

WORKS DAY AND NIGHT

In the southwestern part of New York state, the nine miles of dirt road between Dayton and Cattaraugus is in a very poor condition. The other day a man in Gowanda was on his way home from Olean, when his autogot stalled in a mudhole, and while making a vain attempt to escape, a boy appeared with a team of horses. The following conversation took place:

"Haul you out Mister?"
"How much do you want?"
"Three dollars."
After a long and fruitless argument the motorist was pulled to dry land. After handing over the money he said:
"Do you haul many cars out in a day?"
"I have pulled out eleven today," replied the boy, with a broad smile.

DR. S. PARKES CADMAN HERE ON FEBRUARY 18

Among the greatest and most noted preachers in the world such as Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, Dr. Newell Dwight Willis, and others, the name of Dr. Parkes Cadman stands out pre-eminently. As the pastor of Central Congregational Church, Brooklyn, in many ways the strongest church of its order in America, his congregation in 1912 celebrated the tenth anniversary of his pastorate—a decade in which this church raised three-quarters of a million dollars for missions and benevolences and into which Dr. Cadman received nearly two thousand new members. The present membership of the church is 2750. Among this membership there are several judges and many leading merchants, lawyers, educationalists, and professional men.

Dr. Cadman is a descendant from a race of preachers. He was born among the Shropshire hills of England in 1864. His collegiate course completed with honor and distinction at Richmond College, London University, he at once came to America and thus fulfilled the intention of his life.

When he landed in America at the age of twenty-five he was without a friend on this side of the Atlantic. Not a great while after, to be exact about four years, he was made pastor of the Metropolitan Temple, formerly the church where Bishop John P. Newman had preached and General U. S. Grant and family had worshipped.

Dr. Cadman now stands at the height of his powers, in the prime of life, possessed of endless physical and mental vigor and the master of many subjects in which the public is profoundly interested. His lectures are more than mere lectures. They are vital messages and once heard they can never be forgotten.

YOUNG WILLOUGHBY WINS WRESTLING MATCH

The wrestling match last Saturday night was witnessed by a large crowd. The match was a fast and clever exhibition all the way through, both men escaping from holds that looked dangerous. After breaking the body scissors, young Willoughby lent the first fall with a head lock, after 17 minutes of wrestling. Willoughby got the second fall in 3 minutes with a back hammer lock. Irish was unable to come back for the 3rd fall, as his shoulder was badly wrenched, Willoughby claiming the match.

Leo Kid Riley of Forks, N. Y., although being a game (kid) who was willing to mix, could not stand up against the left swing of the local unknown, going to the carpet 3 times in the first round and five times altogether.

The battle royal was even better than expected, lasting 20 minutes with two men left. As the boys are the best of friends and the crowd had had their money's worth, the bout was stopped. Out of the bout developed two boxers of ability who the fans would like to see box each other, being equally divided as to who is the best man. These men are Herman Lawrence and Dermont. The club is expecting to hold another match soon and will try and get these boys together.

BISHOP—HIGBEE

Harley J. Bishop of Salamanca and Helen E. Higbee of Little Valley were united in marriage last Sunday morning at the Methodist parsonage in this village, Rev. J. Brent Cook officiating. David G. Bishop and Margaret H. Bishop were witnesses of the ceremony. The happy couple will make their home in Little Valley.

LITIGATION IN AN EAST OTTO ESTATE

In the matter of the Probate of the Last Will and Testament of Robert C. Beach of East Otto who died in May, 1919, which was presented for probate bearing date August 31, 1916, objections were filed by the widow and a jury trial of the issues was demanded. The controversy was certified to the Supreme Court. The case was for Sept. 1919. No one appeared in behalf of the contestant. A default was taken upon the issues and the matter again certified back to the Surrogate's Court and a final decree was entered admitting the will to probate.

The real point of the litigation, however, rests in the fact that the will contains a provision that if either of the children of the deceased contest the will, then the ones so contesting shall receive only $5.00. The only ones to be benefitted by a successful contest are the two daughters and they with their husbands and children are the active ones in this application. The old lady, the widow, is apparently being used by them to promote a contest by which she can in no event gain anything, but which they are not courageous enough to undertake for fear of forfeiting their rights under the will in case the contest is successful.

On the merits of the controversy the claim of the contestants is a very improbable one. If the daughters who are the real contestants wish to contest this will, they should come forward and do so in their own right and in their own name, and not ask to do so through the medium of the widow, who has nothing to gain by such a contest.

The motion should be denied with $10.00 costs.

