Glenfield Area News

By Mrs. Alice Kogut

Ph. 376-3377

GLENFIELD - Mrs. Eleanor Jones was honored with a surprise party on her 71st birthday, May 31, at her home by the Valley Homemakers Chapter. Attending were Connie Gydesen, Teante Jones, Liz Cobb, Donna Jones, Nellie Grabb, Mary Marks, Francis Young, Dawn Miller and Mrs. Jones great grandson, Scott Miller. She received many gifts and a shower of yarn. Her granddaughter, Dawn Miller, made a beautiful cake and punch was served. Members of the Valley Homemakers Chapter are reminded that the June banquet and installation of officers will be held at the Little Hotel, June 7, commencing at 6:30 p.m. with a cocktail hour. Ezra Howell is a patient again at the Lewis County General Hospital. His wife, Grace Howell, is spending some time with their daughter, Pat, in Rome. Robert Knickerbocker is a medical patient at Lewis County General Hospital also.

Our Little Leaguers have two more losses - Forestport and West Leyden.

One patrol of Boy Scouts consisting of Mike Raymond, Mike Kogut, Jeff Kogut, Peter Beadore, and Paul Beadore spent 2 nights and a day camping out at Little Otter Lake area. They spent their time fishing for trout. The same weekend there was a report of a bear in the area, but not by the campers.

E. Frank Kogut has purchased an acre lot from Leon Duncan above Old Glendale. A new house trailer will be placed there. On the 23 of June, he will be married to Bonnie Manzer of Martinsburg at St. Mary's Church in Glenfield.

The fourth graders of St. Peter's School spent Thursday on the Bush farm outside of Lowville. A good time was had by all.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the Foote family and the Shumway family.

Mrs. Ben Smith was a pneumonia patient in the Lewis County General Hospital from May 30 to June 2.

Also anyone interested in organizing a mixed doubles league please contact either Doug or Dick. There are two lights installed now that operate until 10:15 p.m. for anyone wishing to play at night. Members are asked to please make up any matches not played yet and report the results as soon as possible. Any suggestions for the second half would be welcomed.

CHURCH BRIDE - Miss Ann F. Thayer, daughter of Mrs. Edwin S. Thayer and the late Mr. Edwin S. Thayer, 1107 Champion Road, West Carthage, became the bride of David H. Hartcock, R.D. 1, Newfield, N.Y. at 1 p.m. on June 2 at St. James Church, Carthage. Father James Spender O.S.A. officiated at the ceremony. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Hancock of Croghan.

The bride, given in marriage by her brothers, E. Stephen Thayer of Rochester, Mich. and Jared Thayer of Carthage, wore a gown in princess style of white, satin with chiffon overlay. The bodice was trimmed with floral appliques and a trimmed skirt had appliques with daisy garland. The floor-length illusion veil was held by a cap to match the dress. She carried a bouquet of majestic daisies with blue babies' breath and blue ribbons.

Jennifer H. Thayer, was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a blue and white floral voile in the style of a print halter dress with a matching jacket. She carried pink and white pompons with a matching hair piece. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Deborah Chamberlain of Newfield, N.Y., a college friend of the bride; Mrs. Barbara Krotje of Ithaca, N.Y., a college friend; Mrs. William

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony with a buffet at the Carlowden Country Club.

The couple spent a week in Virginia for their honeymoon. Mrs. Hancock is a 1967 graduate of Carthage Central and a 1971 graduate of Ithaca College. She is employed by North County Orthopedic Group, P.C. Watertown as a physical therapist and by Greenbriar Nursing Home as a therapy consultant.

Mr. Hancock is a 1967 graduate of Beaver River Central and a 1971 graduate of Cornell University. He is presently a third year student at N.Y.S. College of Veterinary Medicine at Cornell. He is employed this summer by Dr. Marcus Nellus, a veterinarian from Chaumont. This summer the Hancocks will reside at Point Salubrious, Chaumont. In the fall they will live at R.D. 1, Newfield, N.Y.

Naumburg Area News

By Mrs. Irene Schulz

NAUMBURG - The First Congregational Church, Deer River, enjoyed a "Come Home Sunday" for former members and friends Sunday. A large crowd turned out. Services at 11 a.m. were followed by a luncheon furnished by the women's fellowship.

Mrs. Robert G. Wallace and Mrs. Leslie J. Pfaff, Carthage, were visitors of Mrs. Irene G. Schulz last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Crandall became parents of a son, Herbert William, III, May 14 at Carthage Area Hospital.

The past matrons and patrons of Carthage Chapter No. 276 O.E.S. will hold a cookout June 2 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Holmes. Mrs. Irene G. Schulz is past matron two times of the chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Domagala, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lenahan, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Maroff, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Sheldon and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Simpson were the five couples who have completed the three-year management course at the 10th annual farm management recognition banquet held by the Lewis County Cooperative Extension Service held at Candlelight Restaurant, Turin. Mrs. Nellie J. Tisse, 82, widow of Bert H. Tisse, died Sunday in Greenbriar Nursing Home. Following services at St. James Church with Rev. John Wilson officiating, burial was made in St. James Cemetery. She was born in the Town of Croghan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jackson, and married Bert H. Tisse in 1915, who died in March, 1969. Jacob W. Wooschlagler, 83, formerly of Castorland, died Saturday at Sunset Nursing Home, Boonville, where he had been a resident since last October. Services were held Tuesday with Rev. Bruce Chapman officiating. Burial was made in Castorland Cemetery. Contributions in his name may be made to the memorial fund of Beaver Valley United Methodist Church. His nearest survivor is an only sister, Clara, Lowville.
