

Moses Taylor Unit Elects Committees, Hears Reports

MOUNT KISCO—Members of the Executive and County Committees of the Moses Taylor Jr. Unit No. 136, American Legion Auxiliary, were elected on Monday night at the regular monthly meeting of the unit held at the Legion Building.

At the close of the election, the new committee members were given the oath of office by Mrs. Walter Reynolds, Executive Committee member. Mrs. Ernest Hahn, Mrs. Florence Nash, Mrs. Hahn, Mrs. Florence Nash, Mrs. Douglas Hagan, Mrs. Donald Fitzgerald, Mrs. Kelvin MacKenzie, Miss Helen Kelly, Mrs. Althea Davidson, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Harry Odell, Mrs. John Pasquale and Mrs. Newton Comstock, County Committee members are Mrs. Hahn, Mrs. Odell, Mrs. Joe E. Crandall, Mrs. Charles Partelow and Mrs. Thomas Lener.

DELIGHTED at having persuaded Lloyd Walsh of Mount Kisco to accept the party's nomination for Superintendent of Highways in Bedford, the other Democratic candidates were happy to surprise him with an enormous birthday cake on Tuesday, October 13. In the best political tradition, Walsh smilingly refused to comment, when asked how old he was. "Old enough to know my work, and not too old to do a good job for the Town of Bedford, if I am elected." The photographer was taken by Mrs. Doris Kirchoff, and one of Walsh's running mates. She is the candidate for Town Clerk.

Board Names New Teachers At 2 Schools

MOUNT KISCO—Mrs. John Finch has been appointed a half-time teacher at the Mount Kisco Elementary School by the Bedford Central District Board of Education.

will teach mathematics and Mrs. Alberta Buerger will instruct secondary English and social studies. In other action, the board voted 4-1 to put school doctors under the Civil Service retirement plan. This means that the doctors and the school district will both contribute to the retirement plan.

district has seven part-time school doctors. Three members of the board will attend the State School Board Assn. Convention at Syracuse Oct. 25-27 with Superintendent George C. Richter. They are Dr. W. H. Russell, Merrill Phillips, and Mrs. Herbert Simmons.

Receives Doctorate

LARCHMONT—The Rev. Albert P. Schilke, 43 Briarcliff Rd., superintendent of home missions for the United Lutheran Synod of New York and New England, has received an honorary doctorate of divinity from Hartwick College, Oneonta. Dr. Schilke has been in mission development work for 24 of his 29 years in the ministry.

RECEIVES DOCTORATE LARCHMONT—The Rev. Albert P. Schilke, 43 Briarcliff Rd., superintendent of home missions for the United Lutheran Synod of New York and New England, has received an honorary doctorate of divinity from Hartwick College, Oneonta. Dr. Schilke has been in mission development work for 24 of his 29 years in the ministry.

Other Teachers Named

Two half-time teachers were appointed for the Fox Lane School to relieve overcrowded classes in three subjects. Mrs. Dorothy Sheu

Community Events

(Continued from Page 4)

Knights of Columbus made the presentation of a gold rosary to the late Charled Bowron, shortly before his death as an expression of fraternal affection.

Mrs. Kathleen Martin, mother of Mrs. Granger Tripp of Parkview Dr., who has been a patient in the Northern Westchester Hospital has returned to the home of her son-in-law and daughter, after a period for treatment.

Mrs. John Shelly of Grove St. and Mrs. I. M. Rowitt of Armonk, her daughter, were in New York City on Saturday where they visited Mrs. Edward Murray of Glen Cove, L. I., who is a patient in the New York Infirmary. Mrs. Murray, the former Helen Shelly, underwent surgery on Thursday morning and is making a good recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tully of Spring Lake, N. J. have been the house guests of Mrs. Maurice Egan of Croton Ave. They attended the funeral last Wednesday morning in St. Francis of Assisi Church for Miss Katherine Oxley, who had been a maid in their Crow Hill home when they lived in Mount Kisco.

Miss Lilla Robinson of Katonah is hostess today to members of the Rosary Altar Rosary card group, at the home of Mrs. Edward Heller of East Way. Mrs. Frank Fox of Grove St. was hostess last week, with prize winners being Mrs. William Blinn, Mrs. Heller and Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald of Bedford.

Members of the Max Pavay Chess Club meet Friday nights in the Mount Kisco Boys Club. The junior group plays between seven and eight o'clock and the senior group from eight o'clock to closing.

William P. Malsbury Jr. of Main Street, has accepted a position as salesman with Adams Motors, agents for Dodge Motors on North Bedford Rd.

