Father LaChance of Westport performing the marriage ceremony. Mr. Marabon is head chef at The Windsor and we are glad to be able to note that he has taken unto himself a wife.
Improvements on the Cobble Hill Golf Ground.
The regular fall work on the Cobble Hill Golf Ground in Hand Park, under the personal supervision of Albert Patterson, Keeper of the Green, is now in progress. Among the alterations and improvements we note a new green at the 6th hole and also a new green at the 5th hole. The new greens, especially the latter, which is at the foot of "Old Glory" notch, will add materially to the appearance of the Cobble Hill Golf Ground and will be much appreciated by the patrons of those famous links.
F. H. Davis and Family Go Back to New Rochelle.
F. H. Davis and family returned to their New Rochelle home Saturday last, they having occupied the John M. Adams cottage on Water Street during the summer months. Mr. Davis is Superintendent of the New Rochelle Water Company and we are glad indeed to be able to say that his cottage on the slope of Wood Hill, not far from the Post & Gazette building, is rapidly nearing completion, Henry R. Fuller, the contractor and builder, rushing it to its utmost.
The selection of this commanding site was made by Mrs. Davis and it is but a few rods east, comparatively speaking, of the spot where Richards, the great artist, painted his famous South Valley landscape.
A Woman Says:
"The first bottle of the new medicine, Caloria Solvent, set up my nerves like tuning a fiddle. I began to get good sleep. After that I felt hungry and when I smelt breakfast I picked up weight and strength, and no wonder I believe in Dr. David Kennedy, of Kennedy Row, Kingston, N. Y." All druggists $1.00.

NEW LAKE GEORGE STEAMER.

Will be Ready Next July—Something of the Design—To be Fitted With All the Latest Appliances.
Next year a new steamer will be placed on Lake George by The Champlain Transportation Company. The Horizon will take the trip formerly performed by the Ticonderoga, which was recently burned, while the new boat will take the schedule formerly operated by the Horizon. As yet the name of the new boat has not been determined, but the contracts call for the completion of the boat for operation July 1, 1902.
The boat will be constructed by The W. & A. Fletcher Company of Hoboken, N. J., the contract for the hull being sub-let to The Harlan & Hollingsworth Company of Wilmington, Del., and the joicer work to John Inglis & Son of Brooklyn. The Fletcher Company built the Fall River Line steamers, Plymouth and Priscilla, and is one of the best known and most capable shipbuilding companies.
The new boat will be 195 feet long on the water line and 203 feet over all. The beam or width of the boat will be thirty feet and fifty-nine feet over all. The depth of the hold will be ten feet six inches. The boat will be fitted with water tight bulkheads. It will have a vertical beam engine, forty-four inch cylinder, ten feet stroke and two boilers of return tubular pattern, eight feet in diameter and twenty-three feet long. The wheels are of the patent feathering pattern, twenty-three feet in diameter, and the buckets work automatically to feather in leaving the water. This prevents much resistance and allows greater speed.
The boat will be fitted with searchlights, steam steering gear and every modern convenience. The dining room will be on the main deck. The cost of the new steamer will be about $150,000.
The Champlain Transportation Company will also construct a new boat for its Lake Champlain service. The new boat on Lake George will make the transportation service the best ever given on that lake.—Ex.

Rev. Harvey S. Randall Here for a Day.

Sunday morning last those who attended the Methodist Church in this village had the privilege of listening to a soul-stirring sermon by Rev. Harvey S. Randall of Leeds, North Dakota. His text being John 3:16: For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life.
Mr. Randall was a student in the Elizabethtown Union Free School in 1886 and 1887, during which years he formed many strong friendships here. He came here to school from the Averyville section of the town of North Elba and shortly after his school days went West. His many friends in this section will be glad to know that he has a family, consisting of a wife and four children. His wife and children are visiting her people at Moores Forks.
Mr. Randall left this village for North Elba on the stage Monday morning. We were sorry he could not stay longer, but were glad to have had him with us even for a day. May the sun shine brightly upon his North Dakota home.

A Lusty Son Born to Mr. and Mrs. George H. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Williams of Hackensack, N. J., are the proud parents of a lusty son born to them Saturday, September 30, 1901. Both mother and son doing well at last reports. The editor of the Post, who was a seaman of the father of the "new comer" in those halcyon school days back in the 80s, hastens to extend congratulations.

Construction Active Here.

Elizabethtown has had a good summer and business continues lively up to the present. Our own carpenters, stone masons and painters and several additional ones from Lewis and Westport are constantly employed by local contractors. We honestly believe that there is more in the way of construction going on here than in any town this side of North Elba.

Whallonsburgh.

