Husband Breaks Parole Goes To Attica Prison

Fleischmans Man Promised to Behave When Sentenced Last May

Played Around Crime Is Abandoning Wife and Children and Failure to Support Them

William D. German of Fleischmanns, 36, killed his wife and children and made off with $10,000, according to the Attorney General in Albany.

On March 14, 1944, the State was granted a parole for a term of 10 to 15 years on condition that the Governor of the State was promised to behave and be of good moral character, according to the Attorney General in Albany.

The Attorney General in Albany said that on the morning of March 14, 1944, the man was arrested by the State police for violation of parole and sentenced to a term of 10 to 15 years in the State prison at Attica.

No Snow Yet in Any Part of Catskills

Yesterday morning there was no indication the Catskills would have a white Christmas. There is no snow, not even on the mountain peaks. Most days have been warm and the cold has been gone.

Yesterday morning the temperature was 80 degrees. The sun was shining and the winds were light.

Arrowsville Man Lives When Car Collides Head-on

A man was killed and a woman was injured when a car collided head-on on the Arrowsville-Margaretville, July 17.

The man was killed and the woman was injured when a car collided head-on on the Arrowsville-Margaretville, July 17.

Several Local Folk Take Part

In Pomona Grange at Roxbury

June 25, 1945—Several local men will be present at the meeting of the Pomona Grange at Roxbury tonight, according to a report from the Grange.

The meeting will be held in the Grange hall at 7:30 p.m. tonight.

Paper Shortcuts Much Advertising

The News has been com- pleted to a point where two copies of each issue are printed. The News has been com- pleted to a point where two copies of each issue are printed.

The News has been com- pleted to a point where two copies of each issue are printed.

The News has been com- pleted to a point where two copies of each issue are printed.

The News has been com- pleted to a point where two copies of each issue are printed.

The News has been com- pleted to a point where two copies of each issue are printed.

The News has been com- pleted to a point where two copies of each issue are printed.