PAULINE FREDERICK IS SPLENDID IN "SOLD"

Pauline Frederick, the famous Paramount Star, will be seen in her splendid photo-play, "Sold" at the Palace Theatre tonight and tomorrow night.

Containing all the elements for vigorous emotional portrayal, "Sold" provides Miss Frederick with a highly satisfactory role. Miss Frederick's characterization is that of the wife of an impoverished artist, who, in order to obtain funds for her husband, consents to pose in the nude for his wealthy rival. This sacrificial act is detected by the husband, who, misunderstanding her motive, spurns her and laughs at her protestations that the act he brands her for was committed for his sake. From this point, the drama develops much stress, and after a series of tense situations, the husband learns of his wife's fidelity, and a happy reunion is effected.

One of the most notable casts ever assembled in one screen presented has been provided. It includes Thomas Holding, Lowell Sherman, Julian L'Estrange, Russel

Bassett and Lucille Fursman.

Pauline Frederick has been hailed as one of the foremost actresses acquired by the screen from the stage. After she was seen in "Sold" her place as the foremost emotional artiste on the screen was unalterably established.

THE PROUDEST BOAST

(From the Doylestown, Pa., Intelligencer.)

"I like to think, sirs," said Senator Harding in concluding a masterful address in criticism of the league of nations, "that out of the discovered soul of this Republic, and through our preservative actions in this supreme moment of human progress we shall hold the word American in the proudest boast of citizenship in all the world."

AGRICULTURE

Peonies may be divided and reset in October.

Farm machinery is so high in price that a machine shed will soon pay for itself.

A cow that ranks with the best of her breed is worth half a dozen average cows.

On many New York farms this is a good time for those who expect to use concrete fence posts to get busy making them.

A store that didn't restock as fast as it sold its goods would fail. Land is the same way; don't keep taking from its fertility without restoring some.

The use of artificial light to stimulate egg production can do no harm to the hen if the practice is not overdone, because a longer winter day is normal to the descendants of the jungle fowl.

A Kentucky philosopher says that a farmer who can afford to own an automobile can afford to send his son or daughter to college, because money put into a machine can never pay as well as money invested in trained brains. How about the the short course at Cornell? Tuition is free to residents of New York.

Same Old Circus.
Member the old farmer woman with the umbrella and the funny clothes who wanders round the ring just after the show begins, looking desperately into the audience calling "Al-bert, Al-bert, where are you, Al-bert?" And the policeman tells her to move on and she beats up the policeman and her wig and petticoats come off (down to the red flannel one) and she isn't old or a lady either, after all? Well, she is still there.—Everybody's Magazine.
