

GLENFIELD SWEEP BY LIVELY BLAZE

Michael J. Fries Hotel and Barn, Spencer Burdick and W. F. Herrick General Stores and Residence of Mrs. Nettie Betts Burned to the Foundations.

Glenfield eight miles south of Lowville, was visited by the most destructive fire in its history Tuesday morning.

With the exception of a small quantity saved from the Herrick store, all stock and furnishings of both the stores and hotel were destroyed.

Rescue of Mrs. Betts' invalid mother, Mrs. Amelia Fries, 75, by Rev. George Erison, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church and Spencer Burdick, whose store was razed, was one of the dramatic incidents of the disaster.

When Mrs. Betts hurried out of her home, guests of the hotel, including a party of tourists, were running out, clad only in a few clothes.

Individual losses are estimated at $25,000 for the hotel property, owned by Michael J. Fries; $35,000 for the Spencer Burdick general store and stock; $25,000 for the W. F. Herrick general store and stock.

TWO BOATS CRASH ON ST. LAWRENCE

MR. AND MRS. W. CHARLES LIPE AND PILOT DROWNED.

Speed Boat "Giggie" and "Thousand Islander" Sink in Deep Water—Sixty-five Passengers on Excursion Boat from Oswego into River and All Are Rescued.

W. Charles Lipe, Syracuse millionaire, his wife, and Capt. Ford Dodge, pilot of his speed boat, were drowned in the St. Lawrence river, one mile from Alexandria Bay, Friday night in a crash which sent his craft and an excursion boat carrying 65 passengers to the bottom.

When it became evident the large pleasure craft was going down, panic among the passengers broke loose. Many of them hurried themselves into the water without waiting to put on life preservers.
