Church Crowded for Father Carter Services

The friends of Father Cyril Carter, Clifton native and former Holy Rosary Church pastor, crowded Holy Rosary Church for Mass of the Resurrection.

Bishop Eugene, the presiding celebrant, was assisted by Father Donald Kuder, C.S.B., and the Very Rev. Joseph Wey, C.S.B., Superior General of the Basilians.

Father James Cross, C.S.B., delivered the Words of Institution for the sacrament of Eucharist. He said that the altar was a place where life conformed to the moral lessons taught by Christ in the Sermon on the Mount.

Father Carter's 29 years of ministry at Holy Rosary and St. Mary's Mission of Our Lady of Peace, spent in the service of the Lord, were remembered by the priest and the congregation during the Mass.

The congregation includes many of Father Carter's former students, who remembered his teaching style and his dedication to his faith and community.

The Mass was also attended by many of Father Carter's friends and family, who came to pay their last respects to the priest.

Father Carter struggled with disease, ending his life. He died on the front line of St. Cyriel of Jerusalem.

Father Carter's name is remembered in the clergy of the diocese, and his memory is kept alive through the work of the community.

Scott Carter Stadium?—call it Father Carter Stadium. There is something remarkable about Father Cy's long, careful hours he put into saving that stadium scene. And now he is praying for his Mass.

Father Carter, a native of Clifton, had a special Mass for the family.

In 1967, the former Aquinas coach, Jack Landry, who played for Notre Dame and Maj. Don Landry, an Aquinas football player, who went on to become an All-American quarterback, was killed in a small world when you wake up in London and go to bed in Brussels, and young people.

Father Carter is survived by his family, including his wife, Elise, and their children, who will remember him fondly.

Father Carter's 29 years of ministry at Holy Rosary and St. Mary's Mission of Our Lady of Peace, spent in the service of the Lord, were remembered by the priest and the congregation during the Mass.

The congregation includes many of Father Carter's former students, who remembered his teaching style and his dedication to his faith and community.

The Mass was also attended by many of Father Carter's friends and family, who came to pay their last respects to the priest.

Father Carter's name is remembered in the clergy of the diocese, and his memory is kept alive through the work of the community.