital to New Rochelle for proper traffic regulation.

The marriage of Miss Suzanne De Grove Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ritzema Perry of Bedford Center Road, Bedford, to Anthony Morris O'Connor of Baldwin Road, Mount Kisco, will take place on Apr. 12. The wedding will be held in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, Bedford, with the pastor, the Rev. John Harper officiating. Miss Perry last week resigned her position with Charles Scribner Sons, publishers, with whom she has been since her graduation from Vassar last year. Mr. O'Connor is a graduate of St.

Action on Move for Bingo Put Over by Bedford Board

The Bedford Town Board delayed action Tuesday on a request by the local American Legion post for a referendum on bingo. Discussion indicated, however, that the issue will be put to a vote not later than next November.

NEW LIONS CLUB formed in Lewistown, held installation ceremonies at the Seaman Restaurant, Cross River on March 5 which seated these men in the principal offices. Left to right are Secretary T. R. Bock, Third Vice-president William Rowedder, President Robert E. Green, First Vice-president J. L. Wilson and Second Vice-president John J. Benish Sr.—Photo by E. A. Kirchhoff

The request was filed by Robert Crandall Post 129 under a state constitutional amendment passed last fall giving municipalities power to hold referendums on whether to legalize bingo. Town Attorney Daniel Ticknor told the board that legislation is contemplated which would end the possibility of the game being legal in one part of a town and banned in another. The possibility is faced in Bedford, for the Village of Mount Kisco, which lies partly in the town, also is empowered to call a vote on the question.

Badges Given For Scout Activities

The girls received their badges at a Court of Awards on March 3. Those awarded were Charlene Balcolm, good grooming, homemaker, lifesaver, star; Katie Booth, good grooming, leather craft, needlecraft, swimming and lifesaver; Susan Crawford, good grooming and bird; Candy Helber, good grooming, adventure, dancer, dog and cat, and writer; Diana Ladev, good grooming; Joanne Mercer, good grooming, swimmer, rock and mineral; Tina Ramsland, good grooming; Susan Schaefer, swimmer and lifesaver; and Janet Wise, outdoor cook.

The board accepted Mr. Ticknor's recommendation for delay until the situation is clarified, but noted that a referendum will be held in November at the latest.

Thirty-two Bedford Village brownies, led by Mrs. Lawrence B. Proctor Jr., were guests of the scouts at the meeting. Sharrn Wells, Joanne Mercer, Katie Booth and Susan Crawford served in the color guard, and Susan Schoen, Diana Ladev, Sharon Wells, Sharon Keefe, Eileen Beightol, Tina Ramsland and Katie Booth prepared the refreshments.

Budget Note Voted
The board approved sale of a budget note for $20,000 to cover a deficit in funds budgeted for snow removal. Highway Superintendent Arthur Ballie reported that $26,000 has been spent so far this year. The snow removal budget contained only $8,000. The $2,000 balance remaining will be held for use if more snow falls.

Members of the Fire Department held a regular meeting on Monday night at the fire house. Election of officers will take place at an annual meeting in April.

Theater Benefit to Help Health, Welfare Services

Mr. John A. Hill, of Armonk, general chairman of the Theatre Benefit of the Westchester County Council of Social Agencies, has announced the list of patrons and patronesses.

Clinton Brown, chairman of the nominating committee, reported the following proposed for office: Robert Johnson for vice president; Fred Hoffman Jr., first assistant chief, to succeed David Allen; Larry Bouton, second assistant chief; Edward Lasus for reelection as treasurer; Fred Rodney for reelection as secretary; and Louis Pasclutti for financial secretary.

The play selected is "Love Me Little," a comedy written by John G. Fuller based on the 1957 novel of the same title by Amanda Vaill. The theatre benefit will be at a preview performance Monday evening, April 7, at the Helen Hayes theatre. Featured in the cast are Joan Bennett, Meg Mundy and Donald Cook. Alfred Drake is director.