U. S. Ambassador to Belgium, William A. M. Burden of "Up lands" is among the members of the Browning School Building Fund Committee in New York City, which will solicit funds for an addition to this well known school on East 62nd Street. An alumnus of the school, he will serve with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and a group of distinguished men and women in public life. The first effort will be a benefit of "The Sound of Music," a musical starring Mary Martin and written by Russel Crouse and Howard Lindsey, authors of "Life with Father." The performance will take place on Nov. 23 at the Lunt-Fontanne Theatre.

Flowers used on Oct. 11 on the chancel altar of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, were given in memory of the late Mrs. Frank Bishop.

Recent visitors to the weekly luncheon meeting of the Mount Kisco Rotary Club included Al Sillery of Harrison; Dave Underhill of Dobbs Ferry; Edward Somers of Katonah; Maybury Fleming and Frank Briante of White Plains, and Henry Milliken who was the guest of Otty Norwood.

The Rev. George F. McKinney, chaplain of Sing Sing Prison, is the retreat master for tonight's "Evening of Reflection" at the Cenacle Convent, Armonk Rd. The devotion will begin at 7 and end at 10 p.m.

Miss Nancy Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Peck of Orchard Rd. has been elected house president of her dormitory at Middlebury College, in Vermont, for the ensuing year. In her new role, Miss Peck, a junior year student, will act as intermediary between dorm residents and the administration of the college and will take an active part in the student G.O.

Mrs. Edward R. Ahlborn, whose telephone number is MO 6-3376, will be glad to hear from persons willing to assume hostess duties for the newly inaugurated "coffee hour" between Sunday services in St. Mark's Episcopal Church. The social hour is being started to give parishioners an opportunity of getting acquainted.

At the Tuesday evening meeting of the Sportsmen's Club of Northern Westchester the members viewed a color film entitled "Each Year They Come," which showed the migration of waterfowl from Canada to the South and west to the Memorial House, Katonah.

Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Mount Kisco Methodist Church, will be all set at 5:30 p.m. to serve their famous scorgasbott in Halstead Memorial. The second and third sittings will be at 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. and there is a special rate for children. Mrs. Joseph Caraccioli, Mount Kisco 6-7888 has a very few unsold seats for this dinner.

G. Hollister Brown of West Patent Rd. is absent from his desk in the Mount Kisco National Bank and Trust Co., a patient in the Northern Westchester Hospital, where he underwent surgery last week.

Mrs. E. H. Anderson left on Sunday for her home in Cleveland, Ohio, after spending ten days with her daughter, Miss Mary Jo Anderson of 67 Moore Ave., who is a librarian at Fox Lane School.

Mr s. Benjamin Griffin, Mrs. Josephine Fickling and Mrs. Louise Medford, all of Maple Ave., were in New York City on Saturday where they attended the luncheon on the Waldorf Astoria Starlight Roof which honored Mrs. Bessie Emanuel of White Plains, former teacher and member of the First Baptist Church, White Plains. The occasion was the Founders Day and Awards Luncheon of the Westchester County Business and Professional Women's Club. Mrs. Griffin is a personal friend of Mrs. Emanuel of long standing.

Miss Pauline Baumann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Baumann of Route 100 will have a month's vacation tour of Europe. She flew out early in the month and is expected back about Nov. 1.

The Rev. Lee M. Fairchild pastor of the Mount Kisco Presbyterian Church, left for South Salem directly after the 11 o'clock service Sunday to fulfill his position as acting moderator at the Presbytery of Westchester County, at a 12:30 p.m. meeting.

Mrs. James Arena of Byram Lake Rd. arranged a pilgrimage to see the Friars of the Atonement monastery at Graymoor on the Albany Post Rd. on Oct. 11. Forty-five women, many of them members of the St. Francis of Assisi Rosary Altar Society enjoyed the day's outing, having dinner in the monastery cafeteria and attending the Stations of the Cross outdoors in the rose garden of the monastery. The trip was made by chartered bus.

Teachers in the Southeastern District of the New York State Teachers Association, of which Westchester County is a part, will attend a conference in Carnegie Hall, New York City on Friday, Oct. 30. Schools will be closed on that day.

Mrs. Joseph Charmillot of Main Street, is recovering from an attack of pleurisy, which has confined her to home for a period. She is able to be out again.

The two-day rummage sale of the Guild of the Mount Kisco Presbyterian Church got underway this morning at 11 a.m. and will be held tomorrow again opening at 10 a.m. Mrs. F. Paul Christiansen is general chairman for the event.

The old adage "does Mr. Macy tell Mr. Gimble?" was answered in the affirmative last week when Maurice Henry of the Mount Kisco Rotary Club, seeking a piano for the Mount Kisco Boys Club received this item from James F. McMahon of Halstead Quinn Fuel Oil Company, an ardent Lions Club member.

