

Garretts 50 Years Married

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Garrett, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday December 9, with an open house at the Deer River Stonehall from 2 to 5 p.m., given by their children.

Mr. Garrett of Maberly, Ontario, and the former Cozette Barnum of Carthage were married December 6, 1922, by Rev. H.C. Cooper of the First Baptist Church. Mrs. H.C. Cooper and George Garrett, brother of the bridegroom, were attendants. Following their wedding they left for Toronto, Canada where Mr. Garrett enrolled in the Molor Barber College. On May 1, 1923, they moved to Croghan, where Mr. Garrett was engaged as a barber working in the shop of Austin Martin.

In 1943, they moved to their present home. Later, Mr. Garrett was employed by Carthage Machine, Inc., Carthage, where he worked until he retired in 1963.

They have three children, Mrs. Warren (Jessie) Gamble, Deer River, and Thomas and Francis, Carthage, seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, all of Carthage.
