

MCKIE SAYS

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Items of News Pertaining to Cape Vincent and Vicinity.

What's the use of getting blue when there's nothing ailing you... Thanksgiving. Attend church. Remember the poor. Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Thanksgiving. —Attend church. —Remember the poor. —Use Eagle advertising.

—Christmas next. —The Odd Fellows will meet in regular session on Friday evening.

—The Cape Vincent grange will elect new officers on Saturday afternoon, December 4.

—Miss Adeline Joyner, of Brownville, is spending a few days with relatives in this village.

—The Cape Vincent school will close this (Wednesday) afternoon and remain closed until Monday morning.

—Mr. Farmer: Your horse should have a nice warm blanket. You can buy one for a little money at Daley's.

—Our local weather prophet, Fred Johnson, makes the statement that ice bridge will form early in January.

—Wash-lite makes washing easy. Oldths come out white, clean and sweet. Ten tablets 15c. At Spafford's.—Adv.

—Cigars, tobacco, cigarettes and the best stock of pipes ever shown in Cape Vincent can be found at Sheldon's.—Adv.

—A. C. Gardner is now the local representative for the Jefferson Securities Corporation, of Watertown. See advertisement in this issue.

—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Federick, of Gouverneur, were recent guests of their daughter, Mrs. John Muscot, and other relatives in this village.

—If you want bargains in shoes, rubbers, overshoes, shirts, socks, sweaters, etc., call at John McGowan's. Everything being sold at great reductions.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Hart, who have been spending the summer at their home, Green Shutters, in Point street, left Monday for New York city, where they will spend the winter.

—A force of men in charge of Robert C. Lusk, of the local fish hatchery are engaged in collecting spawn at South Bay, Ont. The new government boat, Curlew, is being used for the first time on this trip.

—On Tuesday morning of this week, at the Holy Family church, Watertown, occurred the marriage of Miss Doris Herrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herrick, of Fox Creek, to Andrew Anthony Kenny.

—The many friends of the bride in this locality will extend hearty congratulations.

—There is something about Christmas giving—the thing about others, and what they like—that warms the heart and makes one feel cheerful and happy and busy. That is, if the giving is done in the right way; not by bestowing useless trifles that soon degenerate into "clutter," just for the sake of giving something, nor gifts so expensive that you begrudge them, because handsome ones have been or may be given to you. Give something you believe is needed or desired by the recipient. By doing this you display the real Christmas spirit.

—The marriage of Miss Helen Elizabeth O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill to William O. Wiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Wiley, took place at eight o'clock this (Wednesday) morning at St. Vincent de Paul's church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph L. Tierney, of Rosiere, (in the absence of the Rev. R. O. Duford, who was called to Albany Monday), in the presence of the immediate relatives and a large number of friends of the contracting parties.

—The bride, who was becomingly attired in a suit of brown silvertone, with velvet hat to match, and black fur, was attended by Miss Cornelia E. Wiley, a sister of the groom, who wore a suit of blue velvet and hat to match. Thomas O'Neill, a brother of the bride, acted as best man. Francis and Herman O'Neill acted as ushers.

—Following the ceremony a tempting wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, west of this village, to the bridal party and a few intimate friends.

—The bride is one of Cape Vincent's charming young ladies and is held in high esteem by a large circle of acquaintances. The groom, who holds the position of mail carrier on Route No. 2 out of this village, is well liked and popular young man. He is a veteran of the late World War, having served with the A. E. F. in France.

—Practice coal economy. —Take a look at the nice warm blankets F. G. Blum is selling.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sacket returned Monday evening from a visit to Syracuse.

—Renée's imported DeLuxe talcum poms—different sizes. At Spafford's.—Adv.

—If you want strictly high-grade canned and bottled goods buy at F. G. Blum's.—Adv.

—The board of supervisors hope to finish the work of the annual session before Christmas.

—The Rev. R. O. Duford left Monday morning for Albany, where he will spend a few days.

—A full line of "Keith's" gift boxes of writing papers that always please at Glenn's.—Adv.

—Kingston Whig: When a man finds a quart in these dry times he never puts off until to-morrow what he can take to-day.

—Camden Advance-Journal: Girls, when you doll up, be careful not to smile as it lights up your face and might set off the powder.

—Carthage Republican: The people who offer thanks on Thanksgiving Day are not as numerous as they should be, but they'll remember the Lord all right when they get sick.