Two Mount Kisco students enrolled this year at the Emma Willard School in Troy art Miss Judith Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Thomas of Petersville Farms and Miss Anne Berwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Berwick of Pines Bridge Rd. Miss Thomas is a second year student and Miss Berwick is in her first year.

A second collection taken up at the Masses in St. Francis of Assisi Church Sunday, was for the annual Mission Sunday appeal held each year throughout the United States.

TALENTED SINGER, Bob Carney, member of the "Tarrriers" who have two hit records to their credit, will be the entertainer at the testimonial dinner being tendered Samuel Rose at Art's Inn, Main St. Mount Kisco on Oct. 27. Mr. Carney will give a selection of folksongs as well as popular numbers. He has appeared with his group on such television shows as Ed Sullivan's, the Steve Allen show and in 1953, won the Arthur Godfrey talent show.

Digest Fetes Over 100 For Years of Service

CHAPPAQUA—More than 100 employees of The Reader's Digest who served the magazine for periods of ten, fifteen and twenty years were honored yesterday at a Service Awards Party at the Maison Lafayette Restaurant, Briarcliff.

The "old-timers" received their awards, whose value increased according to length of service, from Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Wallace, co-editors and publishers of the magazine. Digest General Manager Albert L. Cole of Greenwich, Conn. was among the honorees. He joined the magazine in 1939.

Christmas Sale Set By Millwood Guild

MILLWOOD—The Guild of Our Lady of the Wayside Church met last Thursday at the home of the president, Mrs. Neil Golligly, to discuss its forthcoming Christmas Sale.

Fights Fare Increase

RYE—Mayor Robert Hughes, in response to a letter he received from New Rochelle Mayor George Vegara requesting a letter be sent to the Public Service Commission asking that the new fare increases on the New York New Haven and Hartford Railroad be denied, received approval by the City Council to protest the fare increase.