Pound Ridge F. D. To Elect Officers

Members of the Fire Department held a regular meeting on Monday night at the fire house. Election of officers will take place at an annual meeting in April.

Bedford Youth Fellowship Entertains Mt. Kisco Group

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pierce and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Westcott furnished home made cookies and fruit punch for the Junior High Youth Fellowship of the Bedford Presbyterian Church and their guests on Sunday, March 9. At 4:30 p.m. the Bedford hosts welcomed the Mount Kisco guests for refreshments.

Sisterhood Sets Luncheon

Members of the Sisterhood of the Jewish Community Center, Smith Ave., Mount Kisco, will attend a "Luncheon Is Served," under the direction of Mrs. Helen Engler of New York City. The party will get underway Tuesday, at the center March 25 beginning at 12:30 p.m. in the Center.

Well-Known Critic To Judge One-Act Plays at Fox Lane

John McClaine well known drama critic on a metropolitan newspaper and Paul Nathan, a play "doctor," will be the judges for "An Evening of Plays" competitive program to be presented March 22 in the Fox Lane School auditorium by the three upper classes of the school.

Stop Cold Symptoms FAST

Take 3 doses BQ plus 6 tablets. IN TWO HOURS, your misery MUST be relieved or your 50c back at any drug store. BQ plus 6 works in your system quickly to ease distressing cold symptoms. Get non-irritative BQ plus 6 NOW at Bodelsen Drug.

The first of the three one-act plays will get underway at 8:30 p.m. two of which are dramas and one a melodrama, all under the direction of Allen Adair. The winning class will be given one-third of the evenings "take" for the class treasury.

Newlyweds Reside in Pound Ridge

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wood are residing on Hack Green Road, Pound Ridge, after a short wedding trip. The couple was married on Friday, Feb. 21, at 6 p.m. at the Pound Ridge Community Church by the Rev. William Studwell, pastor.

New Castle Tribune, Chappaqua, N. Y., March 13, 1958

Pound Ridge Activities

Mrs. W. W. Faulks Jr. of Hack Green Road, Pound Ridge, was hostess at her home yesterday afternoon for a meeting of Brownie Troop 253. The young Scouts learned the technique of tapping trees, and also studied home nursing practices. Mrs. Herbert C. Reinhardtsen is leader for troop.

Mrs. Wood is the former Mrs. Rose Marie Shatrouski, foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wray of 415 Lexington Avenue, Mount Kisco. Mr. Wood is the son of Mrs. Jennie Wood of Hack Green Road and the late Ernest Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cummings of Cradle Rock Road, Pound Ridge, announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy, at Northern Westchester Hospital on Saturday, March 1. Little Nancy has a three-year-old brother, Robert.

The bride was attired in a ballerina length gown of white lace and wore a matching lace crown with nose veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. William D. Shine, wife of the Supervisor of Pound Ridge, returned this week from a Southern vacation. Mrs. Shine spent three weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Hope Hendry who has a house at Lake Okeechobee, Fla. Mrs. Shine made the return trip by train.

Mrs. Martha Barrett of Pound Ridge, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length lace gown of pale blue and a matching lace crown. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray C. Capazzo of Westchester Avenue, Pound Ridge, left by plane on Tuesday of last week, to spend a month at the Jackson Hotel in Miami, Fla.

Linda Barrett of Pound Ridge, the bridegroom's niece, was junior bridesmaid. Her long pale blue gown was of nylon. She wore a matching crown and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Harold Scofield of Lower Shad Road, Pound Ridge, is back from a vacation in Florida. Mrs. Scofield visited relatives in St. Petersburg.

Mildred Shatrouski, the bride's daughter; Katherine Wood, the bridegroom's daughter, and Sheila Wood, the bridegroom's niece, were flower girls. Mildred and Katherine wore long pale blue nylon gowns and Sheila wore a long pale pink nylon gown. Sharon and Ruth Patten of New Milford, Conn., the bridegroom's nieces, were also flower girls. They wore ballerina length gowns of pale blue nylon. The flower girls all wore flowers in their hair and carried baskets with mixed flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Malarchick of Trinity Pass Road, Pound Ridge, announce the birth of a son, their first child, at the Northern Westchester Hospital on Monday of last week. The infant is named Stephen John Malarchick 4th. Mrs. Malarchick is the former Miss Sandra Mary Johnston, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Maddock of Trinity Pass.

