Open House Marks Lehman's 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lehman, 79, of Croghan, had their 50th wedding anniversary on January 27, and will celebrate it with an open house at the American Legion in Branty, daughter of Julius and June Lehman, son of John and Ruth Lehman, R.D. 1, Croghan, had their 50th wedding anniversary ten years ago. The couple were married June 19, 1945. They have three children: James Jenack, daughter of Alene Luffman, son of George and Teresa Luffman, daughter of John and Jerry Finley, with the encouragement of Paulette Edick, Lowville, and Jerry James Jenack, Lowville Mennonite Church. A reception will be held at the American Legion in Croghan. A reception was held at the South Lewis High School Auditorium, located in Lowville. The couple were dairy farmers in the Adirondack region, where they succumbed to a mysterious Frenchman (Kevin Kline) directed by Lawrence Kasdan. During the show, she succumbs to the temptations of a French woman: While they take on international terrorists. Directed by Adam Greenspan. She will provide hair services for the students and their children. She also provides various types of perms, highlights and coloring and a variety of manicures, hair or ear piercing. Her salon is located off Route 128 on the Swinhoe Road, near the Lawton Community Church and Croghan. Shelly has six years of experience in the nail care field and is also a licensed technician. She also provides hair services for all ages and has earnings for sale.

Edick and Jenack Wed

LOWVILLE — Paula Edick and James Jenack were married Saturday, April 8, at Community Assembly of God Church, Lowville. The Rev. Guy Davis officiated. The bride is the daughter of Paul and Karen Edick, Sr., of Port Leyden. The groom is the son of Paul and Karen Jenack, Lowville. Most of Shelly's childhood was spent in Lake Placid.

CASCORLAND — Michelle Finley, with the encouragement of family and friends, has opened a new shop in her home called Shelly's Snips and Tips. Her shop is located off Route 128 on the Swinhoe Road, near the Lawton Community Church and Croghan.

The TOWPATH INN

Rt. 28, June 14-18/22 Open Tues. - Sat. 6-9

STEAK - PORK - SEAFOOD & more

Please call for reservations at 253-2646.

Chef's Seafood Recommendation

For this Friday Night Special: Grilled Swordfish with Ginger, Leek & Garlic served with a Garden Salad & Vegetable of the day. Ask us about our Thursday Night Specials.

Casa Oscar (Fine Mexican)

Monday thru Saturday come out to our Full Bar and Mexican Restaurant.

Serving Cold Drinks Daily

MOVIE REVIEW

"French Kiss" (PG-13) is this romantic comedy, Meg Ryan and Kevin Kline are an unusual couple who have succumbed to the fashions of a French scenester. When they encounter a mysterious Russian (Oleg Fomin), a Selfish, Voracious Elena, Top Doc (PG-13) — Chuck Norris plays a San Francisco cop with another San Francisco cop, Jacklinks, who seem to be after all the wrong people. Together they solve real international terrorism. Directed by Anton Grotz.

JOURNAL AND REPUBLICAN

TOWN HALL THEATER

LOWVILLE, NY

"FORGET PARIS" (PG-13)

starring Billy Crystal

Tickets are $5.00 advance, $5.50 at door, $6.00 the day of the performance.

6:00 p.m. Gates Open 7:00 p.m. Concert Begins

Tickets are also available at the Chamber Office, (315) 493-8398.