JOSEPH FITTS

Joseph Fitts, son of Mrs. Mary V. Fitts of 19 Harmon St., White Plains, died suddenly in Teheran, Iran, on Oct. 26, it has been learned. Mr. Fitts, thirty-six, was foreign representative in Teheran for Republic Aviation Co.
 Mr. Fitts was born in Mount Kisco. His father was the late Douglas J. Fitts. The family lived in Chappaqua for 34 years before moving to White Plains about two years ago. He was graduated from St. Mary's High School in Chappaqua and the Casey Jones Academy of Aeronautics in New York.
 He had served as a Republic foreign representative for six years and had been stationed in Teheran for 18 months. He was not married.
 Besides his mother, Mr. Fitts leaves two brothers, John J. Fitts of the Bronx, Robert A. Fitts of Huntington, L.I., and two sisters, Mrs. Margaret M. Gillies of Rye and Mrs. Elizabeth V. O'Neill of Greenburgh.

THEODORE PACKER

Theodore Packer of Guard Hill Rd., Bedford, died Oct. 30 at Northern Westchester Hospital. Mr. Packer, who was thirty-eight, worked at "Blanchland," an estate in Bedford.
 Mr. Packer was born in Logan, Utah. He was a member of the Professional Horsemen's Assn. and a former member of the Jockeys' Guild of America.
 Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Pauline Packer; a son, Michael; two daughters, Sherrill and Paula Packer; two brothers, DeForest and Merrill Packer, and a sister, Mrs. Frank Solimena, all of Hallandale, Fla., and two other sisters, Mrs. Thomas Kenwood of Ocala, Fla., and Mrs. Alva Ritchie of Honolulu, Hawaii.

School Boys Admit Looting Gas Stations

Two teenage high school students accused of burglarizing Bedford Hills service stations were ordered held for grand jury action when they waived examination at an arraignment in Bedford Town Police Court on Nov. 3.
 Seventeen-year-old Robert Barker of Cantioe Rd., Bedford, and Jon S. Van Akin, eighteen, of Pound Ridge were each released in $500 bail by Judge J. Franklin Ryan after their arrest on Oct. 31; two counts of burglary were filed against each youth after they admitted looting Cherry St. Service Station on that road and another service station on Bedford Rd. of more than $100. In each instance, police said, the youths gained entry by smashing a side window. They took $67 from the Cherry St. station and about the same sum from the other service station. Practically all of the money was recovered, according to police.
 Investigators said tell-tale tire marks at the scene of one entry led to the youths' arrest. They had used a jeep driven by Van Akin to travel from one service station to the other. Police tracked them down by the process of elimination after checking vehicles known to have been at or near the service stations on the night the entries took place.

"It saved everything but the lamb chops"

"My daughter and I were chatting on the phone one afternoon when suddenly she screamed, 'Mother, the stove's on fire — get help!' Then she hung up. I dialed the operator, and she had the fire department on the line in a few seconds. As soon as I'd told them where the fire was I called my daughter's neighbor. Before I finished telling her what had happened, she said the fire engines had arrived. They got there so quickly that the only damage was to the lamb chops my daughter was broiling."