Donald Wood, the bridegroom's brother, acted as best man. John E. Wood Jr., the bridegroom's son, and David Barrett, the bridegroom's nephew, were also in the bridal party.

Robert E. Moat, chairman, will conduct a meeting of the Pound Ridge Planning Board next Thursday evening in the Town Hall. There will be a public hearing on the re-subdivision on Tatumnuck Road. The application, made by the MPD Realty Com-

Following the ceremony, a reception for about 80 guests took place at the Elbow Room, Mount Kisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Malarchick of Trinity Pass Road, Pound Ridge, announced the birth of a son, their first child, at the Northern Westchester Hospital on Monday of last week. The infant is named Stephen John Malarchick 4th. Mrs. Malarchick is the former Miss Sandra Mary Johnston, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Maddock of Trinity Pass.

P. R. Library Series Ends On Friday

"Color in Your Life" is the subject for the third and final program in the discussion series at the Hiram Halle Memorial Library, Pound Ridge, tomorrow (Friday) at 8:30 p.m.

NO MORE SEARCHING

for peace, it's all around you. Exceptionally well built home on over 2 acres. On a hill, overlooking lake. 7 rooms. Hot water heat. 2 car garage. Reduced to $29,500.

MOVE TO FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Winkelman of Katonah recently left for Florida where they will take up permanent residence. Mrs. Winkelman is the former Miss Helen Perri, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Perri of Hook Road, Katonah. Mr. Winkelman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sal Winkelman are of Cross River, also moved to Florida having sold the gas station they operated in Cross River for the past few years.

FLY TO EUROPE

SAVE $113.40

WITH OUR NEW

Thrifty Air

FLIGHTS

Phone, Visit or Write

MCGREGOR

World Travel Service

"Westchester's Largest Travel Agency"

171 EAST POST ROAD
WHITE PLAINS N. Y. 10802

Above Wallace's

THOS. C. GRIMES CO.

Bedford Village
4-3642, 3, 4

Our 19th yr. in this same bldg.

G. MARSHALL

Van & Storage Co., Inc.

• Sanitized Vans
Agent .. United Van Lines, Inc.

When it's your move, your best move is to call us! Our expert handling of your furniture includes proper covering and loading to insure safe, dependable transportation anywhere, any time. You can count on us to do the job RIGHT!

ZEE

VACUUM STORES, INC.

Sales - Service - Parts
18 South Moger Avenue
Mount Kisco 6-7100
Open Fri. Evenings 'Til 8 P.M.

TROY'S for TREES

AVOID THE USUAL SPRING RUSH!

NOW

We have the time to prepare LANDSCAPE PLANS and estimates for your SPRING PLANTING...

• EVERGREENS • FLOWERING SHRUBS
• SHADE TREES • RHODODENDRON

TROY'S GARDEN NURSERIES

EST. 1898
On the main highway from Greenwich to Bedford Village
PHONE Bedford Village 4-3400

Stop Cold Symptoms

FAST

Take 3 doses BQ plus 6 tablets. IN TWO HOURS, your misery MUST be relieved or your 50c back at any drug store. BQ plus 6 works in your system quickly to ease distressing cold symptoms. Get non-irritative BQ plus 6 NOW at Bodelsen Drug.

The MOUNT KISCO NATIONAL BANK AND TRUST COMPANY

MOUNT KISCO, N.Y.
MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION
MEMBER FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

MORTGAGE LOANS ARE AVAILABLE

HERE FOR EVERY NEED OF HOME FINANCING

WE ARE AT ALL TIMES GLAD TO DISCUSS PLANS AND FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS IN WHICH OUR CREDIT FACILITIES WOULD BE USEFUL.