

HAPPY HOUR --- SUNDAY

HAPPY HOUR SUNDAY, 1ST SHOW 2:15 SECOND SHOW 7:00 AND 3d SHOW 8 O'CLOCK, FOR 10 c.

From the Moving Picture World—March 4th, 1916.

Opening Episodes of Pathe Serial Promise a Story of the First Quality—Thrills A Plenty and a Few Laughs.

Practice has made the Pathe company notably proficient in the production of serial photoplays.

Seemingly, they have found it wise to make each reel interesting, quite as if it were expected to stand on its own merits.

If past performances are a safe token of the future, we should say that a winning combination is engaged in producing this story of mystery and thrills.

"The Vengeance of Legar," in two reels opens the serial at a rapid pace. It is here that we notice the expertness with which interest is aroused in the story of the girl, Margery Golden, who is kidnapped when a child and reared by the vengeful Jules Legar—"The Iron Claw."

In the second episode "The House of Unhappiness," Creighton Hale appears for the first time, and it soon becomes evident that as the secretary to Enoch Golden, Margery's father, he is destined to play an important part in the picture.

Much of the excitement in these two reels is produced by Legar's use of an electric ray projector, which enables him to set buildings on fire. It is largely a picture of burning structures, until Manley discovers the location of the projector and the conspirators are driven into the open.

ELMER E. HARRIS FOR COMMITTEEMAN

Have you ever known the "News" to print anything, during the 6 years Mr. Harris was in the Board of Aldermen, that said he did not work at all times for the best interests of all concerned?

Have you ever heard the "News" charge that Mr. Harris has not filled the office of State Committeeman, in the 4th Assembly district, with a credit to himself and the Republican party?

If Mr. Harris has served the party well and wishes at this time to keep it together, should not the true blue Republicans rally around his standard and reward him with a re-election if they want to keep a business man of his standing in office?

Now, if never before, is the time for every good man to come to the aid of his party. You must decide Tuesday whether or no you want reformers elected.

If you would decide on merits, all we ask of you is to glance at the court proceedings that followed the election of County Clerk Meahl, he was a reformed candidate of the reformers and the courts had to be invoked to stop the illegal appointments he had made in this office.

Let's hope so.

PAPER PRICES

The price of printing paper is becoming prohibitive, we are printing on this page a letter received from a paper dealer yesterday advancing the price of all papers 35% and then saying "prices subject to change without notice."

The rag dealers are paying $1.50 per cwt for old magazines, 40c per cwt for waste paper that you are sweeping up and throwing to the wind.

The dealers inform us that it is doubtful if we will be able to buy "print" paper in 60 days from now "print" paper is what the Journal and all other news papers are printed on, really a newspaper may, in 60 days from now, be a luxury.

PERSONAL

Robert C. Ford formerly of Chicago and now with the Steel Co., has gone to Washington D. C. for a visit will return Tuesday. Mr. Ford was formerly president of the Minnesota Social Club.

THE TIMES ANSWERS THE "CITY SCOLD"

TWO QUESTIONS AND TWO ANSWERS.

The newspaper which is directing its best efforts in behalf of the Republican primary committee, published the following questions under this heading Thursday evening:

TWO QUESTIONS FOR ERIE COUNTY REPUBLICANS TO ASK THEMSELVES

First—Is the united Democratic press of Buffalo supporting the * machine ticket for state and county committeemen in the present primary contest because they believe its success will be for the real good of the Republican party?

Second—Is the united Democratic press of Buffalo advocating election of * national delegates because these papers really want to see Charles E. Hughes nominated for president at Chicago in June?

These two answers are given and directed to those Republicans who have been more or less bullied by the insurgents.

First—The united Democratic press is * merely enlightening a somewhat befogged public on the real condition of affairs.

The public is entitled to both sides of the day's news.

Second—The united Democratic press is not interested in the Republican Presidential nominee.

Mrs. Ella C. Souter Chamber of Commerce Election Died Last Night

Mrs. Souter is the Wife of Eli Ross Souter of Victory Ave.

Last night at 11 o'clock death called our our midst Mrs. Ella C. Souter wife of Eli Ross Souter and mother of eight children, John, Helen, Mary Brennan, Ross Jr., Edward, Anthony, Michael, Catherine and four sisters, Mrs. Strong, of Salamanca, Mrs. A. T. Schreck, Mrs. D. J. Foley of Titusville, Mrs. Margaret McQuad, Orchard Park, one brother Michael Brennan of Bradford Pa.

Death in its most acceptable form is always lamentable even tho it comes to relieve suffering and despair, but when it enters a home and calls the mother of eight children there is no one who can estimate the loss to the husband and father and only as time rolls on will the true loss be really known.

The will of the Almighty we have not the right to question and we have been taught that "all is for the best" but in view of all this a heavy loss is being borne by this bereaved family and greater so by the fact, that one boy is still in a very serious condition from the same ailment, pneumonia, that took away the mother, and the baby of the family is under the special care of a doctor and nurse.

