THE ROYAL EXCURSION.

The following is the programme for the trip of the Prince and Princess of Wales, with their family and a party of friends, to Norway, Sweden and Denmark: They will first pay a visit to the famous fjords on the western coast of Norway, and will then go to Gothenburg, where the Prince will land for a shooting tour in Sweden. The royal party will be received by King Oscar and his four sons, who will accompany it on the cruise. September 8 has been named as the day for the Royal Swedish yachting association, of which the King is president, will take place in the presence of the royal visitors. On the following day a banquet will be given in honor of the Prince of Wales and he will be elected an honorary member of the association. Whilst in Sweden the prince will hunt the elk on the estates of Hamilton and Blackwood, the latter of which belongs to the grand master of the hunt in King Oscar's household, whose guests the royal visitors will be. Great preparations have been made by the owner for their reception, he having, among other things, purchased a new magnificent steam yacht in England, in which conveyance are to be made, it is said will also take place on Baron Dickson's property in Jemtland. On the succession the Princess of Wales and her daughters will proceed to Copenhagen on a visit to her parents, and she will be present at the opening of the English church in the second week in September. This is the first English church in Denmark, and its erection has been entirely due to the efforts of her royal highness. The prince will probably join the princess at Copenhagen in the middle of September, when the party will return home.

AWARDING OF STATE FAIRS.

What are known as "refreshment privileges" of the approaching New York State Fair have just been sold. The privileges were put up at auction and were knocked down to the highest bidder. The Albany syndicate—that like is to be held at the capital this year—gave the price which each privilege commanded, and the figures cannot fail to interest students of the human form who would like to know what are the most current popular wants of their fellow-creatures. Here is what it amounted to:

Dining Hall	$210 00
Second dining hall	75 00
Restaurant	170 00
Confectionery and Cream	110 00
Candy	110 00
Fruit	110 00
Lager Beer	1,675 00
Ice Water and Lemonade	200 00
Tobacco and Cigars	200 00

When a satisfaction finds the privilege of dining in even the first dining-hall bringing over $1,675 more than the lager privilege, he is forced to conclude that rum glass of lager has come to be regarded as equal in value to thirteen dinners and several cocktails of another.