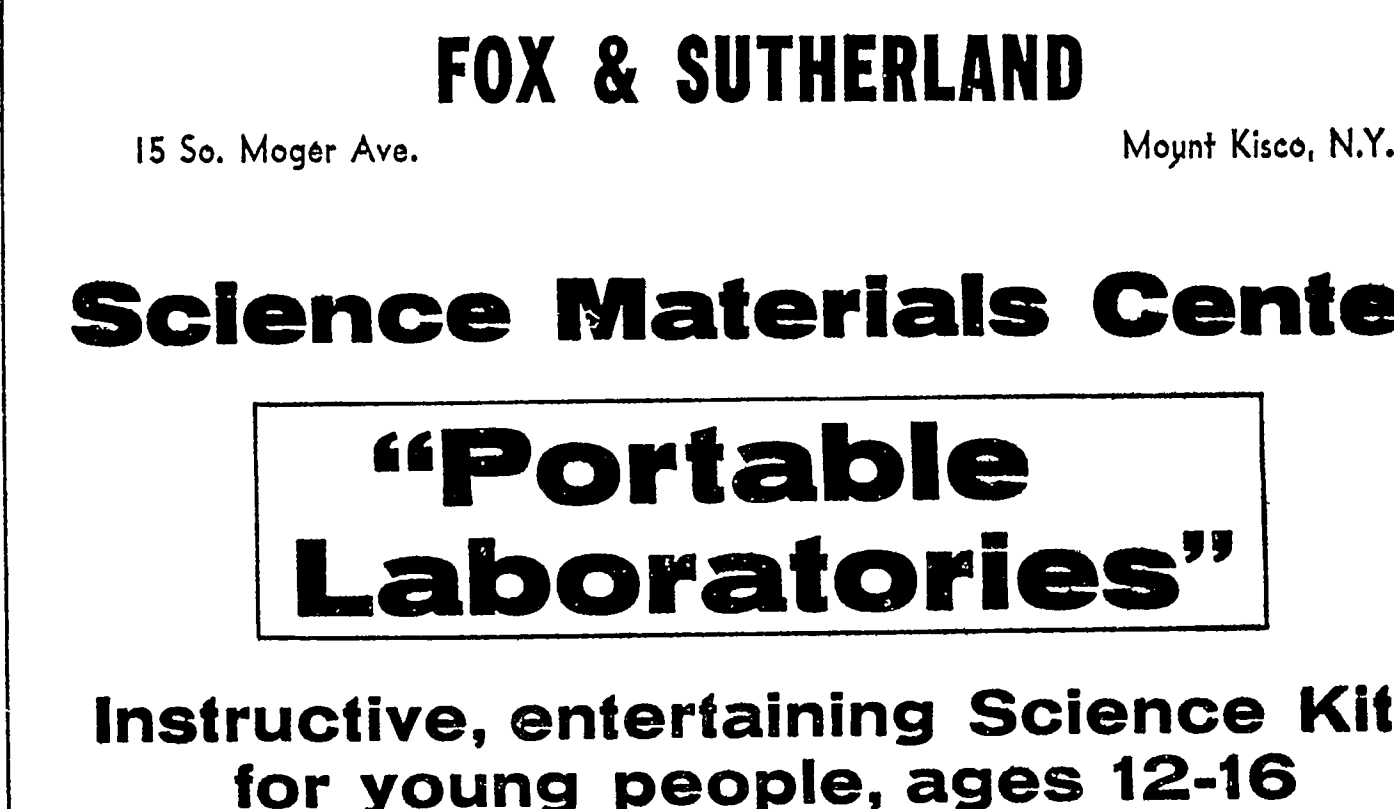

Science Materials Center

FOX & SUTHERLAND 15 So. Moger Ave. Mount Kisco, N.Y. Science Materials Center "Portable Laboratories" Instructive, entertaining Science Kits for young people, ages 12-16

Pre-tested

Designed and produced under the supervision of leading scientists and educators. Accompanied by easy-to-read, authoritative, step-by-step manuals.

HERE, AT LAST, are experimental kits for young people from 12-16—actually designed, manufactured and tested under the exacting standards of scientists and science teachers. The complete "Portable Laboratories" are created exclusively by the SCIENCE MATERIALS CENTER, a unique source of approved scientific equipment, originally founded to serve the children of the 50,000 professionals who are members of the famous Library of Science. They are now available in our store by special arrangement with the CENTER.

- 1. CALCULO ANALOG COMPUTER: An ideal introduction to the new science of electronic computers. $16.95
2. MICROSCOPE SET: A precision instrument imported to meet the CENTER's specifications—plus all essential accessories for a complete introduction to microscopy. $19.95
3. ULTRA-VIOLET SCIENCE: The theory of fluorescence—and its applications in chemistry, mineralogy, other areas of research—can be fully explored with the more than 50 separate scientific materials in this kit. $11.95

- 4. PRE-ELECTRICITY PHYSICS: Materials for more than 100 experiments and projects, demonstrating the basic principles of magnetism and static electricity. $2.95
5. STATIC ELECTRICITY KIT: $2.95
6. MAGNETISM KIT: $3.95

- 7. LIGHT POLARIZER: Ingenious scientific instrument, plus accessories—offering many hours of experimentation in polarization reflection, stress pattern analysis, depolarization, etc. $2.95
8. BRAINIAC K-30: Improved version of the famous "electric brain" construction kit—adapted by its originator exclusively for the CENTER. Solves problems in mathematics, logic, reasoning, scientific puzzles, etc. $18.95

NOTE: Each "Portable Laboratory" includes a detailed manual of instructions and experiments, containing as many as 64 pages of text and illustrations.

FREE DEMONSTRATION of the fascinating, new Science Materials Center PORTABLE LABORATORIES by Mr. Bischoff, Teacher of Horace Groceley H.S. AT FOX & SUTHERLAND, TOMORROW, FRIDAY, 4 TO 9 P.M.

Please send me the Science Materials Center "Portable Laboratories" circled below, totalling $... Name: Address: City: Zone: State: Check or money-order enclosed. Charge my account, #

SAVE $22* ON YOUR AUTO INSURANCE

To provide you with the best possible value in auto insurance, Nationwide tailors rates to local conditions, screens out reckless drivers, cuts red tape. That's why more than 2 million careful drivers select Nationwide. Up-to-date coverage plus top-speed claim payments! Nationwide auto insurance is designed to give you a new high in protection—a new low in cost. It pays to see your nearby Nationwide agent—now!

*Annual savings over amount being paid for similar coverage with most other companies on a 1959 Chevrolet Bel Air (proportionate savings on other cars). Rates for pleasure driving only, for drivers age 25 or over; full coverage Comprehensive; $50 Deductible Collision; $10,000/$20,000 Bodily Injury; $10,000 Property Damage and $500 Medical Payments. Deduct $15 lifetime membership fee—charged first year only—from savings shown. Comparison based on rates in effect October 1, 1959.

WHITE PLAINS: 7-11 South Broadway Phone: WH 8-6500
MANHATTAN: 655 Madison Avenue New York 21 Phone: TE 8-9290
NEW CITY: Peter Rosakis Phone: NE 4-4334

New Ideas for a New Era NATIONWIDE MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY • HOME OFFICE: COLUMBUS, OHIO

CONSULT YOUR LOCAL NATIONWIDE AGENT CLARENCE J. CHRISTIE 295 East Main Street Mount Kisco 6-9567 Mount Kisco, New York