ELKS 1961 CHARITY BALL PLANNED FOR TONIGHT

The 1961 Charity Ball of Freeport Lodge B.P.O. Elks will be held in the clubhouse tonight at 9:30. George W. Berns, a trustee of the lodge, is chairman of the committee of arrangements. He and Exalted Ruler Benedict P. Ciaravino this week extended an invitation to the public to attend the event. Music will be supplied by Victor's Orchestra.

Proceeds of the charity ball help to swell the fund from which donations are made to various welfare agencies within the jurisdiction of the lodge. Only last week $15,000 was distributed among more than 40 groups.

Schloss Made Life Member Of Legion Post in Freeport

Leo Schloss, a charter member of William Clinton Story Post, A.L., of Freeport, and its fourth commander, having served in 1922, was presented a gold life-membership card at the semi-monthly meeting of the post in its Dugout on Friday night, March 17.

The presentation was made by another past commander, C. Howard Larson, who called Mr. Schloss the dean of past commanders, remarking he had paid dues for 43 years. He referred to the fact that the recipient of the gift as a lawyer, had done much for the Legion during its early years.

In reply Mr. Schloss said his work had been a labor of love and he got a great deal of pleasure out of it. Before the meeting, Mr. Schloss was given a dinner in the Freeport Manor attended by 15 other past commanders and Commander Ernest Stumpf.

Besides the guest of honor and Mr. Larson past presidents were Henry J. Kranz, W. Wallace Guest, Edward C. McCormack, Frank D. Curley, Henry C. Dunker, William Snyder, Kenneth C Vought, Oscar Pultz, Frederick W. Batcher, W. Russell Redfield, E. Blair Licence, George H. Maynes, Benedict P. Ciaravino and John E. Carlin.

Hero Presented Medal

At the opening of the meeting Past Commander Ciaravino presented a medal to Edward Doerr, a Legionnaire and Freeport electric meter reader, who on Dec. 30, last rescued two boys from drowning at the risk of his life in the pond off Lakeview Ave., Freeport.

Girl Scouts Get Flag

There was a third presentation, a 50-star American flag to Girl Scout Troop 212, which meets Tuesday nights in the Bayview Ave. School, Freeport. This presentation was by Past Commander Maynes. He said the Legion had always stood for patriotism which it promoted in various ways.
