TO PROBE SHOE PRICES

House Directs Investigation Into Present Cost of Commodity.

With the adoption of the igoo resolution directing the federal trade commission to investigate increased shoe prices, the house today passed legislative action toward reduction of the high cost of living.

Before adoption of the resolution, which was without a dissenting vote, the house voted down an amendment, which would have extended the inquiry into other articles of clothing and food.

The house agriculture committee considering legislation to extend the food control act to other necessities of life, to extend the powers of the act beyond the wartime period, to give the president authority to fix fair prices for necessities and to provide penalties for hoarding, continued its hearings with F. W. Waddell of Armour & Co., and Dr. Mary Pennington of the department of agriculture, as witnesses.

Discover Hoards of Food.

Federal Attorney Stephen T. Lockwood of Buffalo has revealed the hoarding of 191 carloads of approximately 2,000,000 pounds of pork products, dressed and borax-cured, in fruit storage plants at Lyndenville, Medina and Waterport. He has wired the attorney general at Washington for instructions as to the procedure he should follow against the owners. Mr. Lockwood states that an additional shipment of 154 carloads of the products is now en route to the Niagara fruit belt.

Overcharge Refunded.

A New York dealer whom Arthur Williams, federal food administrator, last week accused of having sold 1,000 pounds of sugar to the Albany Orphan asylum for three cents more a pound than the fair price, has refunded the overcharge, according to an announcement by Mr. Williams.

While admitting profiteering in this transaction, the dealer claimed he did not know it was destined for an orphan-asylum, Mr. Williams said.

To Boost Rural Express Trunk Lines.

To promote rural truck express lines for quick delivery of perishable foods from farms to markets, Governor Smith has appointed a temporary non-salary state highway transport committee at the request of the state reconstruction commission, according to the commission's announcement in New York.

Will Move Plant Because of Strike.

As their striking employees have not returned to work, the management of the Columbia Graphophone company of Bridgeport, Conn., announced that the plant would be moved elsewhere. The local plant was closed, apparently not to open. It employs 6,000 persons.

Would Acquire Aviation Sites.

Acquisition by the war department of certain sites now being used as aviation fields was proposed in an administration bill introduced by Chairman Wadsworth of the military committee.

POWER

So-CO-ny Motor Gasoline gives truck or car power not only for usual needs but for emergencies. And the power you get today you can get tomorrow or next week—for So-CO-ny is every day the same. Adjust the carburetor for So-CO-ny, and forget that part of the machine. Combustion never varies, power never slackens.

Why take chances with unknown, doubtful mixtures? Keep to So-CO-ny and keep power at par. Buy it where you see the Red, White and Blue So-CO-ny Sign.

Daily Thought.

Honest bread is very well—it's the utter that makes the temptation. Douglas Jerrold.

Merely Nominal Right.

The freedom of the city of London carries with it, nominally at any rate, the right to keep pigs in the parish of St. James Piccadilly. But even were any one disposed to avail himself of this liberty, and if the sanitary authorities failed to object, land in that part of London is somewhat too costly for profitable pig-farming.

Do Authors Enjoy Writing?

In an editorial on the financial rewards of the late Amelia E. Barr the New York World sets forth that sheer love of writing always produces the best results. "We object," says the Sun. "A canvass of writers who achieve the best results, our guess is, would show that nine-tenths of them don't love to write. There is a good deal of bunk about it, and it is hard to get honest answers; many writers are afraid to say they don't enjoy the writing job."

Freedom.

Freedom may come quickly in robes of peace, or after ages of conflict and war; but come it will, and abide it will, so long as the principles by which it was required are held sacred.—Edward Everett

The Candid Cobbler.

Cite Story.

Parish came trailing down a flight of stairs, and her mother, badly frightened, said if she was hurt. When she reached her breath she found herself and her feelings: "I is killed and I know I is killed."

Early Sewing Machine.

Thomas Fair, in 1790, made many of the first sewing machines. The one in 1790 in London, the mechanism of the machine was in wood.

Wire for Ocean Soundings.

A very fine steel piano wire is used in making ocean soundings. The ocean at its deepest point as far as is known is 31,611 feet—about six miles—deep. This hole in the ocean is near the island of Guam. A wire must be very fine and very strong to support six miles of itself in making these soundings.

Largest and Smallest Engines.

A young jeweler of Hillsboro, N. D., has made a tiny engine, run by compressed air, which is only three-quarters of an inch long and weighs only 2 1/2 grains. The diameter of the cylinder bore is 28-1000 of an inch, the diameter of the flywheel is 9-64 of an inch and its stroke is 36-1000 of an inch. Contrasted with this is a valve, used by the Ontario Power company of Niagara Falls, which is 81 feet high, weighs 65 tons, and has a water-opening 9 feet across, so that an automobile full of men can stand in it.

Anyway, He Found It.

It was on October 12 I happened to meet my neighbor's little girl on the street during school hours. I asked her how it happened that she was not at school, and she looked at me with some surprise and answered: "Why, don't you know, it's Columbus day today?" Then, with seeming pity for me in my ignorance, she added: "Columbus discovered America. It was last year, I think."—Chicago Tribune.

Good Advice for Parents.

"Don't really copy what they see done, and as a consequence they will not hear squabbles among children should be given every opportunity to observe courtesy.—Exchange

Miracles Due to Mothers.

Medicine can to some extent prevent disease from attacking the child; medicine cannot perform miracles. It is a miracle if children brought up in foul and evil surroundings grow up healthy and wholesome men and women. The miracle, incidentally, is usually accomplished not by doctors but by the self-sacrifice and heroism of the mother of the children, who too often loses her own health in the process.—London Times.

Deep Degradation.

"I haven't seen P. H. Hinton for a week." "No, he hasn't been out of the house since his accident." "Was he seriously injured?" "No, but he is the disabled type." "Disability?" "Yes. After living in the part of the city all his life he went to the country and a last week and a run—by a mile, only."

Could Drink Water.

If among the innumerable beverages of colonial times a man could find nothing to quench his thirst, he must have been hard to satisfy. The Pilgrim fathers were much distressed because they were reduced to drinking water when they came to the New World. But Higginson of Salem, probably told his contemporaries: "I can and oftentimes do drink New England water very well."

Triumphed Over Misfortune.

The famous French artist, Gustave Dore, was born and reared in the shadow of Strasbourg cathedral, says Mrs. Betham-Edwards, in "The Heart of the Vosges." At the age of eight years he broke his right arm, but became, as if by magic, ambidextrous. As he lay in bed he cheerily drew pictures all day long with his left hand.

Golden Moment is Now.

Shake a barrel of apples and the sound ones will come to the top. And in this great industrial shake-up the man of right heart and keen mind will find his chance. He who has not succeeded as well as he would have liked has now less cause or time than ever for the cavil of discontent or resistance to the advance of industrial peace and progress. Now is his golden moment to apply heart and brain and muscle to the best opportunity at hand.—Charles Grant Miller, in the Christian Herald.