PETERSEN-ANGOVE POST INSTALLS OFFICERS

On Monday evening February 9, at Grange Hall, the Petersen-Angove Post No. 416 of Cattaraugus installed officers for the ensuing year. About thirty members were present and after the business meeting a sumptuous supper was served by several of the members who acted as K. P's. At the regular business meeting several things of importance were brought up. It was decided to give the Legion play "The American Flag" on February 27th. At this meeting a challenge was received from the Lynn A. Thurber Post of Springville, challenging the local post to a Legion basketball game to be played next Tuesday night February 17th at Springville. The Post voted to accept the challenge. The Springville Post hopes to get a return game with the Cattaraugus Post in the near future at Cattaraugus.

After the business meeting and supper Mr. Dan Cunningham acted as Toastmaster and called on nearly every member of the Post for a short talk. Everyone responded with at least a story and to all appearances everyone seemed to have a regular honest to goodness good time.

J. J. McCarthy and J. F. Carroll attended the supper as guests of the post and were both called on for short talks. The post wishes to take this opportunity to thank both Mr. McCarthy and Mr. Carroll for their many kindnesses to the post. Mr. McCarthy has been coaching the characters who are to present "The American Flag," and it is largely thru his efforts that the post is able to put on this play. Mr. Carroll has been very kind to the post in the past and we wish to thank him for everything that he has done for us.

After the program was brought to a close, Mr. Cunningham requested Mr. Larsen and Mr. Marvin to favor the members with some music. This they proceeded to do, while most of the others sat around and smoked, and talked over old times. The celebration broke up at about twelve o'clock and everyone went home feeling that the Legion was made up of a bunch of good fellows, and voting the banquet a huge success.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE GIVES OUT REPORT

During the war the wholesale price of sugar was 9c and the wholesaler was allowed 68c per hundred and the retailer was allowed a profit of 1c per pound. The wholesale price of sugar is now from 15 to 19c per pound, and the wholesalers and retailers are required to invest approximately twice the amount of money which they formerly invested in sugar. They are now also required to pay for sugar before receiving same.

In view of these facts, the dealers maintain they should be allowed more profit than they received when sugar cost only 9c.

This question has been taken up with the Department of Justice at Washington, and we have received a wire from them stating that the Department regards $1.00 per hundred as maximum reasonable margin for wholesaling sugar and 2c per pound as maximum reasonable margin for retailing sugar. Dealers may govern themselves accordingly. Prosecution will be instituted in all cases where this margin is exceeded. The co-operation of wholesalers, retailers and housewives is requested in order to have food and clothing sold at fair prices, and they are requested to report any sales of sugar or other commodities at excessive prices to James B. Stafford, Federal Fair-Price Commissioner for New York State outside of New York City, No. 231 Federal Building, Buffalo, N. Y.

Very truly yours,
JAMES B. STAFFORD.

ARE YOU A GOOD LIAR.

The Palace Theatre is anxious to know outside of its own management and employees who is the biggest and most artistic liar in town, and in order to learn this, will give away a prize of $2 in cash to the best lie of 50 words that is handed in at the box office before 9 o'clock Saturday night, and the winning manuscript will be read to the audience at the performance of "Miss Geo. Washington" on that evening. The lies will be judged as to originality, artistic composition, and general absurdity. It is said that it is not wrong to lie if you have to do it for a living—so get busy and hand in your manuscript. The contest is open to everybody young and old, professional and non-professional.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX OFFICERS IN THIS COUNTY

In a communication received by this paper, Collector of Internal Revenue Riordon announces that one or more Federal Income Tax Officers will be sent into the county of Cattaraugus from February 10th to March 15th next. Offices have been provided for them at the following listed places, where they will be at the date set opposite each respective place, as follows:

Gowanda P. O. Bldg., Feb. 10 to Feb. 14
Franklinville P. O. Bldg., Feb. 16 to Feb. 21
Olean Federal Bldg., Feb. 10 to Mar. 15
Salamanca P. O. Bldg., Feb. 10 to Mar. 15

They will be there every day ready and willing to help persons, subject to the income tax, make out their returns, without any cost to them for their services.

Returns of income for the year 1919 must be made on forms provided for the purpose on or before Mar. 15, 1920. Because a good many people don't understand the Law and won't know how to make out their returns, the Government is sending in this expert to do it for them. But the duty is on the taxpayer to make himself known to the Government. If he doesn't make return, as required, before March 15, he may have to pay a civil penalty, pay a fine or go to jail. So if you don't want to take chances on going to jail, you better call on the income tax man. If you are not sure about being subject to the tax, better ask him and make sure. Whether you see the income tax man or not, you must make return, if you were a married man living with your wife, and your 1919 income equalled $2000 or more, or if you are any other person, whose income was $1000 or more.

