Father's Son, comes to Shea's Century Thursday.

This amusing and realistic comed which is based on Booth Tarkington's Old Fathers and Young Sons is not excelled veen by the same authors Penrod tales which everyone knows have no equalls but Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn.

Father's Son is the story of one Bill Emory, a freckled-faced, twelve-year-old who is forever being reprimanded by hos father, a man of middle life. Bill's misdemeanors are punished in many ways bue especially by his being kept frmo his dog, the tender solicitations of dian. Other acts are Queen, Queen and Queen, specialty dancers; The Lone Pine Rangers, hill billy instrumentalists; Carlton Emmy and His Mad Wags; Lucille Peterson, "the voice of the Golden West; and the Russell Margert Dancing Girls.

Shea Houses To Battle Heat

Cool inviting theaters to be readied for the summer now, says management.

Starting Sunday with the arrival of the Daylight Saving Period, Michael Shea, president of the Shea Operating corporatino, announces that the new effort through which the last complete summer time schedule will be put into evening shows will not begin until 9 30 o'clock. This means thata theatregoers may motor or golf in the early evening and still have time to reach any of Shea theatres in time for the complete 8:30 performance. The schedule affects Shea's Buffalo, Century and Hippodrome in the downtown section of the city and the Elmwood, Roosevelt, Bailey, Seneca, Kensington, North Park in the communities. It also affects Shea's Riviera in The Tonawandas and Shea's Bellevue in Niagara Falls.

Vntilation experts are now on their way from New York to inspect the mammoth cooling plants in the Shea hteatre, so that they will be ready for action with the coming of the first warm weather. These experts will work with the engineers of the Buffalo, Century and Hippodrome in preparing the extensive systems for bringing mountain-

Lewis Stone, Buffalo's own Irene Rich and Leon Janney in Booth Tarkington's "Father's Son" at Shea's Century starting Thursday.

Sheas Buffalo

City Streets, featuring seven Paramount stars will be presented at Shea's Buffalo, beginning Friday. Gary Cooper recently seen with Marlene Dietrich in Morocco, is co-starred with Sylvia Sidney. On the stage will be Benny Ross, that golden-voiced personality and Shea's Buffalo stage band, in the publix revue, Westward Ho!

City Streets is a highly dramatic picture into which is effectively woven an exciting and vivid account of the racketeering different from anything of its type yet seen on the middle screen. The action is fast-paced, the situations suspence-filled and the dialogue pointed and dramatic. As the result of his work in directing City Streets Mr. McMillan has been rewarded with a long tetrm Paramount contract.

The stage unit, Westward Ho! will feature Benny Ross in a new program of entertainment. Benny has become an overnight sensation and is fast growing in popularity with Shea's Buffalo audience. He has a fine baritone voice of rich quality and is one of the most versatile stage performers to appear in Buffalo in a long time. He directs the band in Westward Ho! is George Ba[illegible]
