frame vacation home of General Attorney Arthur Arms, located on the Swackhammer Road in the Town of West Turin.

According to troopers, the pair broke into the camp about April 15 and stole a quantity of whiskey, an intercom system, a telephone and other miscellaneous items valued at more than $200. All but the whiskey was recovered.

In the course of the investigation, it was determined that the pair were also allegedly responsible for an entry at the Constablenville Elementary School on April 15, at which time they allegedly stole a valuable tape recorder.

Van Atta, charged with third degree burglary, appeared before Lowville Justice Henry O. Schab. He was released in his own recognizance to await grand jury action. The fifteen year old youth will be treated in Lewis County Family Court.

In other police activities, sheriff's deputies wrapped up a bad check case that dates back to nearly a year.

Gu. J. Mcerry, Jr., 25, and Mrs. Rita Ann Mcerry, 22, of Castorland, were arrested May 22 by deputies on charges of issuing bad checks. Deputies said the charges stem from a complaint issued in the village of Lowville court by Deputy J.D. Bailey charging the couple, in August, 1972, issued bad checks to the Grand Union Store in Lowville.

Arraigned before Justice Robert K. Village Lowville, they entered pleas of guilty. Sentencing was deferred to a later date.

Boys' League Action Begins

The International League portion of Lowville Boys League began action last week with all games played despite impending inclement weather. Things went normally except for a tie game between the Yankees and Whirlbirds and a field protest by the Sandtoners in their game against the Leathernecks. Two teams emerged undefeated and look very strong - the Mets with good pitching, four home runs by Kevin Hurley and an overall strong team effort won two lopsided contests and the Stars behind Tim Maroff registered the only shutout of the week. The rest of the league seems very competitive with no team capable of winning.

The latest standings:
Stars, 3, and Homogenizers, 0; Whirlbirds, 16, and Yankees, 16 (tie); Crackers, 16, and Kings, 2; Mets, 24, and Mohbers, 2; Leathernecks, 4, and Sandtoners, 3; Homogenizers, 6, and Whirlbirds, 8; Kings, 13, and Sandtoners, 12; Mets, 22, and Crackers, 2.