Of course, persons resident in other counties, may, if they want to, come and see the income tax man, who will be at the places listed above.

There will be no general extension of time to file returns, so that you should have your return drawn immediately. The Law provides that at least one-quarter of your tax must be paid on or before March 15, 1920. This payment should accompany your return when filed. Therefore, when you call on the income tax man, you should be prepared to pay one-quarter of your total tax.

MARY PICKFORD IN "THE PRIDE OF THE CLAN"

Mary Pickford's appearance is always one of charm. No matter whether she is in rags, the silk kimono of Butterfly, the riot of colors of far away India, the worn out home garments of Tess and the Foundling or the clattering wooden shoes of Hilda, there is always the same charm, the same sweetness and the winsomeness that makes her so appealing to everyone.

In her latest Artercraft picture, "The Pride of the Clan", to be seen at the Palace Theatre and Wednesday, she portrays the Scotch Lassie and when clad in kilts and with her hair thrown about her gracefully-poised head she is more beautiful than ever. It is a character too that holds out every opportunity to the star for making it one of the most popular parts she has ever created. In other words, it is an ideal Mary Pickford part and that is just what all of the Mary Pickford admirers most want.

LEGION PLAY FEBRUARY 27

At a recent meeting of the American Legion, it was decided to present the play, "The American Flag" on the evening of February 27, at the Palace Theatre.

Tickets are on sale now and can be procured from any member of the Post. Reserved seats can be secured by calling at the Harvey & Carey store. Only a limited number are to be placed on sale, and it is advisable to secure your seats now. In the event that you do not, you probably will be disappointed by your failure to secure one.

The play is one of those literary masterpieces that always follow in the wake of a great war. The Post is very fortunate in securing a play that is so aptly suitable for local presentation. The characters have all been especially selected for their ability to play their parts. All the characters have been working for nearly a month on their parts, with nightly rehearsals under the able leadership of J. J. Mc Carthy.

The Caste of characters is as follows:

Bob McMillan...A Brave Young American
Walter Facklam
Kommandant Wolff...Of the enemies forces
Bartlett Coss
Ignatz Schell...An honest Israelite
Irving H. Mosher
Judge Oliver...American Counsel in France
Leland Durfee
Major Marvin...An American Officer
Merlin Johnson
Karl Steinberg...A German soldier
Martin Schrader
June Oliver...An American girl in France
Mildred Steele
Dixie McMillan...A girl patriot
Helen Pingleton
Rosika...A Hungarian Gypsy
Angela Carroll
Also American and German Soldiers.

The scene of the play is a small town in Northern France. The play opens with a scene showing the exterior of Judge Oliver's home in Northern France. At the time the play opens the Germans are marching toward Paris.

As the play progresses the heroism of the American soldiers is vividly portrayed; until at last the Germans are pushed back and the war is won. All thru the presentation of the play the German spirit of Militarism permeates until at last this spirit is crushed and the Germans are overwhelmingly defeated.

All thru the play the intense strain of war is lessened by the merriment and humor of Ignatz, the Jew. He appears in the most unexpected places and his wit and "Jewism" will supply a full evening of entertainment.

Kommandant Wolff has the mark of German Militarism stamped all over him. In every instance he tries to demonstrate German "Kulture". As to whether he succeeds or not can be plainly seen in the last act when he meets death at the hands of the Americans.

The romance of the play is supplied by the attention showered upon June Oliver by Bob McMillan. Kommandant Wolff resents this and is obdurate toward Bob until he meets his death. He is desirous of securing June as his wife and Bob's attentions toward her serve to inflame him.

All of the players are exceptionally well fitted for their parts, and the play should go off exceedingly well. The players have all worked on their parts to the fullest possible extent and certainly their work deserve the patronage of everyone.

After the play a dance will be given by the Legion at Setter Hall. The Nestles Food Co. Orchestra has been engaged for the occasion, and will also furnish music at the theatre. Everyone is invited to attend the dance, and it is hoped that they will all respond.

Between the acts at the theatre, Amateur Vaudeville will be staged by Legion members. There are several unique "Vaude-Villians" in our outfit and they will add much to the evenings festivities.

Everyone should come out, and on this occasion give the Petersen-Angove Post the biggest send-off they ever had. Let's all pull together and get a Legion Club House for Cattaraugus.

FINISH THE JUBILEE DRIVE.

New York State quota is $135,000. Let us reach the apportionment by March 10, 1920. Unless each local Union sends in its quota, the State will lack. There is supposed to be a strong Prohibition sentiment in this town. Why are we so slow in raising our quota of $240.00? To be used for World Prohibition—Americanization—Child Welfare and Law Enforcement.
