

BATTLESHIPS FOR BUILDINGS ROW

"Little Navy" Men Want Federal Structures at Home.

SEEK NEW POST OFFICES.

Congressman Rucker Has Handling Constitutional Amendment—Looked For Not Likely Immediately Passage of Currency Bill.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Jan. 2.—[Special.] Battleships or buildings will make an interesting contest during winter. That congressmen of the two battleship plan of Daniels seems certain, but approval will not be granted without a contest by what are called "little navy" men. Most of these have new public buildings in their districts. Of late years new campaign argument a can make before his constituents that seems to be the although I have heard many complain that after they years getting buildings, fish hatcheries, and in every secured the expenditure amounts of federal money in their districts they have been turned down at Parcel Post Opens the Way. The increased business by parcel post opens the way for more public buildings. Many post offices have been overcrowded by the new system. Then there is a demand for all post offices to be near the railroad stations in order to make handling of this many parcels more expeditious. A bill at this session, although the leaders determined to postpone such a measure until the short session. A combination can be made strong enough to force a public building bill through the legislature. It is being held up all winter at last been done before when the leaders had determined to shut off a building bill.

Farming For Prisoners. A woman who gives attention to the good thing if it can be made into large farms. She has a plan for the winter in the price of the new building. Many post offices are being built. The intention of Missouri is to amend the constitution to give the state a job this year. A portion of which recommendation is to build a new post office. It is being held up all winter at last been done before when the leaders had determined to shut off a building bill.

SUFFRAGE ARMY IN TARRYTOWN

The suffrage "Army of the Hudson," fifteen strong and led by General Rosalie Jones, passed through Tarrytown shortly before four o'clock yesterday afternoon. They did not stop for a meeting as Nyack was their goal for the night, and they were saving their energy for a rally there.

The "Army," however, carried a message for the Tarrytown suffragists from Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, and "Col." Ida Craft handed it over to the suffragists who met the army and wished them good luck on their pilgrimage.

The letter, written under the heading of the Empire State Campaign Committee, of which Mrs. Catt is chairman, was as follows:

The Empire State Campaign Committee "Votes for Women!" Headquarters, 1 East 41st Street, New York City.

December 27, 1913.
To the Suffragists of Tarrytown:
The Empire State Campaign Committee extends to you a cordial invitation to attend a School for Suffrage Workers to be held in Yonkers, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 12th, 13th and 14th. Suffragists of the 9th Campaign District (Westchester, Rockland, Orange and Sullivan Counties) are those particularly urged to attend, although all will be welcome.

On Monday evening there will be a social entertainment; on Tuesday a large meeting at which Dr. Anna H. Shaw will be the chief speaker. Let us put our heads together and plan such a thorough going, glorious campaign for the 9th District that failure in 1915 will be impossible. The campaign needs YOU and you need the school. Come to Yonkers. Write to Mrs. Carl Osterheld, 249

THE CAVALIER'S SONG.
A steed, a steed of matchless speed!
A sword of metal keener is dross;
All else to noble hearts is dross;
All else on earth is mean.
The polychrome of the war-horse proude,
The rowling of the drum,
The clangor of the trumpet lowde,
Be soundes from heaven that come;
And, oh, the thundering prease of knights,
Whenas their war-cries swell,
May touse from heaven an angel bright
And rouse a fend from hell!

Then mounte, then mounte, have gallants all,
And don your helmes amaine!
Dewes of couriers, fame and honor, call
Us to the field againe.
No shrewish fears shall fill our eye
When the sword-hilt's in our hand,
Heart whole well part and no whit'sighte
For the fayrest of the land;
Let pipping swaine and craven knight
Thus weape and pulling crye,
Our business is like mine to fight
And hero-like to die!
—William Motherwell.
