CROGHAN - The Santa Claus Parade, sponsored by St. Stephen's Council, No. 2176 and the Croghan Grand Union, will be Sunday, Dec. 16, at 1 p.m.

The parade will form at Lou's Diner on Route 26A. The line of march will include the Beaver River Central School Band, St. Stephen's Fife and Drum and floats from Father Leo Memorial School.

The Father Leo Home and School Association will be serving coffee and other refreshments in the opera house after the parade. Mayor Bernard Bergman will light the village Christmas tree at this time.

There will be a gathering of all the children from the Village of Croghan on Wednesday, Dec. 12, for the purpose of making Christmas decorations for the village tree. The tree in front of the village hall will be lit only on occasion. Therefore, all children are welcome to go to St. Stephen's Church Hall at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 12.

Please bring popped corn, plastic covers, plastic containers, large-eyed needles, old Christmas cards or glue, it is hoped the tree can be filled with homemade decorations. Parents are requested to join in the fun.

The cranberries and spray paint will be donated by the following merchants: Monnat's L.G.A., Martilly's Store, the Miller House, Village Tavern and the Croghan Inn.

The Village parade will be held Sunday, Dec. 16. The results of the election of new members of St. Stephen's Parish council are as follows: Gilbert Monnat received 28 votes; Bernard Nortz, 23 votes; Larry Byrnes, 15 votes. Next highest votes were for Howard Nortz, 13 votes, and Leslie Varschneider, 12 votes. An important meeting of the council will be held in St. Stephen's Church on Wednesday, Dec. 12, at 7:30 p.m. Father Cosmas Timlin (nephew of Father Bartholomew Timlin, The Provincial's Trustees), will be present to address the council.

Reuben Kloster is a patient at Lewis County General Hospital, where he is undergoing treatment for a heart condition. Fourteen members of the Croghan Fire Auxiliary attended the meeting, held Nov. 19.

Mrs. Mary F. Knight was the winner of the $1 prize. Anyone knowing of a student, a shut-in or a member of the Armed Forces are asked to give the names to Mrs. Anne Meyer, phone 346-6172. On Dec. 22, the fruit baskets will be delivered by Mrs. Anne Meyer, Mrs. Mary Schack, Mrs. Mary F. Knight and Mrs. Nancy Zehr.

The Christmas party will be held Dec. 17 at 6:30 p.m. Members are asked to take a covered dish, a $1 exchange gift, also a gift for a secret sale. Appointed to the luncheon committee were: Laura Zehr, chairman; Helena Kuhl, Marie Nortz, substitute; Gladys Kerthen.

The Christmas tree for the Village of Croghan, donated by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kelley, has been erected on the front lawn of the Village Hall. The tree will be decorated by Leland Knight, Village commissioner.

Santa Claus will be present in the Village Hall to distribute gifts to the youngsters in the surrounding village and communities of Croghan.

Eric Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Morrow, has received an honorable discharge from the U.S. Army with the rank of T-6. He was stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky. He entered the service in 1970 and served one year in Vietnam. He is a graduate of Paul Smith's, 1969.

The third meeting of the Croghan Colleen's 4-H Club was held Nov. 28 at the home of Miss Julie Campney, ne-

Topics Club Meets

Current Topics Club will hold its holiday meeting at the Trinity Church Parish House at 8 p.m., Monday, Dec. 17. A musical program will be presented by Mrs. John Lormore. All members are invited to attend and take a guest. Members please bring a wrapped gift to be given to a patient at St. Lawrence State Hospital plus cash gifts of $2. Hostesses are Mrs. Edgar S. K. Merrill, II, and Mrs. Michael Roman.

nior leader. Plans were made for the Christmas party, which will be held on Monday, Dec. 17, at the Campney home.

Four 4-H girls participated in the holiday demonstration held in the basement of St. Peter's Church, Lowville, on Thursday, Nov. 29. Diane Demo demonstrated a Christmas boat, Melanie Campney, a doll made with candy life savers, Mary Murphy, a cranberry salad, Julie Campney, a Christmas ball made out of plastic medicine containers.

Carl Courts was admitted to Lewis County General Hospital on Saturday, Dec. 1, where he is undergoing observation and medical treatment.

Bernard Martin, who underwent major surgery at the House of the Good Samaritan, Watertown, remains a patient at the hospital. His condition is slowly improving.

Roy Giblin, 74, of Boonville, father of Mrs. William "Pep" Meyer, Croghan, died in a Utica hospital on Saturday, Dec. 8. The funeral was held Tuesday with a Requiem Mass in St. James Church, Carthage, at 10 a.m. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Boonville. He was a native of Carthage.

Mrs. Maud More and her sister, Mrs. Rose O'Mara, have returned from Lakeland, Fla., where they spent a month visiting Mrs. More's son, Lt. Col. Rory O'Mara, retired, and his wife and family.

During the winter months St. Stephen's Church will be locked at 6:30 p.m.

The Sunday School of St. Stephen's will have a Christmas party in the church basement on Sunday, Dec. 16, at 9:15 a.m. Parents are urged to attend. Benediction will be in the church afterwards.

The Catholic Youth Organization will sponsor a dance on Friday, Dec. 14, from 8:30 p.m. to midnight in St. Stephen's Church basement, with round and square dancing. Music will be by the Frontiersmen.

Brian Patrick Turck, a senior at Mont Pleasant High School, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Turck, four brothers and three sisters at 2202 Campbell Avenue, Schenectady, and grandson of Mrs. Leona Turck, Croghan, was cited Oct. 17 as Kiwanis Vocational Career Student of the Month.

This is Brian's second year in the Heating, Refrigeration and Air-Conditioning program at Mont Pleasant. During this period, he has maintained a "B" average in all of his subjects. In addition to this, he has been an active member of the varsity football team for two years, the varsity wrestling team for one year, is a Human Relations committee member, is on the committee for the Junior Prom and is a member of the Immaculate Conception Church.

After graduation, Turck plans to attend Colorado State University to further his education in the field of Air-Conditioning Technology. He is well-liked by his fellow classmates and teachers. Howard Cobn, Brian's Heating, Refrigeration and Air-Conditioning instructor, feels that Brian is an asset to Mont Pleasant High School and will become an excellent future employee in the industry.
