Private Matthew J. Major, army air forces, relates this one in Your Life magazine: A buddy of mine was assigned recently to drive a group of officers to visit another unit, and as they were to be gone all day, they took lunches which they ate in the truck. Next day, when he had a similar assignment, an officer, noting that the inside of the truck wasn't too clean, asked: "What is this—a garbage truck?" My pal replied: "Yes, sir." "What have you been hauling?" the officer wanted to know next. And, not thinking, my buddy told him: "Second lieutenants, sir."

She—I've been asked to get married lots of times.

He—Who asked you?

She—Mother and father.

Jerry—I don't know, but it's true of widows.

Harry—Ants are the hardest working creatures in the world.

Jerry—Maybe they are, but they attend all our picnics!

Unique's the Word!

Janette—Yes, I think her school girl complexion seems to have grayed.
