UNION MEETING

AT THE COURT HOUSE, IN HERKIMER, ON SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 2, 1861, at 6 1/2 o'clock.

Hon. GEO. W. SHIFF, of Oneida, and Hon. JOHN H. WOOSTER, of Newport. Will address the people in behalf of the Union, and on the topics of present Public Interest. It is the patriotic and independent People rally on this occasion to hear truths important to this people.

RECRUITS.—Lieut. Shoemaker, left for his Regiment in Maryland, on Monday, with five or six volunteers.

SOLDIERING.—Prof. Hannahs, of the Fairfield Seminary, has resigned his position, and is recruiting a company of volunteers.

THE ELLSWORTHS.—The Ellsworth Regiment has already been ordered into service. They are to form a part of Gen. Banks division, and their position will be near that of the 6th.

SEND THE RETURNS.—We hope measures will be taken in the several towns to send the result to the place as the earliest moment after the votes are counted.

APPOINTMENTS.—We understand Charles Gray, a son of Gen. Gray, of this village, has been appointed third master on one of the gun boats now in the course of construction for the government at St. Louis.

KILLED.—Among the killed at the siege of Lexington was fighting under the lead of the brave Col. Muligan, was a son of the village, supposed to be a son of Rev. William Putnam, of this village. The family awaits with interest further information which shall determine the question of identity.

IN SERVICE.—We understand that Oliver D. Day, of Little Falls, lately appointed an Assistant in the Commissary department of the Army, has been detailed as a Quartermaster, to accompany the great expedition already on its way, striking a tremendous blow on the rebel flag of the enemy.

FIRST ASSEMBLY.—The Democratic Convention for the first district, held at the Court House, on the 24th inst., was a success similar to that adopted by the County Convention last week passed. After appointing an Executive Committee for the ensuing year, the following persons, viz: Charles Spencer, James Dwyer, James Redden, the Convention adjourned.

SPREAD ASSEMBLY DISTRICT.—The Democratic Association District Convention, for the second district, held at the Court House, on the 24th inst., it was a success similar to that adopted by the County Convention last week passed. After appointing an Executive Committee for the ensuing year, the following persons, viz: W. H. H. Parkhurst, James Spencer and J. M. Trevelyan, and the Convention adjourned.

A CHALLENGE.—The following are the terms of challenge which has been received and accepted by Eugene Conway, No. 2 of Albany, from John H. Bingham No. 2 of Mohawk. The same played for $1000 on the 24th inst. and will be played on the 28th inst. The two players judge to choose a third party, and the two players judge to choose a third party, and the two players judge to choose a third party.

There were thirteen of our 24th boys were at Edwars Ferry at the time of the battle, but on the Maryland side. We think they subsequently passed over into Virginia, as a part of Gen. Sherman's brigade, but returned when the entire body to their original position on the North side of the river, after having been up all night, and in line of battle for twelve or fourteen hours. We say we think "the records with the fact, but up to this there has been no official statement. We are in possession of several circumstances which seem to be conclusive.

THE BROWN CASE.—This famous case—where the question of the change of title—has now on trial in the village, before Judge MILLER. The case was opened on Tuesday morning by Hon. H. D. Wood, for the plaintiff, and Judge MILLER, for the defendant. The case was opened on Tuesday morning by Hon. H. D. Wood, for the plaintiff, and Judge MILLER, for the defendant.