—Already the farmers are beginning to think of the holidays, and are getting ready to purchase Christmas gifts. It is but a little more than a month before the universal gift-giving holiday will arrive. Selecting the gifts, to get what is most appropriate and still within one's means is a familiar task, which is made easier by reading the advertising in the Eagle.

—The Holbrook (Arizona) Tribune of November 12, prints an account of the Klatawa Oil company, which is soon to commence drilling wells in that section. The article mentions David L. Montanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Montanna, of Tibbits Point light station, as being connected with the company. Mr. Montanna, who has been residing at Los Angeles, Cal., for some time past, is now at Holbrook, making arrangements for the drilling of wells on a property owned by the company. His many friends in this village hope that he may be successful in his new venture.

—A large advertisement for the Hardiman-Woolworth company appears on the second page of this issue. Be sure and read it. The prices quoted on furniture with a reputation are very reasonable.

—Miss Frances Buckley has learned that a month after she left Marsh, Turkey, the Turks obliged her to vacate the Latin Catholic church that was being used for the Armenian refugees. They have destroyed the steeple with the cross and are using the beautiful grey stone church as a mosque.

—According to reports made by toy manufacturers of the United States $80,000,000 worth of American-made toys have been produced this year in this country. Santa Claus will, therefore, have plenty of American-made toys to supply all of Uncle Sam's good boys and girls without having to fly a foreign flag because of the shortage of toys for domestic use.

—Early Saturday morning at her home in the eastern portion of the village, occurred the death of Mrs. Katherine Amo, after an illness of about two weeks.

—Mrs. Amo, who was 77 years of age, was born in Canada, but had made her home in this village for a good many years. She had the respect and esteem of a large number of acquaintances, all of whom will sympathize with the family in its bereavement.

—She is survived by five sons, John Tracy, of Brownville, Joseph, Charles and Alfred Amo, of this village, and three daughters, Mrs. John Ferguson and Mrs. Lloyd Warren, of this village, and Mrs. Tillie DeJournand, of Watertown; also two brothers, John and James McLenna, of Gananoque, Ont., and a sister, Mrs. Mary Gilmore, of Watertown.

—The funeral was held from St. Vincent de Paul's church Monday morning at nine o'clock, the Rev. R. O. Duford officiating. The remains were placed in Riverside cemetery vault.

—Thanksgiving. —Practice coal economy. —Take a look at the nice warm blankets F. G. Blum is selling.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sacket returned Monday evening from a visit to Syracuse.

—Renée's imported DeLuxe talcum poms—different sizes. At Spafford's.—Adv.

—If you want strictly high-grade canned and bottled goods buy at F. G. Blum's.—Adv.

—The board of supervisors hope to finish the work of the annual session before Christmas.

—The Rev. R. O. Duford left Monday morning for Albany, where he will spend a few days.

—A full line of "Keith's" gift boxes of writing papers that always please at Glenn's.—Adv.

—Kingston Whig: When a man finds a quart in these dry times he never puts off until to-morrow what he can take to-day.

—Camden Advance-Journal: Girls, when you doll up, be careful not to smile as it lights up your face and might set off the powder.

—Carthage Republican: The people who offer thanks on Thanksgiving Day are not as numerous as they should be, but they'll remember the Lord all right when they get sick.

—Already the farmers are beginning to think of the holidays, and are getting ready to purchase Christmas gifts. It is but a little more than a month before the universal gift-giving holiday will arrive. Selecting the gifts, to get what is most appropriate and still within one's means is a familiar task, which is made easier by reading the advertising in the Eagle.

—The Holbrook (Arizona) Tribune of November 12, prints an account of the Klatawa Oil company, which is soon to commence drilling wells in that section. The article mentions David L. Montanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Montanna, of Tibbits Point light station, as being connected with the company. Mr. Montanna, who has been residing at Los Angeles, Cal., for some time past, is now at Holbrook, making arrangements for the drilling of wells on a property owned by the company. His many friends in this village hope that he may be successful in his new venture.

—A large advertisement for the Hardiman-Woolworth company appears on the second page of this issue. Be sure and read it. The prices quoted on furniture with a reputation are very reasonable.

—Miss Frances Buckley has learned that a month after she left Marsh, Turkey, the Turks obliged her to vacate the Latin Catholic church that was being used for the Armenian refugees. They have destroyed the steeple with the cross and are using the beautiful grey stone church as a mosque.

—According to reports made by toy manufacturers of the United States $80,000,000 worth of American-made toys have been produced this year in this country. Santa Claus will, therefore, have plenty of American-made toys to supply all of Uncle Sam's good boys and girls without having to fly a foreign flag because of the shortage of toys for domestic use.

