

KEIR DULLEA seeks help from Howard Da Silva in this scene from the award-winning film, "David and Lisa," playing now at the Mount Kisco Theatre. The unusual love story of two teenagers was produced by Paul M. Heller and directed by Frank Perry. Eleanor Perry wrote the screen play and Mark Lawrence composed the original musical score. The Continental Distributing Inc. release has been named as the best film of 1962 by Time Magazine.

NANCY E. BROWN will teach third grade students at the Increase Miller School in the Katonah-Lewisboro district. She is a graduate of Lyons Township High School in La Grange, Ill. and received her bachelor degree from the University of Wisconsin in elementary education and French in June. She was a member of Chi Omega Sorority at the college.

Sewer Costs $40,000 Under First Estimate

CHAPPAQUA—Cost of the 6,000-foot sewer project extension currently under way in the Chappaqua Ridge area will probably run to about $175,000, some $40,000 less than the $215,000 originally estimated, according to Supervisor John F. Reed Jr.

Anthony Perrotta and Sons of New Rochelle hold a $151,000 contract for the work, and easement and incidentals such as attorney's, engineers' and consulting fees, are expected to bring the cost up to the $175,000 figure, Mr. Reed said.

Work on the project, which started about four weeks ago, is "progressing normally," according to Town Engineer Oscar R. Soyland. It is due to be completed within 200 working days.

The Chappaqua Ridge area includes Town Hall and the shopping center across the street.

Mothers' Auxiliary Slates Season's First Meeting

CHAPPAQUA—The Mothers' Auxiliary of the School of Saint John and Saint Mary will hold its first meeting of the year on Monday afternoon at 1 p.m. in the school auditorium. Sister Mary Damien, principal of the school, will address the mothers on curricular and extra-curricular activities for the coming year.

This meeting offers the mothers an excellent opportunity to ask Sister Damien questions which help toward the close relationship of home and school, announced Mrs. Ronald Carelli, of Chappaqua, president of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Corelli will speak on the plans and goals for '63-'64. Assisting her on the board are: Mrs. Ralph Gallagher of Chappaqua, vice president and program chairman; Mrs. William Sherry of Chappaqua, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Edward Strianese of Armonk, recording secretary; and Mrs. Frank McInerney of Chappaqua, treasurer.

In addition to the board, the following members are acting as chairmen of standing committees: Mrs. James Whalen, luncheon; Mrs. Nicholas Penebre, children's activities; Mrs. Francis Flynn, publicity; Mrs. William Mullane, membership; Mrs. Charles Kurnins, nominating; Mrs. Thomas Carmody, newsletter; Mrs. Paul Sherwood, devotional themes; Mrs. John Sitar, hospitality; and Mrs. Jerome Korth, ways and means.

Assisting Mrs. Sitar with hospitality are Mrs. James McCarthy, Mrs. Richard Althoff, Mrs. W. F. Humphrey, Mrs. Hugh Skelley, Mrs. Truman Moore, Mrs. Joseph Garland, Mrs. Warren Chamberlain, Mrs. Donald Tully, Mrs. Carl Sisk, Mrs. Lester Kemp, Mrs. Robert Sullivan, Mrs. Curtis Palmer will assist with publicity.

Class mothers who will help Mrs. Penebre and Mrs. Donald Gerety with the children's activities are Mrs. Adolph Kreiger Jr., Mrs. Andrew Young, Mrs. Curtis Palmer, first grade; Mrs. William Vasev, Mrs. Neil Craig second grade; Mrs. Harold Campbell, Mrs. Paul Uebbing, third grade; Mrs. William McGregor, Mrs. Matthew Shannon, fourth grade; Mrs. Harry Arader, Mrs. John De Giacinto, fifth grade; Mrs. John Crowley, Mrs. Raymond Bazinet, sixth grade; Mrs. Warren Mulcahy, Mrs. Edmond Mantini, seventh grade; Mrs. Warren Lindquist, Mrs. James Eranigan, eighth grade.

Drama Group Sets Casting For 'Dark Of The Moon'

CHAPPAQUA—The Chappaqua Drama Group today, Thursday, sent out a casting call for its fall production and director Eddie Roll said try-outs for "Dark of the Moon" will be held starting at 8 p.m. Sept. 9, at the Robert E. Bell School.

Readings also will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 10 through 12, at the same time.

Mr. Roll said: "Our play, first presented by the Shubert Brothers back in 1945, has a cast of 27 persons. There's a part for just about everyone who wants one—particularly if he likes to sing," especially folk-type songs.