The Return of an Essex County Boy.
Oct. 1.—James Henry McNeel, M. D., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James T. McNeel, former residents of the town of Lewis, accompanied by his sister-in-law, his daughter and her lady friend, all from Fon-Du-Lac, Wis., arrived at the home of his only surviving Aunt, Mrs. Roger VanOrnum, in Whallonsburgh Friday, after an absence of 46 years, being 15 years old when he left the home of his youth, with his parents and other children and has since that date been a resident of Fon-Du-Lac. Very many readers of the town of Lewis will recall his parents, also the Dr. with many fond memories, as they were held in high esteem by a large circle of friends; he was in the employ of the late Gen. Wm. S. Merriam in Lewis for an indefinite period and was also clerk one year in the store for Wm. P. Merriam in Westport and was a student in the academy at Keeseville at one time, and like the most of our Essex County boys had a longing desire to behold the beautiful and majestic scenery of old Essex County once more, and visit these places that were so strongly endeared to him in his youth. Also to visit the remaining relatives in Potsdam, Whallonsburgh and Ticonderoga, all of which he has been permitted to enjoy, making "the present" a bright spot in his life, that no oblivion can obscure from his memory. They spent a few days at the Pan-American, visited Niagara Falls, Montreal, Thousand Islands, and many other points of interest; they went by boat to Ticonderoga Saturday and made a short visit and thence to New York, where they were booked for two days and then leave for their home in Wisconsin. Mr. McNeel practiced his profession skillfully for 32 years and still has extensive practice; he contemplates repeating his visit in future, showing the cherished memories of his Essex County home and friends. All hope that providence will not order it otherwise.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Sage went to Rutland Tuesday for a two weeks visit at the home of his son Willard Sage and family.
Mrs. E. R. Mather and her three children after spending the summer with her people here and her husband also returned to Clinton, Mass., Thursday and will remain with her brother N. E. Mather and family a few days and then go on to Providence, R. I., where she will join her husband and will soon be settled in domestic life again.
Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith returned from the Pan-American Saturday, feeling that the occasion was enjoyable and very interesting.
Mrs. Clara Fuller, widow of the late Clark Fuller, and her two children have spent the limit of their time, one year, (specified by herself) among her husband's people and have now returned to their home in Cleveland, O. Wallace, youngest son of Albert Fuller, accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rose and Master Sherwood went to Aureville yesterday and contemplate returning tomorrow.

Potatoes are rotting quite badly in some places; some fields have been abandoned on account of rotting; and not both, not worth digging, as a rule, the yield is poor.
R. W. VanOrnum is enjoying a few days outing in Saranac.
The tint of the autumn leaves plainly show that October is here.

Upper Jay.

C. B. M. Lulligan, a Judge of the Supreme Court, spent a few days last week visiting Senator Priny.
School begins today with Mr. J. T. Heald and Miss E. Cater as instructors.

JAY GOOK NEAR TO DEATH

Suddenly Overcome by Illness, and Not Yet Out of Danger.
(Special to the World.)
Sandusky, O., Sept. 30.—Jay Cooke, the aged civil war financier, had an attack of congestion of the brain some time during the night, and but for the timely arrival of a physician would not now be alive.
Mr. Cooke has been passing the heated time at his summer home, The Castle, on Gibraltar, a small island near Put-in-Bay. A large number of his relatives and friends is also occupying the premises.
Mr. Cooke had left orders to be called at 6 o'clock this morning. He contemplated a fishing trip. The servant tapped at his bedroom door, but there was no reply, and the servant aroused the household. The door was broken in and Mr. Cooke was discovered unconscious on the bed.
All efforts to revive him proved futile. A small steamer was immediately despatched to this city and a physician was hurried to the island. After a long time Mr. Cooke was restored to consciousness. His condition at 9 o'clock to-night was hopeful, although he was by no means out of danger. The many friends of the venerable financier in Elizabethtown and vicinity will unite in hoping that he recovers.

Mrs. E. L. Andrews.
It is with sincere regret that we announce the death of Mrs. E. L. Andrews which occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Clark in the village of Westport at 2:30 o'clock last Thursday afternoon. Although she was far advanced in life, yet her death was sudden and unexpected. Deceased was a daughter of the late Ir. Henderson, who was a soldier in the War of 1812 and took part in the battle of Plattsburgh, where he was wounded. Her mother was a daughter of Judge Joseph Jenks of the old Court of Common Pleas. Born and reared in Westport, she ever entertained the highest regard for and interest in the Champlain Valley. Educated and refined, this lady had traveled much and read widely and was a most interesting conversationalist and writer. She had passed the summer with her aged sister, Mrs. M. A. Richards, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, in the midst of the scenes of her childhood, renewing old acquaintances and forming many new and pleasing ones. Her funeral, which was held Saturday afternoon, was largely attended, testifying to a marked degree the esteem in which this lady of most tender sensibilities was held generally by those who knew her best.

Notice.

All persons are hereby forbidden hunting, shooting or trespassing, under penalty of the law, on lot No. 19, occupied by George H. Glidden, Dated Elizabethtown, N. Y., Sept. 28, 1901.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cheroke, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c at C. N. Williams' Drug Store.
