ALERT LINE PLAYS BIG ROLE IN STEELERS WIN

Playing heads-up football and using tricky plays the Lackawanna Steelers rolled to their third straight victory of the WNY Semi-Pro Conference last Sunday afternoon by swamping the Hamburg team by a convincing score of 33-to-0.

A shirt sleeved crowd of approximately 2,000 fans saw the boys from Lackawanna turn on the scoring parade early in the second quarter. The Steelers recovered a Hamburg fumble on the 6 yard line. Fullback Chuck Kukoleca then fired a pass to Dick Mitchell for the score. The conversion was not good.

Lackawanna kicked off and Hamburg had possession of the ball on their own 20. An attempted pass backfired as Dick Mitchell intercepted the ball and brought it back to the Hamburg 7 yard line. Kukoleca then smashed off tackle to score. The try for the extra point was blocked.

Hamburg had the ball on its own 42 yard line when they again attempted to pass. This time Johnny Pietrusik leaped high into the air and came down with the ball and raced 70 yards for the first thriller of the afternoon. The conversion was blocked. The half ended with the score Lackawanna 18 and Hamburg 0.

Lackawanna kicked off and Hamburg immediately fumbled on their own 48. Mitchell carried to the 12 and a first down. Frank Jaworski, the Steelers quarterback faked handling the ball off and scored on an off tackle smash. Steve Angle booted the pigskin between the uprights for the 25th point.

The Steelers were forced to punt from the Hamburg 43 yard line and they punted out of bounds on the 12. In a last desperate move to go upfield Hamburg tried to pass on the very first play. The passer was so rushed by the Lackawanna line that he was trapped behind his own goal line and tackled by Chuck Schultz for a safety and two more points for the Steelers.

As a result of the safety the Hamburg team kicked off from their own 20 yard line. Lackawanna took over on its own 40. Angle carried to the Hamburg 36. Norbie Kulpinski carried to the 24 yard line. The stage was now set for the second thriller of the afternoon. Kulpinski faked a run, turned and fired a pass to end Walawender who lateralled to guard Lou Spelich. Spelich covered the remaining distance for the last Steeler score. The extra point try failed. The game ended with the score Lackawanna Steelers 33 and Hamburg 0.