As it befalls our lot to write the notice of such a death as this we go to our task, not in the usual routine of duty, but with feeling of the deepest sympathy and the knowledge that what we write and say here, cannot express the sadness and the earthly loss that has been sustained by "Ross" Souter and his family.

The funeral of Mrs. Souter will be held at the family residence, 414 Victory Ave., Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock and from St. Patrick's Church at 10.

Wanted Things Cleared Up.

Colored pastor (dismissing congregation)—"De membabs what am provided wid umbrellas will please wait until I take a look at 'em. Since do mysterious disappearance of my own umbrella last Sunday dar am a cloud ob suspicion floating ober dis yer church which has got to be dispelled."

No Coat Needed.

Billy, four, and his mother called to see a new baby at a hospital. His mother suggested to her friend that the baby might have Billy's coat to wear home. Billy protested vigorously. "Why, Billy," said his mother, "the poor baby will have to stay here; she will have no coat to wear home if you don't lend her yours." Billy replied: "Well, she came without a coat, didn't she?"

ELMER HAGMAIER ELECTED PRESIDENT

The Chamber of Commerce met last night and elected the following officers:

President, Elmer Hagmaier; Vice-President, Wm. H. Wheaton; Secretary, Geo. R. Mink; Treasurer, Geo. H. Wicks; Director, P. Michaels; Director, L. G. Lenham.

After the election the chamber took up the matter of building the school additions and while the body did not take any official action, owing a final report, yet the feeling ran very high against the expenditure of $130,000.00 for these additions.

It was clearly demonstrated, that the majority of the members present were against this proposition and are strongly in favor of the two shift idea.

The people in general are for the double shift scheme and the only ones who openly oppose it is the Builders and Teachers Trust.

Just why the teachers should oppose this is not readily seen, in as much as it requires more teachers and in conserving the expenditures of public money for buildings, would tend to leave more money available to increase wages.

The members of the Chamber of Commerce are against this $130,000.00 blow out.

The Lackawanna Citizens Ass'n is against this $130,000.00 Builders Jubilee.

The Equal Tax Ass'n is against the Plundering Propaganda.

Laughable Mistake.

A very popular preacher once had a brother so much like him that few people knew one from the other. One day he went to see his aged parents, and the occasion being some family festival, he expected his brother to be there likewise. On entering the room, he stepped forward to greet his brother with all the heartiness which a long separation engendered, and found, from a mirror at the other end of the room, that he was offering his hand to himself!

City of Departed Glory.

Compared with Nineveh and Babylon, hoary-headed in iniquity, Bagdad, a ragged city of 150,000, full of great ruined mosques today, is a mere child. The fabled city of Harun-al-Rashid, dingy today, unsanitary, with its low, windowless houses and its narrow, unappealable streets, has long clung to a certain importance, none the less, because of its place on the overland trail from the Orient.

Buffalo Is Going To Retire a Lot of Old Fogies at Last

We Hope A Certain Principle At No. 61 Sees This

On the recommendation of Supt. Emerson of the department of education, the city council in special meeting as a board of pensiontrustees this morning made up its mind to adopt a policy of retiring upon pension some of the older teachers in the city's service who have put in the quota of years that is required as a prerequisite to pensioning and who, through advanced age, are not as efficient as younger teachers would be.

The board authorized Supt. Emerson to make up a list of the teachers whose retirement on pension would be for the good of the service. Mr. Emerson said afterwards that he will not act hurriedly, but may occupy the remainder of the school year putting these retirements through. He would not give an estimate of the exact number of teachers who will be affected, but estimated more than ten will go. These are teachers who do not care to retire voluntarily.

COLONEL MEEIS ROOT

Two Erstwhile Enemies Lunched Together at Mr. Bacon's Home.

New York, April 1—Those five—Senator Elihu Root, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Robert Bacon, Major, General Leonard Wood, and last, but by no means least, Theodore Roosevelt—had luncheon together at Mr. Bacon's home at 1 Park avenue.

Behind the mere record of lunching together of these men lurks a portentous political significance. It means the meeting of Root and Roosevelt for the first time since the Republicans and Progressives fell apart in 1912, and it strengthens the growing belief that the Republicans, as well as the Progressives, will nominate Colonel Roosevelt for president this year.

What they ate at the luncheon is of no importance, but what they talked was this, and so far as any of those present would admit, the talk was of preparedness, an issue that is bound to be the biggest of the coming campaign.

The coming together of Root and Roosevelt for the first time since the colonel began his campaign against Taft in 1912, since the time when the colonel accused Root and Taft of stealing the Republican nomination from him, and since the time when Root drew up an opinion defending the legality of Taft's nomination, to which the colonel made a caustic reply, was not exactly a startling shock to some few political leaders, who pretended to know that Roosevelt and Root have been communicating with each other for some time.

Virtues Attributed to Stone.

Many virtues are attributed to caruncles. It is related that those who wear them can resist poisons and are preserved from the pest. They dissipate sadness, control incontinence, avert evil thoughts and dreams, exallate the soul and forestall misfortune to man by losing their native splendor.