—Early Saturday morning at her home in the eastern portion of the village, occurred the death of Mrs. Katherine Amo, after an illness of about two weeks.

—Mrs. Amo, who was 77 years of age, was born in Canada, but had made her home in this village for a good many years. She had the respect and esteem of a large number of acquaintances, all of whom will sympathize with the family in its bereavement.

—She is survived by five sons, John Tracy, of Brownville, Joseph, Charles and Alfred Amo, of this village, and three daughters, Mrs. John Ferguson and Mrs. Lloyd Warren, of this village, and Mrs. Tillie DeJournand, of Watertown; also two brothers, John and James McLenna, of Gananoque, Ont., and a sister, Mrs. Mary Gilmore, of Watertown.

—The funeral was held from St. Vincent de Paul's church Monday morning at nine o'clock, the Rev. R. O. Duford officiating. The remains were placed in Riverside cemetery vault.

—Thanksgiving. —Practice coal economy. —Take a look at the nice warm blankets F. G. Blum is selling.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sacket returned Monday evening from a visit to Syracuse.

—Renée's imported DeLuxe talcum poms—different sizes. At Spafford's.—Adv.

—If you want strictly high-grade canned and bottled goods buy at F. G. Blum's.—Adv.

—The board of supervisors hope to finish the work of the annual session before Christmas.

—The Rev. R. O. Duford left Monday morning for Albany, where he will spend a few days.

—A full line of "Keith's" gift boxes of writing papers that always please at Glenn's.—Adv.

—Kingston Whig: When a man finds a quart in these dry times he never puts off until to-morrow what he can take to-day.

—Camden Advance-Journal: Girls, when you doll up, be careful not to smile as it lights up your face and might set off the powder.

—Carthage Republican: The people who offer thanks on Thanksgiving Day are not as numerous as they should be, but they'll remember the Lord all right when they get sick.

—Already the farmers are beginning to think of the holidays, and are getting ready to purchase Christmas gifts. It is but a little more than a month before the universal gift-giving holiday will arrive. Selecting the gifts, to get what is most appropriate and still within one's means is a familiar task, which is made easier by reading the advertising in the Eagle.

—The Holbrook (Arizona) Tribune of November 12, prints an account of the Klatawa Oil company, which is soon to commence drilling wells in that section. The article mentions David L. Montanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Montanna, of Tibbits Point light station, as being connected with the company. Mr. Montanna, who has been residing at Los Angeles, Cal., for some time past, is now at Holbrook, making arrangements for the drilling of wells on a property owned by the company. His many friends in this village hope that he may be successful in his new venture.

—A large advertisement for the Hardiman-Woolworth company appears on the second page of this issue. Be sure and read it. The prices quoted on furniture with a reputation are very reasonable.

—Miss Frances Buckley has learned that a month after she left Marsh, Turkey, the Turks obliged her to vacate the Latin Catholic church that was being used for the Armenian refugees. They have destroyed the steeple with the cross and are using the beautiful grey stone church as a mosque.

—According to reports made by toy manufacturers of the United States $80,000,000 worth of American-made toys have been produced this year in this country. Santa Claus will, therefore, have plenty of American-made toys to supply all of Uncle Sam's good boys and girls without having to fly a foreign flag because of the shortage of toys for domestic use.

—Early Saturday morning at her home in the eastern portion of the village, occurred the death of Mrs. Katherine Amo, after an illness of about two weeks.

—Mrs. Amo, who was 77 years of age, was born in Canada, but had made her home in this village for a good many years. She had the respect and esteem of a large number of acquaintances, all of whom will sympathize with the family in its bereavement.

—She is survived by five sons, John Tracy, of Brownville, Joseph, Charles and Alfred Amo, of this village, and three daughters, Mrs. John Ferguson and Mrs. Lloyd Warren, of this village, and Mrs. Tillie DeJournand, of Watertown; also two brothers, John and James McLenna, of Gananoque, Ont., and a sister, Mrs. Mary Gilmore, of Watertown.

—The funeral was held from St. Vincent de Paul's church Monday morning at nine o'clock, the Rev. R. O. Duford officiating. The remains were placed in Riverside cemetery vault.

—Thanksgiving. —Practice coal economy. —Take a look at the nice warm blankets F. G. Blum is selling.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sacket returned Monday evening from a visit to Syracuse.

—Renée's imported DeLuxe talcum poms—different sizes. At Spafford's.—Adv.

