

Massapequa - 14 / Lawrence - 6

Massapequa Records Undefeated Season

CHIEFS IN CONTENTION FOR RUTGERS CUP

The eighth straight Pequa victory (7 in league competition) places the Chiefs in contention for the Rutgers Cup. The other outstanding contender for the award is the Berner High School football eleven who earlier completed an 8-0 season and have a winning streak of 19 straight victories on the books. Berner Coach, Bill Brown, was honored this week by being chosen as "Coach of the Year" by the University of Pennsylvania Alumni Club. He will be feted at an awards dinner in the coming week.

The Chiefs came back strong in the second half after being behind 6-0 at the close of the half. Steve McDonald scored after a 55 yard drive and Mike Barrett kicked the extra point to put the Chiefs ahead 7-6. The Chiefs defensive team, led by tackle Cliff Grohs was responsible for the Chiefs comeback effort. Holding the Lawrence Tornedos at key intervals enabled Massapequa to maintain their slim lead. Late in the last quarter McDonald again hit pay dirt and Barrett added the extra point placement.

Coach Lou Luba praised quarterback Pat Olson and sub-quarterback Steve Zimmer for an outstanding performance. Olson was injured during the last quarter and Steve Zimmer quarterbacked the final touchdown.

Selections for the All-South Shore Team were made this week. Selected by the South Shore coaches for the defensive squad were Jim Beckman and Mike Hanna, both from Berner High.

For the offensive squad, Massapequa's Steve McDonald and Cliff Grohs were chosen.

and Nassau C.C. The Aggies finished their regular campaign with four victories, against Concordia, New York, Rockland and Westchester, only bowing to Nassau, for an imposing slate.

Bowling

Coach Harry Schwarze's bowling team is moving at a nice pace, having scored four triumphs in five starts, the only setback at the hands of Nassau, 4-3, in a Pausonok test. Suffolk, New York City, F.I.T. and Manhattan C.C. have bowed to the Farmingdale keglers.

Youth Council Conducts

Wrestling Classes

Director of Recreation, Tony Tonachio has announced free classes in wrestling for intermediate grade boys of the Farmingdale school district.

The program will begin Saturday, December 7th at the Mill Lane wrestling room. Interested boys in grades 4 to 6 should report to Mr. Balboni at 10:00 A. M., sessions will end at 11:30 A. M. Basic fundamentals will be stressed.

Participants must have gym clothes or sweat suits, sneakers and towel. Twelve sessions have been scheduled.

Volleyball

The women's volleyball forces, led by Coach Joan Wathey, did well in placing third in the eight team Eastern Regional junior college championship at Queensboro, C.C., trailing Bronx C.C.

Ice Skating Exhibition

TRACY DOYLE, 6 of 139 N. Linden Street, Massapequa, goes through figure-skating maneuvers with Pat Walcot, r., Oyster Bay Town ice-skating instructor, as Councilman Ralph Diamond (l.) looks on. Action took place at the Syosset-Woodbury Community Park ice-skating rink, which was one of three — Bethpage and Massapequa ice-skating rinks — that was the scene of ice-skating exhibitions given by the Long Island Figure Skating Association.

MASSAPEQUA SQUAD BURSTS ONTO THE FIELD after fourth quarter gun signals the end of play and undefeated season for the Chiefs.

CHIEFS' PHILLIP MARINO (21) displays yard-gaining tactics that clinched victory in finals against Lawrence.

George Matola, Long Island Aggies' new court mentor, illustrates a defensive or pressure stance to Co-Captain Ron Baxter, right, while Co-Captain Ed McGinley, with ball, is on the offense. The Aggies won 85-84 over Fashion Institute of New York.

Big Year For Aggie Hoop Team

An air of optimism prevails over the State University at Farmingdale that this will be the "big year" for the Aggies' basketball team. It will also mark the debut into collegiate ball by the Green and White mentor, George Matola, whose Oneonta quintets for years had dominated the strong upstate Iroquois Scholastic League they dropped only three decisions in 38 tournament clashes and annexed the title three years in a row.

Before a turnaway crowd at Roosevelt gym, the Aggies came through with a sterling 93-81 performance over an All-Star Alumni with Co-captain Ron Baxter caging 32 points. The impressive victory on the heels of sparkling performances against the St. John's U. freshmen, Southampton and Dowling Colleges in scrimmages was followed by an 85-84 win over Fashion Institute of Technology at Farmingdale. The next contest for the Green and White is against Sullivan C.C. at home this Friday.

NRA Group

Elects Leaders

Two local students have been elected to leadership roles in the Farmingdale Rifles, a National Rifle Association sanctioned group, it has been reported to the Observer by Arthur Samet, Instructor.

Jerry Lanni a senior at Farmingdale High School was elected President of the rifle club and Miss Susan Arreola an 11th grade student was elected Secretary.

The club was formed as an adjunct to the activities of the local unit of Civil Air Patrol. Its purposes are to promote the safe and efficient handling of small arms, offer basic marksmanship training and home firearm safety. The club meets Saturday afternoons at the rifle range in Roosevelt Hall, State University at Farmingdale.

Youth Council

Opens

HS Program

The Farmingdale Youth Council has announced the opening of a varied program of recreation for students, in grades 10 thru 12. Activities begin this Saturday, December 7th from 1:30 to 4:30 P.M., at the Weldon E. Howitt gymnasium.

Director of Recreation, Tony Tonachio, explained that construction at the high school has made the Howitt school a temporary center for this year. Other high school programs are conducted at the Northside School on Monday night (7:30 to 10:00) and the Parkway Oaks School on Thursday night (7:30 to 10:00).

Programs vary at each center including basketball, volley ball, gymnastics, table tennis, billiards, etc.

Mr. Robert Mulligan is the supervisor of the high school programs.

In the massive intramural program that has more than 1,000 students and members of the faculty and administration participating in 12 events, the Recreation Supervision Seniors are way out in front with 325 points to be followed by the Faculty, 235; Recreation Freshman, 215; Police Science Seniors, 190; and Police Science Freshmen, 180. There are 25 teams participating in this program with the "Rec Seniors" setting a fast pace after flag football, track and field and hole-in-one golf. Sixteen teams of 40 have survived the qualifying round of the intramural bowling competition. The faculty trio of Al Witham, Bill Timoney and Mike Murray, champions the past two years, setting the pace again with 1120 pins.