

Lackawanna Basketball Teams Pass Another Undefeated Week

O. L. V. Dawes Annunciation and Canisius Yearlings; J. H. S. Scores Over East Aurora.

The championship quintets of Lackawanna high school and Our Lady of Victory Academy secured this week's local basketball title, the former notching an easy, one-sided victory over East Aurora while the parochial school side fished to two brilliant wins over Canisius Frosh and Annunciation's aggregation.

One basket from the floor, in fact all but one of the local's counters were made via the field goal route.

Ed. Decker's O. L. V. cagers accomplished an outstanding feat by holding Annunciation's basketball team scoreless from the floor last Thursday in a Catholic High School league game at Elmwood Music Hall, Buffalo. It marked the first time that this has been accomplished in a league game for several years.

Woman Warned To Pay Fine

Mrs. Bernice Citak Found Guilty of Fraud in Obtaining Relief.

Mrs. Bernice Citak, 27 years old, 448 Electric Avenue in this city, last Saturday began a 30-day probationary period in which to pay a fine of $25 handed down last week by Judge John R. Fulton, who found her guilty of fraudulently obtaining welfare aid. She faces a 60-day penitentiary sentence if she should fail to pay the fine in that period.

James L. Crane Will Direct Charity Drive

Annual Joint Charities Campaign from April 28th to May 9th.

James L. Crane, Buffalo lumberman, is the volunteer leader of the organization of men and women volunteer workers who will conduct this year's annual campaign of the Joint Charities & Community Fund, April 28th to May 9th.

James L. Crane

After graduation, Mr. Crane went to Buffalo to look for a job in a law firm. His brother the Rev. Louis D. Crane, was at that time, 1902, pastor of Calvary Presbyterian Church in Buffalo. He went into the law office of Wilson S. Bissell, and then became associated with the law firm of Locke, Hoyt and Greene.

Will Extend Bus Route

P. S. C. Authorizes Service To Include West Seneca.

Albany, Feb. 9.—The Erie County Motor Coach Lines, Inc. has been authorized by the Public Service Commission to extend its bus route from East Seneca to Transit Road at the eastern town line of the town of West Seneca, Erie County.

DEATH OF LOCAL BOY BRINGS WARNING

Parents Also Guilty Under Law It is Stated.

Parents who allow small children to use firearms are just as guilty under the law as those who sell firearms to children under sixteen years of age.

Local Golf Club Plans Dance

Social Event Will Be Held in Masonic Temple, February 20th.

The Lackawanna Golf Club will hold an Informal Pre-Lenten dance at Masonic Temple, Ridge Road on Monday evening, Feb. 20th.

C. D. A. NOTES

The regular weekly card party of the C. D. A., Court Mgr. Baker 1043, will be held Friday evening, February 17th. Bridge and pedro will be played and refreshments served.

Special Trips Offered For Inauguration

Complete Details Can Be Obtained From William McDonald, 2097 Abbott Rd.

Any Lackawanna wishing to attend the Presidential Inauguration in Washington on March 4th, will have the opportunity to do so at a very nominal cost, according to announcement made this week.

Several Local Organizations Plan Social Events

First Event Will Be Held in Dom Polski Hall This Sat.

Three outstanding events are on the local social calendar all of which by every indication will draw capacity crowds and promise worthwhile diversion from everyday cares and worries.

NEWSBOYS PREPARE FOR ANNUAL BALL

Novelty Prize Contests and Entertainment Will Feature Social Event.

Plans and preparations for the Newsboys' 30th annual ball, which takes place Tuesday evening, February 21st, are practically completed.

Blizzards Handicap Spelling Bee

Erie County Finals Held On Schedule At East Aurora, Springville Woman Victor.

High winds, blinding snow storms and zero temperatures conspired against contestants in the second annual adult spelling bee, conducted by the Buffalo Evening News and sponsored in this city by the Lackawanna News last Saturday night.

Community House Cagers Win

Issues Challenge To All Teams In 125 Pound Class.

Showing their best form of the season the Community House A. C. under the management of Joe Cooper and coached by Stanley Rezman notched their seventh straight victory Saturday evening by defeating the Greening Dairy quintet on the Community House court, 30-18.

WILL HOLD NOVENA AT OUR LADY OF VICTORY

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. H. Baker has announced that a solemn novena, in honor of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, will be held at Our Lady of Victory Basilica, Ridge Road and South Park Avenue, from March 15 to 24th.

BUY AMERICAN

What do we care now what Sweden can make—

And Germany, what should we care? It's what we can manufacture for America's sake.

BIGGER AND BETTER

Bigger and Better—16 pages of Colored Comics, Lucky Buck play money, comic cut-outs for the boys and girls and big American Weekly Magazine all with next Sunday's New York American.

BIRTHS

Boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson 644 Second. Girls were born to Mr. and Mrs. Ippolito Violante 499 Lehigh.

DEATHS

Donald Munich 7 Lynn Ave. Zora Klotch 54 Walnut St.

HEALTH CLINICS THIS THURSDAY

The schedule of clinics for the week have been announced by Dr. Anthony S. Culkowski, health commissioner, as follows: