CROGHAN - The 30th annual reunion of the descendants of the late Frank and Mary Grimmer Buckingham was held at the Bald Mountain Club Camp on Sunday, with 75 attending, including three guests. The usual jerked veal was served at 1 p.m., including a covered dish dinner.

Officers elected were: Roy Buckingham, President, Arthur Buckingham, vice-president; Mrs. Elizabeth Gilligan, secretary-treasurer.

Old-st member present was Mrs. Mary Bockenheim and the youngest was Eugene Michael Buckingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Buckingham. There were three marriages and five births during the year. The next reunion will be held at the same place on the second Sunday in August, 1973.

A few men have painted and marked several barrels for the deposit of clean glass containers and bottles. This is to help the Lewis County Committee for a Better Environment in the recycling of glass. The barrels have been centrally placed in the villages of Croghan and Beaver Falls for public use. All glass must be clean, catsup bottles, mustard jars, etc., are not acceptable unless clean. Bottle caps, neck rings, etc., must be removed. Also, any metallic surface county trucks under the direction of Highway Superintendent Ralph Bush, of Lowville, will pick up the glass and transport it to the Lowville recycling center. Magazines and newspapers will be picked up periodically by Boy Scouts. Father Leo Memorial School students, under the supervision of Sister Angelina, will also pick up junk mail, etc.

Mrs. Thelma Krickmire, of Syracuse, who has been spending a few days at Paul Grunert's camp, Long Pond, moved to Syracuse on Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. Helen Brown, who accompanied Mrs. Krickmire back to Croghan to also spend a few days at the Grunert Camp.

Timothy Dawson has returned to his home in Horsehoe Falls after spending a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Steiner, High Falls. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dawson.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald DeLaPorte and two children of Hyattsville, Md., are spending a week here visiting Mr. DeLaPorte's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold DeLaPorte and Mrs. DeLaPorte's mother, Mrs. Stella Matthew, Canton.

Father Anthony Moore, O.F.M., pastor of St. Stephen's parish, left Sunday for a few weeks vacation at Flushing, L.I., and other places in New York and New Jersey.

Father Leo Memorial School will open Tuesday, Sept. 5, with Sunday School for public school children, grades 1-8, beginning Sept. 10 at 8:30 a.m. and each Sunday at that time until St. Stephen's resumes the winter schedule of Masses.

Funerals for John Nortz, whose funeral was held at St. Stephen's Church, Croghan, during the past week, were: Ronald Nortz and Stephen Nortz, Lowville; Philip Nortz, Port Leyden; Edward Nortz, Syracuse; Stanley Chesnut, Syracuse, and David Horton, Mexico.

Mrs. Thomas Montanye, the former Susan Meyer, and her infant daughter, Nicole of Appleton, and Mrs. Agnes Drum, of Binghamton, grandmother of Mr. Montanye, have returned home after spending a few days here visiting Mrs. Montanye's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Meyer, and family.

The 62nd annual Conservative Mennonite Conference was held at Beaver River Central School, Beaver Falls, Aug. 14 to Aug. 17. Members attending were from Pennsylvania, Florida, Mississippi, Kansas, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, North Carolina and Canada, as well as Lewis County Mennonite Church members.

Guests of Mrs. Veronica Terrillion during the past week were Mrs. Catherine Swartzentruber Ruth of Piegson, Mich., Harvey and Mabel Swartzentruber, also of Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Renaudin, Spencerport, Mrs. Ethel Jokey, Old Forge, Josephine Blauhart, Natural Bridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Feistbamel, of Parisville.

Donald Murphy and his wife and daughters, of Ohio, and Mr. Murphy's mother, Mrs. Edward Murphy, of Carthage, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy and other relatives in this vicinity during the past week.

Mrs. Arnold Lyndaker, who has
