

MICKIE SAYS—

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Items of News Pertaining to Cape Vincent and Vicinity.

Why?

The Eagle would like to ask why it is that the Watertown Daily Times persists in advertising the dates of the Cape Vincent fair as Aug. 29-Sept. 1? The big exhibition is to be held September 11, 12, 13 and 14.

Judicious advertising never yet failed to pay the advertiser. The schools in the town of Cape Vincent will open on Tuesday, September 4.

The Odd Fellows will hold a regular session Friday evening. If you have visitors please furnish us with their names for publication.

You can't now pay that corporation tax at five per cent. Miss Cora M. Wiley is visiting relatives and friends in Watertown.

Summer visitors have commenced to leave the river. Read the advertisement of the Jefferson county fair in this issue.

Uncle Philander, Jr.

With some people gossip is their only pastime. In the army of the Lord there are no draft recruits.

Advertisement for The Citizens' Bank of Cape Vincent, featuring a 4% interest rate and listing bank officers.

Advertisement for Deering Grain Binders, highlighting their quality and ease of use.

Advertisement for W. H. Grant Co., Inc., listing various construction materials like cement and shingles.

Advertisement for Foamite-Childs Corporation, a fire protection engineering and manufacturing company.

Advertisement for Rosiere Picnic, detailing the date, location, and ticket information.

Advertisement for M. E. Church Notices, listing church services and prayer meetings.

Advertisement for Dr. Philip E. Rossiter, an optometrist and ophthalmologist.

Advertisement for Leon L. Peo Garage Co., offering reduced prices on Silvertown tires.

Advertisement for Strand Theater, featuring the play 'The Sin Flood'.