Mr. Beck (Dem., Ky.) submitted an amendment, providing that the expenses of the Govern ment, as set forth in the proposed bill, should be extended until the first Monday in December, 1877. His amendment was unanimously agreed to.

A resolution was adopted accepting the gifts of the people of Texas to the United States. It was moved to adjourn the session. The motion was lost 16 to 15. The House adjourned.

The following resolutions were adopted:

The House respectfully thanks the Committee on Expenditures of Public Funds for their report, and respectfully declines to take any action thereon at the present time.

The House respectfully thanks the Committee on Education for their report, and respectfully declines to take any action thereon at the present time.

The House respectfully thanks the Committee on the Conduct of the War with Spain for their report, and respectfully declines to take any action thereon at the present time.

The following amendments were adopted:

Mr. Bacon (Dem., Tenn.) submitted an amendment providing that the Secretary of War should be required to transmit to the Senate a statement of the receipts and expenditures of the War Department for the current year, together with a statement of the outstanding obligations of the War Department.

Mr. Sumner (Dem., Mass.) submitted an amendment providing that the Secretary of State should be required to transmit to the Senate a statement of the foreign relations of the United States for the current year, together with a statement of the outstanding obligations of the State Department.

The House adjourned.