—If you want strictly high-grade canned and bottled goods buy at F. G. Blum's.—Adv.

—The board of supervisors hope to finish the work of the annual session before Christmas.

—The Rev. R. O. Duford left Monday morning for Albany, where he will spend a few days.

—A full line of "Keith's" gift boxes of writing papers that always please at Glenn's.—Adv.

—Kingston Whig: When a man finds a quart in these dry times he never puts off until to-morrow what he can take to-day.

—Camden Advance-Journal: Girls, when you doll up, be careful not to smile as it lights up your face and might set off the powder.

—Carthage Republican: The people who offer thanks on Thanksgiving Day are not as numerous as they should be, but they'll remember the Lord all right when they get sick.

—Already the farmers are beginning to think of the holidays, and are getting ready to purchase Christmas gifts. It is but a little more than a month before the universal gift-giving holiday will arrive. Selecting the gifts, to get what is most appropriate and still within one's means is a familiar task, which is made easier by reading the advertising in the Eagle.

—The Holbrook (Arizona) Tribune of November 12, prints an account of the Klatawa Oil company, which is soon to commence drilling wells in that section. The article mentions David L. Montanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Montanna, of Tibbits Point light station, as being connected with the company. Mr. Montanna, who has been residing at Los Angeles, Cal., for some time past, is now at Holbrook, making arrangements for the drilling of wells on a property owned by the company. His many friends in this village hope that he may be successful in his new venture.

—A large advertisement for the Hardiman-Woolworth company appears on the second page of this issue. Be sure and read it. The prices quoted on furniture with a reputation are very reasonable.

—Miss Frances Buckley has learned that a month after she left Marsh, Turkey, the Turks obliged her to vacate the Latin Catholic church that was being used for the Armenian refugees. They have destroyed the steeple with the cross and are using the beautiful grey stone church as a mosque.

—According to reports made by toy manufacturers of the United States $80,000,000 worth of American-made toys have been produced this year in this country. Santa Claus will, therefore, have plenty of American-made toys to supply all of Uncle Sam's good boys and girls without having to fly a foreign flag because of the shortage of toys for domestic use.

—Early Saturday morning at her home in the eastern portion of the village, occurred the death of Mrs. Katherine Amo, after an illness of about two weeks.

—Mrs. Amo, who was 77 years of age, was born in Canada, but had made her home in this village for a good many years. She had the respect and esteem of a large number of acquaintances, all of whom will sympathize with the family in its bereavement.

—She is survived by five sons, John Tracy, of Brownville, Joseph, Charles and Alfred Amo, of this village, and three daughters, Mrs. John Ferguson and Mrs. Lloyd Warren, of this village, and Mrs. Tillie DeJournand, of Watertown; also two brothers, John and James McLenna, of Gananoque, Ont., and a sister, Mrs. Mary Gilmore, of Watertown.

—The funeral was held from St. Vincent de Paul's church Monday morning at nine o'clock, the Rev. R. O. Duford officiating. The remains were placed in Riverside cemetery vault.

Uncle Philander, Jr. True charity never seeks space in a newspaper. Look out for the individual who has no good neighbors.

Important Notice This Bank Will Start a Christmas Club and our advertisement next week will tell you all about it. The Citizens' Bank of Cape Vincent

Insurance! Not How CHEAP But How GOOD. Consider It's Importance. We represent companies that are the oldest in the United States and the largest in the world.

Wrigleys The children love Wrigley's—and it's good for them. Made under conditions of absolute cleanliness and brought to them in Wrigley's sealed sanitary package.

Wrigleys Still 5c Everywhere THE FLAVOR LASTS. Wrigley's Spearmint, Wrigley's Doublemint, Wrigley's Peppermint.

Advertising The Key to Business Success Get Our Rates The Eagle $1.50 a Year. The Eagle $1.50 a Year Subscribe

JOSEPH G. GREGOR CAPE VINCENT.

FARM FOR SALE. The farm of the late Alexander Cruset, located near the Burnt Rock school house, contains 85 acres with good wood lot. Inquire of Fred Cruset, Rosiere, N. Y.—Adv.

Wanted. Men to solicit orders for fruit and ornamental trees, roses, shrubs, etc. Part or full time. Pay weekly. C. W. Stuart & Co., Newark, N. Y. state

Wanted. Men to solicit orders for fruit and ornamental trees, roses, shrubs, etc. Part or full time. Pay weekly. C. W. Stuart & Co., Newark, N. Y. state