Top Colleges to Clash In 4-Event Ski Meet at Ridge

A field of more than 60 college and ski club racers and jumpers are expected to enter the two-day, four-event meet to be held at Snow Ridge, Turin, Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 16 and 17.

Cornell will play host at the intercollegiate invitational meet on Saturday with cross-country and jumping slated to start at 10 a.m. Ski teams from St. Lawrence university, R.P.L., Army, M.I.T., Princeton and Syracuse will take part in the first four-event meet to be held on the Snow Ridge slopes. The new 30 meter jump at Snow Ridge will see its first competition this weekend. The cross-country course, considered one of the best in the north country, has the approval of F.I.S. for sanctioned meets.

On Sunday the Onondaga Ski Club of Syracuse will sponsor the Alpine events, downhill and slalom, with all the leading colleges and ski clubs in upstate New York expected to enter contestants. The slalom races will be held on the north slope at Snow Ridge, considered the best in northern New York for the event. The downhill races will be run on the Cruikshank, a trail recognized by the U.S.E.S.A. for Class C racing.

The collegiate meet, on Saturday, will use the two open events on Sunday to complete their four-event meet. Scores of the ski teams compiled on Saturday will be added to their results of the downhill and slalom on Sunday to find the winner of the meet.

Chairman of the Invitational on Sunday is Ben Bucko, former inter-collegiate jumper, now a Syracuse attorney. Secretary of the meet is Jane Nevins, former member of the Syracuse University Ski team.

Lewis Co. Pays $1700 on Wild Animals in 1953

Bounties paid on wild animals—wolves, foxes and bobcats—during 1953 in Lewis county totaled $1,700, according to a report released today by the Lewis county treasurer's office.

Seven wolves were brought in for $25 bounties, making a total of $175 paid out in this category. Bounties of $10 were collected on ten bobcats for a total of $100. Foxes, which bring $3 bounties, were listed as 475, for a total of $1,425.

The past year marked the first time bounties have been paid for foxes by the county. Bounties on wolves and bobcats have been paid for a number of years, however.

The treasurer's office also reported a brisk business in fox bounties since the first of the year.

Wrestlers Off To Massena for Match

Coach Jack Brennen's matmen will pack their parkas, hitch up the dog sled and head for Massena Saturday night for a match with the groaners from the frozen north.

Clayton Continues Rally With Win Over Beaver Falls In Border Loop

The Clayton hoopsters turned in a 67 to 57 win over the Beaver Falls quintet last week to keep its record intact in the Border Basketball league. The top place club has won nine league triumphs. Copenhagen, occupying second place with ten wins and a defeat, turned in two wins last week, setting back Black River, 68 to 48, and Alexandria Bay, 69 to 53. The third place Gouverneur team didn't take part in a circuit contest, postponing its game with Alexandria Bay.

Chaumont came through with two wins, topping Evans Mills, 68 to 52, and Cape Vincent, 60 to 58. The Harrisville tossers took an 82 to 67 win from heresa in which Paul O'Driscoll of the losers tossed in 34 points. Theresa also lost a thrilling 73 to 72 decision to Evans Mills with Jack Schell

THAT RED HOT Copenhagen team racked up 125 points over Chaumont Monday night, the second time they've scored above the century mark. One fellow played only 13 minutes and accounted for 53 points. We're beginning to suspect that Coach Byrnes has a magnet inside the ball.

BIG DOINGS AT Snow Ridge this weekend with two days of events with some of the top colleges in the east participating. Going to put the new 30 meter jump to use, too, so if you like to watch the best sport there is, get out there Saturday and Sunday.

THE SKI SCHOOL for school kids went over with a bang with about 19 signing up the first week. They ski under the tutelage of Skimeister Franz Elsigan on Wednesday nights. Boonville's class skis on Friday nights.

NOW THERE'S A FINE opportunity to ski, if you can't seem to get away during the days. The number five and six slopes are well lighted on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday until about 9:30, or probably later if there's a crowd.

of the losers getting 30 points. The Beaver Falls combination won from its neighboring rival, Harrisville, 54 to 52 in one of the best games on the week's program.

Ten games are slated on this week's bill with the action getting under way this evening at Copenhagen and Clayton.

The Chaumont team will play at Copenhagen and Clayton will entertain Theresa. The lone game on Tuesday evening will have Harrisville at Chaumont, while on Thursday night a single game, Theresa at Beaver Falls is slated.

There will be three games on Wednesday night—Beaver Falls at Gouverneur and Alexandria Bay at Cape Vincent—and three on Saturday night—Black River at Evans Mills, Cape Vincent at Harrisville and Clayton at Alexandria Bay.
