Music:

A Tale of Two Divas: Marla Callas and Renata Tebaldi presented by Tanisha Mitchell

Sunday, May 7, 2:30 p.m.

Maria Callas was known for her superb dramatic interpretation, while Renata Tebaldi was known for her lush beautiful tone. During the 1950s, a rivalry between the two opera divas supposedly began when Tebaldi took two encores at their first duo recital in Brazil. We will examine and compare two great artists who transformed the operatic stage.

Adults:

Truly Madly Gullty by Llana Moriarty Leader: Caroline Fenyo

Friday, May 5, 12 p.m.

A busy couple, formerly on the brink of realizing their dreams, reflects on a fortuitous gathering with their best friends and another couple in a tale that explores the role of guilt in relationships and the power of everyday moments in family life.

HEALING IS THEIR PURPOSE

They are our angels when we're in need,
Comforting us.
With empathy and confidence,
Experts in care.
They share our pain and lift our spirits,
Guiding us to a healthier tomorrow.
It takes a special person.
Dedicated.
A big heart. Incredible patience.
And the desire to heal.
For healing is their purpose.
Every day.

Our special thanks to our Magnet-recognized nurses. We honor your gift for giving during Nurses Week. And we're thankful you offer your talents all year long.