Based in the Smokey Mountain country, "Dark of the Moon" is the love story of Barbara Allen and a "witch boy," Mr. Roll, Broadway choreographer and actor who has appeared in such hits as "West Side Story," said, "Everyone in the cast has to sing, but that doesn't mean I want to hear really great voices.

"What we want are people who can carry a tune—12 men and 15 women who aren't afraid to sing in public. They have to be able to act and move about the stage naturally. And they will have to do some folk-dancing along the way."

The director also said the cast calls for a couple of guitarists - "but that doesn't mean they have to be 'hootenany' experts. What we need are people who are genuinely interested in the theater. They don't even have to have had any experience - just the desire to be part of a good cast for a good show that has long been overlooked by amateur groups."

Songs in the show include such familiar tunes as "Down in the Valley" and "The Old Religion" as well as the lesser-known "Life's Other Side" and "Smokey Mountain Gal."

Joel Goldsmith, president of the Chappaqua Drama Group, stressed that roles in the show "are open to everyone interested. Big people, little people, girls, boys. Our show needs some of everybody and they certainly don't all have to come from Chappaqua. In fact, we hope to see people come to our try-outs from as far away as Manhattan, Stamford and Peekskill - and all the towns in between."

The show is scheduled for mid-November at the Horace Greeley auditorium in Chappaqua, according to Elaine Bahn, producer.

'Tender Trap' Playing At Dobbs Ferry

DOBBS FERRY—Television stars Earl Holliman and Anthony George co-star in the comedy hit "The Tender Trap," by Max Schulman and Robert Paul at the Westchester County Playhouse at Dobbs Ferry which opened Sept. 4 and will run through Sept. 9.

"The Tender Trap" is marriage against which the Messrs Holliman and George battle. The fun begins when happily married Joe MacCall, played by Anthony George, visits his long-time bachelor friend, Earl Holliman, who conducts a social life to rival King Farouk's.

"The Tender Trap" was directed by Matt Cimber, artistic director of the Dobbs Ferry Playhouse.

Yorktown GOP Names H. Orneck

YORKTOWN HEIGHTS—Appointment of Howard Orneck as Yorktown Republican finance chairman for the coming election campaign was announced recently by James F. McKeon, GOP campaign chairman.

Mr. Orneck has been a member of the Yorktown Zoning Board for two years. Last year he was finance chairman for Rep. Ogden R. Reid in Yorktown. He served as treasurer of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church for three years and was a vestryman for six years.

He is a member of the Yorktown Republican Club, American Legion Post 19 and the Rotary Club. He also has served on the citizens advisory committee on the school budget and is currently chairman of the School Advisory Committee.

Mr. Orneck has been associated with the New York Mirror for the past 15 years. He lives on Quaker Road with his wife and five children.

2 Injured On Taconic

YORKTOWN—A 71-year-old man and his 64-year-old wife were injured Monday night when their car went out of control off the Taconic Parkway near Mohansic Avenue, police report.

Taken to Peekskill Hospital with lacerations of the right eye, back injuries, and possible broken ribs was Amette Cohen, who was driving. Louis Cohen was hospitalized with possible fracture of the skull and nose and lacerations of the face, police said.

They live at 173 Cray Ave., Mount Vernon.

The southbound car struck a rock which had rolled on to the road from a construction site and went off the right side of the parkway, according to the report.

MHA Plans Fund Drive

A unique fund raising activity with $5,000 in works of art as an incentive will be conducted this fall by the Mental Health Association of Westchester County.

The event will open with a cocktail reception for workers, sponsors and donors at Ophir Farms, home of Congressman and Mrs. Ogden Reid, Sunday, Sept. 15.

Charles I. Rostov of Scarsdale president of the MHA, has announced that every $25 to the association will entitle the contributor to awards on certificates worth up to $2,000 on a purchase at any one of 10 co-operating art galleries in Westchester and New York City. Certificates for $2,000, $1,000, $750, $500, $250, and five for $100 will be awarded in November.

Among the galleries participating is the Park Avenue Gallery, 15 Armonk Ave., Mount Kisco, according to an announcement made by Mrs. L. Clovis Herning of Katonah, chairman of the Northern Westchester Branch of MHA.

The MHA is a group of volunteers, lay and professional, who work through education, research and service to combat mental illness. Funds raised this fall will help establish a Rehabilitation Employment Center for former patients and to expand other rehabilitation services. Expanded services will include a recreation program, and the Alcoholism Education and Rehabilitation Center.

The MHA also offers information and referral services, workshops and seminars, program planning assistance, and a comprehensive program of public education.

More than 10,000 Westchester citizens are active volunteers in the MHA, an affiliate of both the New York State and National Associations of Mental Health.
