The Temperance

New York, June 13, 18---A hanging gas explosion had taken place in a building near the corner of Main and Pearl streets, causing considerable damage and wounding several people. The circumstances surrounding the explosion were still under investigation by the authorities.

A GREAT DAY AT SAYRE.

The Annual Picnic of the Fire Department was held today, with a crowd of spectators watching the events.

DIARY OF CONCERTS.

The local freight agents of Elmira returned from their trip to Philadelphia on Saturday evening. They report a fine time and say they were royally entertained in the city of brotherly love. On Thursday they went to Atlantic City for the day and Friday they spent sailing around the New York harbor.

PAIN KILLER.

A great day for the temperance movement took place today. A few thousand people gathered in front of the New York State Temperance Hall to listen to an eloquent speaker from the Temperance Union.
